Dandruff, Falling Hair and Itching Scalp Cured, or Money Back
What other people say of you sometimes has more effect than what you say about yourself. Read this.
I used one bottle of Parolan Balm, and it did all you claim it would do. My hair is thick and clean from dandruff since I used the Balm, and I am going to keep it constantly on my dressing table for toilet use. Mrs. M. Griffin, 326 W. 9th St., Davenport, Iowa.
Write in short that my head was almost running me crazy, and I saw your ad in the Times-Union. I bought a bottle of Parolan Balm at once and tried it, and in a week I could see that my head was almost well and my hair was growing wonderful, and I continued using Parolan Balm, and now my hair is beautiful and every-body admires it. My scalp is always clean. Your customer, Mrs. S. Dingle, Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 18, 1909.
Parolan Balm is certainly a wonderful hair restorer. My husband and I both have used it, and find it to be just as advertised. Mrs. J. Schilling, 2500 Wagon St., Toledo, O., Oct. 23, 1909.
Parolan Balm is sold by druggists everywhere, and by The Lee & Osgood Co. for 50 cents a large bottle, and in a 10-cent package. It is guaranteed to cure dandruff, itching hair and itching scalp, or money back. It makes hair grow soft, lustrous and luxuriant. Write for a free trial. Parolan Balm is on every bottle. Mail orders filled by Grooms Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Arranged at German Lutheran Church by Rev. Theodor Bauck.
In accordance with the usual custom for the Easter season, Pastor Theodor Bauck of the German Lutheran church has arranged a confirmation class, which numbers this year twenty members, who will be confirmed on Palm Sunday, the 21st of March. The class are the following: Elizabeth Heibel, Louise Roessler, Eleonore Wieland, Katharina Wieland, Frieda Wieland, Rose Wunderlich, Felix Rosell, Paul Jatkowski, Frank Bradlan, Fred Steitz, C. C. Wright, pastor of the Central Baptist church, officiated, and at 2:30 o'clock public services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Wright of the Buckingham Memorial. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. Refreshments were served at the Sedgewick post, No. 1, G. A. R., and Sedgewick Woman's Relief corps, No. 16.

TROUBLE ALL SETTLED AT MONTVILLE MILL.
Few of the Strikers Taken Back, But Places of the Others Have Been Filled and Work is Going Along Unhampered.
Once again the work is going along unhindered at the paper mill in Montville, the Bigelow-Harriman Corporation, having quickly quelled the strike of the boiler-makers who were on a new strike. There is practically no new strike of men at work there on the hot carrying jobs. Those who were on strike and had been willing to return were taken back, but the others were paid off and given no more. New men were secured to fill the vacancies.

MUCH MONEY CHANGED HANDS AT COCKFIGHT.
Massachusetts Birds Won, the Battles Being in a Vacant Waterford House.
There were present about 250 at the cockfight in Waterford Friday morning. The admission fee was $2. The attendance with the birds was fought in an unoccupied house just beyond the Spitzhead district, recently vacated by the automobile factory, and it was very nearly 6 o'clock when the last fight was over.

TRADE SCHOOLS.
Advocated With Emphasis at New Haven Dinner.
At the fourth annual dinner of the New Haven branch of the National Metal Trades association, held last week, the six or more members were treated to discussions on the necessity of industrial education, the corporation tax, industrial and employer insurance, and upon the aims of the National Metal Trades association. The meeting was one of the most important that has been held since the New Haven branch was organized.

PIERSON MAINTAINS THE LEAD AT POOL.
Handicap Tournament at the Arcanum Club Excites Much Interest.
Every contestant in the Arcanum club pool tournament, which was held except E. R. Pierson, who has won each of the six games he has played, has been defeated. Pierson, Harry Wood, another scratch man, has lost one game, having been defeated by Pierson. Pierson has won a game from Jordan, a third scratch man, on Friday evening 10 to 25.
