BROADWAY THEATER.

Real School Kids.

"Vacation Time," "Sleep, Baby Sleep," "If I Should," "He's a College Boy," "By the Light of the Silvery Moon," "Old Doctor Brown," "Sing, Kate, Sing," "I'm a Kewpie Man," and twenty other big musical hits will be sung by the Vacation Days company which will play at the Broadway Theater from Friday evening February 25, to Wednesday, March 2, at 8 o'clock. The company is a quartette hard to beat for a comedy with music. They are responsible for this production. The play is now undoubtedly the best musical production in the city. It has a unique plot, catchy music, pretty girls and funny comedians. Manager Clous realizing that the boys and girls in the audience were taken out of school, arranged to send a tutor with the company and every forenoon a member of the excellent features with this show, besides four high grade vaudeville acts.

THE AUDITORIUM.

Last week's show gave conclusive proof that the acts cannot come too big for the Auditorium. The feature act carried as much if not more scenery and effects than the average act. The boys and girls in the audience were taken out of school, arranged to send a tutor with the company and every forenoon a member of the excellent features with this show, besides four high grade vaudeville acts.

BREED THEATER.

In the Serpent's Power, Thrilling Feature Picture.
The extra large crowd at the matinee Saturday at the Breed theater, coupled with the fact that the temporary partition placed to permit the contractors to build the new stage, made it necessary to give two performances, both of which were attended by full houses. The evening performances were equally well attended, the management being compelled to stop selling tickets until the finish of the first performance. As the feature picture for today the sensational Italian picture entitled "The Serpent's Power" has been selected, and it is fraught with the aroma of mystery and the weird and macabre. If you were breathing the air from the bay of Genoa. It is a thrilling story, full of exciting moments, telling of a rejected love of a young Italian girl for an American fellow. The picture is beautifully set, and sparkles with vim and vigor of the hot blood of the Italians. Some very attractive scenes in Monte Carlo are shown, as well as in and round the home of the parties involved.

SAVED OLD LADY'S HAIR

"My mother used to have a very bad humor on her head which the doctors called an eczema, and for it I had two different doctors. The first one said she had her hair nearly all fall out in spite of what they both did. One day her niece came in and they were speaking of how her hair was falling out and the doctor did it no good. She says, 'Aunt, why don't you try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment?' Mother did and they helped her. In six months' time the itching, burning and scaling of her head was over and her hair began growing. To-day she feels very much in debt to Cuticura Soap and Ointment for the fine head of hair she has for an old lady of seventy-four."

"My own case was an eczema in my feet, as cold as the cold weather came my feet would itch and burn and then they would crack open and bleed. Then I thought I would try my mother's friends, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I did for four or five winters and now my feet are as smooth as any one's." Ellsworth Dunham, Hiram, Me., Sept. 30, 1909.
