SWEEPER RUNNER SHOWS THE WAY
Ljungstrom Takes Big Slice Off 20 Mile Indoor Record
—Indian was Second—Dick Hyland and Matty Baldwin Draw—Academy Out for Baseball

New York, March 14.—All indoor records were broken by Gustaf Ljungstrom, the Swedish runner, from the twelfth to the twentieth and last mile in the professional race run tonight at the Madison Square Garden. Ljungstrom's time for the twenty miles was 1:50.53 3-5, as against the previous record of 1:57.25 1-5, made by Jim Crowley of Ireland.

Paul Accola, the Canadian Indian, finished second, about two laps in the rear, and Jim Crowley third, with Percy Sellen of Toronto. Ljungstrom was eight starters. Ljungstrom took the lead in the twelfth mile and was never headed thereafter. He finished in good shape.

TEAM SCORES ARE LOW.
Bowlers at Detroit Not Up to Records Made at Pittsburg.

Detroit, Mich., March 14.—Another steady attack on the pins today failed to disturb the leaders in any of the classes in the annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress. It is now generally conceded that the present leaders will be the winners at the end of the tournament Wednesday night. While the scores in the individual class are uniformly excellent, those in the two-man and five-man classes are something of a disappointment, being considerably below the winning scores made in last year's tournament at Pittsburg.

English Woman Wins in Tennis.
 New York, March 14.—Is another American national lawn tennis championship title about to be won by a Briton? That was the question asked about the courts of the Seventh regiment armory today when Mrs. Frederick G. Schmitt, a young English matron, won the place in the semi-final round in the singles of the women's national indoor championship. Mrs. Schmitt disposed in turn of Miss Elizabeth G. Bunce, a former Hudson river champion, and of Miss Alice L. Fish.

Boston National Squad.
 Boston, March 14.—Three players, Truett Jones, Seary and Manager Fred Lake of the Boston National baseball team, with four newspaper men, left Boston late tonight for the spring training grounds at Worcester. The players taken along were Second Baseman Shean, Pitcher William Burke and Fielder William Cooney. Other members of the team will meet them at Jersey City and Philadelphia.

Wagner Agrees, All Pittsburg Happy.
 Pittsburg, March 14.—A sign of relief went up from the fans today when it was announced that Hans Wagner had agreed to terms with Pittsburg and would sign his contract Friday. Wagner, a former Hudson river champion, will play for Pittsburg next season. The regular practice season will then begin again after the Easter recess.

Intercity Lawn Tennis.
 New York, March 14.—An elaborate series of intercity matches with Boston will be played at the Madison Square Garden.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

GENERAL MARKET NARROW.
 Professionals Unable to Affect Much Price Movement.

New York, March 14.—The tightening of the world's credit facilities is the feature of the present financial situation, and that factor underlies the constraint on the day's stock market in New York, although more superficial influences also played a part.

Here in New York the banks are being drawn upon to supply requirements of the interior for the planting period, as was shown by the cash loans in the City of New York. Cash collections continue large on account of the sustained heavy import movement of merchandise, so that the sub-treasury has already taken $1,625,000 from the banks in the present banking week. This morning brought fresh offerings of bonds by bankers who had made purchases of new issues from the railroads, with additional employment of banking funds implied in these operations. Notwithstanding the purchases of the day's stock market, in response to the rising discounts there and the expectation that the Bank of England rate will be advanced this week, the financial requirements of the British government, the animated speculation in rubber, mining and oil shares in the London market, and the expanding trade activity in India combine to raise money rates in London. The Bank of England had to raise its bid to secure the supply of gold in the open market in London today. Discounts advanced also in Berlin. Time money rates are rising in New York and the banks are less eager bidders for mercantile paper recently prevailing rates. A 25 point rise in the price of shares in the second in size and importance of the New York national banks was an incident of the day from which the expectation of more profitable business for banks might be argued.

The professional traders in stocks were not able to effect much movement in prices. The recurrence of decisions in the supreme court was awaited as the repressive influence during the morning. There was little improvement in that prospect after it became known that no decision would be handed down in the American Tobacco case. Apprehension of an unfavorable decision had been neutralized by the strong advance in American Tobacco securities. The yearly report of that company, published last week and showing earnings of upwards of 50 per cent on the outstanding common stock, furnished its own explanation for the special strength of that stock.

One reason given for supporting United States Steel was the deduction tomorrow of the dividend from the price of the stock, amounting to 2 1/2 per cent, with the regular and the extra dividend last declared. The narrowness of the general market is illustrated by the fact that the extreme fluctuation in the price of that stock was less than a point.

Strength in Chesapeake and Ohio, Hocking Valley and Kanawha and Michigan securities was taken as corroborative of reports of the combination of these properties.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,837,000. United States twos and fours registered declined 1-3 per cent on call.

HOW TO FIND OUT
 Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling usually indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. Too frequent desire to urinate, scanty supply, pain or dull ache in the back, should convince you that the kidneys or bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
 There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, fulfills almost every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold urine, and scalding pain in passing it, or had effects following the use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate.

The mild, pleasant and extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful efficacy in the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine, you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, and a book that tells all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing be sure to mention that you read this generous offer in the Norwich Bulletin. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Shakespeare Wins One More.
 Frank MacKervey (Shakespeare), the pool expert, who uses but one hand for his shots, played on Monday in Alhambra, Boston, against the champion of the Thames streets, taking a handicap match from James Wilbur, 100 to 143. Shakespeare was to make 100 to Wilbur eight to count there from 100.

Wilbur, who is a clever man with the cue, was secured to substitute for W. McGrath, whom Shakespeare had defeated for another match on Saturday. McGrath received a message from McGrath that he could not be on hand. Unsuccessful efforts to get a substitute were made until McGrath consented to take the game. Jack Danieley was referee and Frank Curran scorer.

McGrath got a good lead at the start, but Wilbur crept up and made it close. When they came to the last frame Shakespeare needed three and Wilbur eight to count there from 100.

Wilbur was not satisfied with the result and claimed he would be at Jewett City Wednesday night to challenge Shakespeare for another match on the same terms. Shakespeare plays George Robertson there, the same opponent he won from when he visited Jewett City last August.

Match With Middleweight Champion
 Louis N. Dondero of the Windham Athletic club received Monday a letter from Sam Anderson, the real middleweight champion wrestler of the world, who has recently been performing stunts at the Columbia theater in Boston, stating that he was willing to meet him to meet any man in the world who would go against him before the Windham Athletic club. Mr. Dondero stated that he believed that he would be able to beat a man that would go against the champion and a match will in all probability be arranged for this Saturday evening, March 20, at the Windham Athletic club. Mr. Dondero said that he could not give the other wrestler's name at the present time, as two or three had been approached for the match.

Murphy With Athletics at Atlanta.
 Dan Murphy and Ira Thomas of the Philadelphia Athletics, who both spend their winter in this part of the state, the former in the city and the latter near Danielson, are now in Atlanta with the rest of the regulars. The squad of veterans under Captain John Barry will be on their way to Hot Springs on Saturday and for the rest of the southern trip will remain at Atlanta, where they are to play the Boston Braves on Sunday. Mr. Mack's youngsters start on March 16 on a tour of the southern cities, which will finally bring them to Philadelphia about the middle of April.

Against Westerly Bowlers.
 This evening the postmen's duckpin team leaves here by the 6:45 trolley to play the Westerly team at Westerly. Manager Stone of the Rhode allies also goes to the Rhode Island town for the first five games of the ten game series with the Westerly team. Bill McKelvey will be the other member of the Norwich team, taking the place of Jule Harris, who found he could not take on the series.

To Select Baseball Manager.
 The Jewett City baseball association meets Wednesday evening to elect a manager.

GREATEST BILLIARD PLAYER.
 So Says Tom Foley of the Late Jacob Schaefer.

"Permit me to say," says Tom Foley, father of billiards, "that Jacob Schaefer was the greatest figure the world of billiards ever knew—a genius who lived actively without an equal. He was the most wonderful performer in his line the world ever knew; stands without peer in the history of sport. He was the last big championship contest he participated in he was the wizard—the man who for thirty years had made the best of his opponents. He had game some things that they did not think were possible with the cue and ivories.

He was not generally known, but he went from a sick bed to the 18.1 championship contest in Orchestra hall two years ago to meet his challenger, Willie G. He had ever been a blue as indigo over his prospects. But Schaefer won. It was the climax of his career. Always somewhat taciturn, never very communicative to his closest friends and much given to melancholy all his life, Schaefer retired from his victory over Hoppe at the most critical stage of his career. He went to his bed. Practically he never recovered from the effects of his illness in Chicago. Schaefer went to Chicago from Leavenworth and was there when he was born in Milwaukee in 1855—to try to get work in my billiard hall on Clark street. But I had no opening for him and he never returned to my billiard hall. He was then one of the best billiard players in the country, but few of us knew it.

Billy Ryan Beats Dorsey.
 Syracuse, N. Y., March 14.—Billy Ryan had the upper hand throughout the ten round contest with Bart Dorsey of Albany before the Syracuse City A. C. here tonight. At no time was Bart the equal of the Syracuse lad, and though Dorsey stayed the limit, Ryan was by far the cleverer.

Baldwin-Hyland a Tame Draw.
 Kansas City, Mo., March 14.—Matty Baldwin of Boston and Dick Hyland of San Francisco tonight fought ten rounds to a draw. In the fourth Hyland became aggressive and landed three hard punches, opening a gash over Baldwin's right eye. The fight was tame throughout.

Rube Carson, who comes from Portland and played in the Pacific Coast league, is a Chicago boy. Chance gave him a tryout. He fanned two men, walked three and allowed three hits.
