GREENEVILLE Surprise Party for Leslie Ward—Back from Wedding Trip—Personals. A party of local fishermen who were at the navy yard last week again Wednesday to try their luck and made a good catch.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris J. Solomon, whose marriage took place at the bride's home in Chesterfield Sunday, have returned from their wedding trip and Mr. Solomon has resumed work at his grain store.

Robert Kendall and Emory Card, while on a recent trip to Flatfield, caught a string of four trout, one of which weighed over a pound. They are planning for another trout expedition next Saturday. Another party returned Monday with a dozen fine looking fish.

LEBANON YOUNG MAN HAD TROUBLESOME NATURE (Continued from Page Three.) There very long, and went to the Atlas Motor Car company, whose plant is but a few steps from the house on Greenwich street where he lives. He was in the assembling department. Again he did not stay very long, and once more he was in the plant on Porter avenue, where he had lived until arrested yesterday. For the last few months he has been employed by H. L. Handy company as receiving clerk, and was well liked there.

Spencer's Marriage an Elopement. It is claimed that the marriage of Spencer and his wife was the outcome of an elopement. Miss Amberg, Mrs. Spencer's former betrothed, says that Spencer was at the time of the elopement employed as a bookkeeper and stenographer in the office of Walter R. Handy at 21 Elm street. She had worked for Mr. Handy a year or two and was regarded in his office as a most efficient and capable young woman. Spencer and Miss Amberg took out a marriage license here the morning of March 23, 1910, and the records show that they were married in Boston the same day.

New Lights at Central Baptist. A new arrangement of electric lights at the Central Baptist church, in use this week for the first time, is quite pleasing to the congregation. Seven tungsten burners have been placed in the ceiling under the gallery, the big central chandeliers have been equipped with these lights, and a new four-light chandelier has been placed for the choir gallery.

STATEMENT OF STATE HUMANE AGENT D. W. THRALL AFTER A VISIT TO THE ANDERSON HOME IN MYER'S ALLEY

Having had his attention called to the conditions under which the children in the family of William Anderson, colored, were living in Myer's alley, Humane Agent D. W. Thrall of this city made an investigation and found that the reports were true. He at once communicated the facts to State Humane Agent D. W. Thrall of Hartford, and became here on Wednesday and made an investigation of the household. At the conclusion he declared it was one of the worst cases he had ever been called upon to investigate.

DR. CADMAN LECTURES ON PURITAN IN TWO WORLDS. Fourth in the Series of Y. M. C. A. Entertainments Largely Attended.

In the fourth of the Y. M. C. A. entertainments, entitled "Puritans in Two Worlds," the Central Congregational church, Brooklyn, N. Y., was heard Wednesday evening. The lecturer, Dr. Cadman, in his lecture on "The Puritan in Two Worlds," declared that the Puritan ideal was not confined to the United States, but that it was a world-wide ideal.

WEDDING. Prothro—Bushman.

With the auspicious omens of perfect weather, the wedding of the early spring weddings took place on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles Bushnell, No. 135 Elizabeth street, when their only daughter, Emeline Henrietta, was united in holy matrimony with Fred G. Prothro, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Prothro, of No. 61 Greene avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Worcester, pastor of the Broadway Congregational church, of which the bride is a member.

CONNECTICUT PATENTS. List of patents granted by the United States patent office to citizens of Connecticut during the week ending March 29, 1910.

At the regular meeting of the Foreign Missionary society at the Broadway Congregational church on Wednesday afternoon there was a large attendance. The subject was Tung Chou and the North China mission. Letters were read by Miss Della Leavens, secretary of the society, and were of an interesting nature. Many pictures were displayed about the room. At the close refreshments were served.

WORKING FOR REVENUE SCHOOL. Coast Artillery Company Leaves Fort Trumbull and May Not Return.

The 132d company, U. S. coast artillery, will leave Fort Trumbull, New London, for summer camp at Fort H. H. Arnold, Md., June 1, and it is considered highly probable that the old company will not come back to the coast artillery post at Fort Trumbull for the company at Fort Wright in the winter. The company has been to the coast artillery post at Fort Trumbull for the company at Fort Wright in the winter.

CHARGED WITH VAGRANCY. Three Men Arrested, One of Whom Is Blind—They Were Getting Money in Good Sized Amounts.

On Wednesday the police nipped a clever scheme in the bud when they arrested William J. Hall, Patrick O'Brien and John J. O'Brien in charge of vagrancy. Mr. O'Brien is blind and the plan as stated was that one of the men would go to a saloon and get a drink, and the other two would follow him and get a drink and then they would get a drink and then they would get a drink.

Funeral. AGER Director and Embalmer. 70 Franklin St., Bulletin Bldg., Telephone 642-2.

LOBES SHARE OF $50,000. New London Girl Did Not Marry in Time to Get Inheritance.

Because she did not marry when she was 25 years old, Mrs. Max Benson of New London, formerly Miss Florence Phillips, who was living in this city March 21, says a New Haven despatch, will lose her share in a $50,000 fortune left to her by her father, a millionaire of New London. When Benson and Miss Phillips came here to take out the 11-ounce bride allowed to Register Lee that she was 26 years old, and the arrival of a brother a few days later to settle about the marriage brought with it the information that she had lost her share of the property. They were married by Rev. Jacob Frammer March 21, and the brother came here two days later.

BOXES ON RURAL ROUTES. Postmasters Have Received Notification from Postoffice Department About Their Care.

The postoffice department has sent out notices to postmasters asking them to request the patrons of the rural delivery to paint their boxes and the posts a pure white color. This will protect the post and box from the weather, give a uniform color and fix their identity throughout the country as U. S. mail boxes. The printing of names and box numbers on the boxes in black block letters two inches high is urged.
