KEACH WORKS NICEA DODDLE TOWN
Norwich Wins Again, 5 to 2—Willimantic Blanks New London on Whalers' Own Grounds—Releases for Thread City Men—Left Handed Fitcher Coming Here

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Middletown, May 13.—Middletown lost its third successive game in the league when Norwich defeated them here today in a well played game, 5 to 2. One solid session of bat work with an error or two did the business, when Norwich hit on Bates for five hits and four runs in the fourth. Keach, the Norwich pitcher, went bad in the first inning, in which he issued three passes, but came back in great shape for the rest of the game and had Middletown helpless.
Constant kicking by Middletown over Umpire Jack Curran's decisions led to the substitution of Mr. Clark of Cobalt in the fourth inning. He finished out the game but was not a great improvement. There was an attendance of about 200. The score:
Norwich..... 5

CITY LEAGUE DOINGS.
For the next games, Umpire Wickes is assigned to duty at the Falls diamond, where the West Ends play the Central, and Umpire McClafferty will work at the Cranberry, where the Falls play Greenville.
The record books will be in the hands of Scorer Congdon at the Cranberry and Scorer Benoit at the Falls. Because they are now playing under national commission contracts, Jack Casey of the Falls team and Dennis McIntyre of the West Ends are on the ineligible list for positions in City league lineups.

LEAGUE PICKUPS.
There were no releases handed out in the Norwich squad on Friday.
Manager Stone has a left-handed pitcher whom he expects to report on Monday.
Pack McRoberts, the fat boy, will twirl for Norwich, and either Ferris or Thayer for Middletown.
South Coventry and other regional rounds about Willimantic will be held this afternoon.
Manly will undoubtedly be used on the mound for Willimantic and Ackerly for Middletown.

WILLIMANTIC SCORES FIRST SHUTOUT.
Willimantic kept up its winning gait and scored the first shutout of the Connecticut baseball association by defeating New London Friday afternoon in New London 2 to 0. The losers almost to the riot point over a decision by Umpire Maisek in the 9th. Attendance numbered about 200. The score:

TRIVIAL NET CHANGES.
Traditional Middletown dullness in the Stock Market.
New York, May 13.—Idleness and neglect eclipsed all signs of interest in the stock market today. The traditional midsummer dullness rarely finds a parallel for the long waits for single transactions which were ruled today. Some of the lighter minded of the trading fraternity found no better explanation for the abstention from the market than the fact that it was Friday the 13th. The imminence of a two days' holiday interval in London which gained added force from the after-interruption of the late King's funeral to follow.

The influence of the London situation on speculative sentiment was increased by the evidence of a hardening money market at that center. The foreign exchange market was rather disordered and fluctuated with violence at recoveries from the recent low points. The more authoritative reports of the large volume of American bonds being placed abroad were without influence in the exchange market. It was said that the payment provision for deferred payments of some of these subscriptions and consequent postponement of the offerings of exchange bills against the payment. Highly speculative conditions have grown up in the foreign exchange market in New York in common with practically every other salable commodity and the present strength of exchange is attributed to an uncovered short interest which sought to take advantage of the expected supplies growing out of the bond sales. The strength of exchange, however, served to heighten the effect of the hedging tendency reported in the London money market.
Preliminary estimates pointed to another large gain in cash for the week by the clearing house banks, the movement from the interior having been supplemented by gains on treasury operations. The money market showed no change in conditions.
Wide movements in a few individual stocks supplied the only features of interest in the market. Only rumors could be pointed to as explanation. The sharp rise in Canadian Pacific was coupled with reports that a disbursement of profits out of land sales was intended. The Wabashes were affected by a revised report of control passing to the Rock Island interests. Texas & Pacific land trust certificates were run up on a few transactions for no other reason than a report that they were being bought by trustees. The halt in the speculation was due partly to the inconclusiveness of crop conditions.
The bulge in the Canadian group pulled down in the latter part of the day, but the movement was inconclusive and the day's net changes were mostly trivial.
Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,848,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

"CHEER UP DOUG," JEFFRIES' GREETING

The above scene from the camp where Jim Jeffries is in training to give Jack Johnson the battle of his life and to take from the big black the world's heavyweight champion, is reproduced by The Bulletin through the courtesy of Alderman Stuart Douglas of New York, who received the picture direct from Joe Choyinski soon after Joe arrived at Jeff's camp to take the training in hand. Heading from left to right the group shows Choyinski, Berger, Jeffries and Burns. The man in the rear is Jeffries' nephew, named Adams, and the dog Ted can be seen peering over Choyinski's shoulder.
The alderman, Doug, and Choyinski are old pals and Jeff is a close friend of the alderman, to whom he is showing the picture direct from the training camp. "Cheer up, Doug," indicating his supreme confidence in the way he is rounding up for the battle with Johnson.

Manager Farrell has secured the best right hander for his afternoon game today at the Hospital and sent in his new pitcher, Greenway of Tennessee, against the soldiers, Claborn and Sullivan, who are expected to be even better than Zenne, the Hospital star last year, having an unbroken record every that has all kinds of curves in it.
The Academy and Putnam high school got into the spotlight for their 14-inning game. A Boston paper had the full box score. The Academy struck out two hits, one of them a triple, made him the hero of the game. This afternoon the Academy plays Blackhall at the Academy camp, starting the game at 2.15 so as to enable the Blackhall team to catch their train.
Charles Fowler will be hurrying for the Academy and has the goods to fool the Blackhall hitters.

Wrestling in Lebanon.
Lebanon followers of the wrestling game are expecting a good evening of sport to be provided by Promoter L. H. Burdick of Fitchville, when he brings up the selection of Lowell against Pat Carberry of Norwich in a finish bout, best two out of three, and Kid Wilkie of Montville in an exhibition bout with his training partner, George Allen of New London.

BITS OF BASEBALL.
Manager McCann of Bridgeport may not be a "grand old man" in war-time, but he seems to be a hustling young man, and is giving Bridgeport what it wants. On his first trip to the former dead city a few days ago, Man-
