SWATZBURG UNABLE TO
GET A BONDSMAN Taken to Jail on Thursday Morning to Await His Trial June 11.

On Thursday morning Policeman Irish took Joseph Swatzburg to the jail to await a hearing on June 11, to which time his case was continued in the city court at the request of counsel. He was allowed to remain at his police station over Wednesday night to give him opportunity to get bail if possible, but it was not forthcoming. One man who was willing to furnish bail the security required the night the accused was arrested was not willing to do so the day following.

View of Comet.
Halley's comet was plainly seen in the western sky Thursday night for a short time about 9 o'clock, but the gathering haze shut it from view. The comet occupied a favorable position for observation, about half way up to the zenith, and displayed a tail of considerable length, extending southward. At one point near the end of the misty tail a star could be seen through it.

FUNERALS

Mrs. Fred N. Cash.
At 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon the funeral of Mrs. Fred N. Cash was held from her late home, No. 39 Union street, the home being filled with relatives and friends, a number being present from out of town. The services were conducted by Rev. J. Eldred Brown, rector of Trinity Episcopal church. There was a profession of faith, floral forms. The bearers were Frank Hilton, Frank E. Kline, William B. Young, Jr., and John Kukla.
Burial was in Yantic cemetery, where a committee service was read. Church and Allen had charge of the arrangements.

Hiram Curtis Hill.
Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock the funeral of Hiram Curtis Hill was held from his late home, No. 5 Grove street, the large attendance of relatives and friends including several from Providence, Waterbury and Danielson. Rev.
Joseph E. Cobb, pastor of the Universalist church, conducted the services.
The funeral obsequies testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held.
The bearers were W. W. Lewis of Wil-liamsite, Allen S. Barbour, Squire Gregson, George E. Hill, Herbert W. Gallup and H. D. Avery. Burial was in the Yantic cemetery, where a committal service was read. Funeral Director Caser was in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. James McGuire.
The funeral of Mrs. James McGuire was held from her home in Manchester on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at James' church in that place a requiem mass was celebrated. The remains arrived here by trolley from Williamsite at 11 o'clock, and burial was in St.
Mary's cemetery, in the family lot, relatives and friends being at the ceremony. There was a number of floral offerings.

Mrs. Carey Williams.
Grace Memorial Baptist church was filled with relatives and friends on Thursday morning when the funeral of Mrs. Carey Williams, whose funeral was held at 3 p. m. Thursday, being conducted by Rev. R. D. Cheek and Rev. W. H. Eley, D.D. The deceased was paid the deceased, who had been a faithful worker in the church.
Hymns were sung by the choir, and Mrs. Hutchinson. There were choice flowers. The bearers were Harrison Payne, Henry Lacy, William Spivory, Arthur Harris, Edward J. Barlow, and William H. Hornidge. Burial was in the Yantic cemetery, where a committal service was read. Church and Allen had charge of the arrangements.

The death of Mrs. Williams occurred Tuesday as the result of erysipelas and a shock at the home of Lucius Gabney, Va., where she was born 34 years ago, the daughter of Simon and Rachel Lee.
She married Carey Williams, whose death occurred September 29, 1889. Her maiden name was Virginia Lee. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Arthur Greenleaf of Elizabeth, N. J.

OBITUARY

Mrs. John E. Barry.
After a serious illness of several weeks, the death of Bridget Riordan, wife of John E. Barry, occurred on Thursday afternoon about 4 o'clock at her home, No. 72 Summit street. Since coming from Ireland, 28 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Barry had three sons, two of the West Side, Mrs. Barry being a native of Killarney, County Kerry, Ireland.

In her long residence in this city, Mrs. Barry impressed her numerous acquaintances with her kindly disposition, high character and upright life, and she was a devoted mother who received the tenderest care from her children in her last illness. She was a member and faithful attendant of St. Patrick's church.

Besides her husband, she is survived by three daughters and one son, Misses Helen T., Katherine E. and Annie R. Barry, all of this city, Edward Barry of Hartford. She leaves also three sisters, Misses Ellen and Annie Riordan, all of Worcester, Mass.

Thomas Hartigan.
News of the death in Providence on Thursday morning of Thomas Hartigan was received here on Thursday. He had been ill for a long time and for several weeks had been in the hospital in Providence. He had a complication of diseases.

Mr. Hartigan was a native of this city, but for the past thirty years had resided in Providence. He lived in Providence three years before coming to this city. He had been employed by a Providence roofing concern.

He is survived by one son, Thomas, Mrs. Hartigan, Miss Mary Margaret McNamara, died Sept. 15, 1907.

An Unneeded Creature.
"Why do you yell at my mule in that manner?" said the kindly person. "Have you no sympathy for dumb animals?" "Boss," answered Mr.
Erastus Pinkley, "when dat animal takes a notion he's wuss dan dumb.
He's deaf and dumb."

Poet—Did he make any comment?
Jokesmith—Yes, he said they were so old they were turning gray.

June Days

are smoking days. What is more pleasant than a stroll of a June evening? Probably tonight you may be sitting on the front porch and your friend may stroll in to see you. What better appreciation can you show his companionship than to have handy a box of LA ERISTA HAVANA CIGARS and smoke a few of the little fellows together?

This little Havana Cigar is exactly right in color, flavor, shape and size.
They are just moist enough, too. In fact they are just the kind of cigars you are proud to hand to your friend.

NEW MAIN THROUGH MECHANIC ST.

Water Department Laying Eight Inch Main for better Fire Protection—Reservoir is Steadily Dropping

Superintendent Burnap of the water department has started laying a new water main through a distinct gap, from West Main to Spring. At present the water pipe there is but four inches in diameter and in case of fire the three-story silk mill in the street there would not be enough water obtainable through the pipe to allow the fire department to work properly. In his last report he recommended that a new main be laid through the street, and in accordance with that recommendation the board decided to do the work which is now under way.
The distance is 1,250, and the new pipe will be eight inches in diameter, which will allow a much better service to the residents and also provide an ample amount for fire purposes. The connection which will probably be made with Spring street will also serve to supply that street better, as to pressure.
During the month of May the water fall amounted to 2.7 inches, which is far from the average rainfall for the month of May, which is 3.39 inches.

However, it should be noted that of May last year, which was 2.30 inches. The reservoir is showing the lack of rain, as it is steadily dropping, the last measurement showing it to be 45 inches below high water mark. This is 77 inches lower than it was last year at this time when the measurement showed it to be 7 1-2 inches. This gives warning that there should be no water wasted and having noted that the supply of water is dropping, and foreseeing the possibility of having the water shut off, some owners of buildings wherein there are elevators operated by water are considering the installation of electric elevators, so that they were not be without elevator service. On June 1 of last year the reservoir was at its highest point of the year, being 7 1-2 inches below high-water mark, while on the year previous it was full from May 25 to June 1.

HEAD ALMOST SEVERED.
BLACK HAND MURDER.
Grossome Discovery by Workmen Near Pittston City Cemetery.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 2.—With the head almost severed, the body of Peter Savatino, an Italian, of Brodericks, was found today in a hole near the Pittston city cemetery. The body was attributed by the police to the Black Hand.
The grossome discovery was made by workmen. The razor with which the murder was committed was imbedded in the neck. The victim's hands were terribly lacerated, as though he had been struck by a hammer. There were no other signs of violence. In Savatino's pockets was found a letter dated Bernice, July 26, 1909, and postmarked Malby-Swoyorth, Pa. The letter was addressed to Savatino and that the sum of $500 must be left at the station at Malby on the night of July 27, 1909. Savatino is believed to avoid the vengeance of the Black Hand.

The dead man has been missing for some time. The police say he was murdered several days ago.

DEPUTY ALLEN VISITS
LOCAL LODGE OF ELKS.
Many Out to Greet Visiting Official—Refreshments Served.

Norwich lodge, No. 439, B. P. O. E., had out a large attendance at its meeting on Thursday evening in Pethian hall to greet District Deputy George W. Shields, Jr., who is on his official visit. He was introduced by Exalted Ruler Frank G. Aubrey, who presided.
Although handicapped by a broad forehead, District Deputy Allen was most interesting talk to the members, showing how the order was prospering in his state and throughout the world.
There was no other special business at the meeting. Light refreshments were served.

GETS HONORABLE MENTION
At Yale Art School in Senior Elective in Painting.

At the anniversary exercises at the Yale art school Wednesday evening the Winthrop fellowship for two years study of art abroad, was awarded to Theodore Deidrickson, Jr., of New Haven.

In the junior elective in drawing, honorable mention to Reginald George Trotter, Toledo, O., and Benjamin D.
Belkand, and in the senior elective in painting to William Hawthorne Shields, Jr., of Norwich.

Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.
There was plenty of applause from well filled houses at the Auditorium on Thursday for the new bill of vaudeville which made up the midweek change, while Amy Stanley and her company, of Cream, who had been forgotten in their taking musical offerings.

There is also another Stanley number on the bill—three Stanleys, who convulse the house with their combination pantomime, knockabout and burlesque. Miss Ann Dabson, also heard in an effective solo number.

Something with a laugh in every line is the German comedy of the two Schroders, who through a novel one that gets a good hand from the house, Tom Bateman, the sailor singer and dancer, is a clever performer and makes his specialty with his ropan-dance, skipping the rope while he shows a lot of difficult steps. The interesting and through a novel pictures fill out the bill to the satisfaction of everyone.

THIRTY REBEKAHS
Went to Westerly for Visitation, Having Delightful Trip.

Thirty members of Hope Rebekah lodge, No. 21, L. O. O. F., enjoyed a delightful evening Thursday with a trip to Westerly, visiting Hope lodge, No. 19, which has invited the Norwich members to be present for the visitation of the Rhode Island grand officers.
The Rebekahs from this city went down on the 5:45 trolley and were back again by trolley at midnight.

The Westerly lodge entertained in its dining room a team doing a memorable work in initiating three members before the grand officers and the other visitors. After the work a fine supper was served.

Horse Turned Somersault.
On Thursday morning early the horse belonging to J. Harrison Davis of Sunnyside began to climb up a bank in Laurel Hill avenue, while the driver was talking orders. While getting a bite of grass he pulled the wagon up the bank far enough to capsize it completely, which gradually pulled the horse over, and he landed squarely on his back in the gutter, from which it was unable to move until several men had rolled him over.

Great Mind Stirred by Trifle.
Kant, the great metaphysician, was so in the habit of gazing at a nearby clock tower from his study window that when the trees grew up to obscure his view he could not command his thoughts until the trees were trimmed so that he could continue his intimacy with the old tower.

Appeal to Patriotism.
O, my brothers, love your country!
Our country is our home, the house that God has given us, placing there in numerous family that love us, and whom we love. In laboring for our own country on the right principle, we labor for humanity.—Maxim.

Pointing a Distinction.
"A high financier should be something of an economist, should he not?"
"I don't think so," answered Mr.
Dustin Stax. "The object of an economist is to see what he can get along with; that of a high financier is to see what he can get away with."

Incidents in Society

Miss Lucille Peck leaves Grenndt, Miss, today (Friday), where she has been instructor of the violin at Grenada college, and is expected at her home on Sachem terrace the early part of the week.

Mrs. R. C. Jones entertained at lunch at the Hille club Thursday, occasionary to Mrs. Rollin Burbank of New York. Later the party of five motored to Watch Hill, as guests of Mrs. A. J. Dawley.

Mrs. William Lyman and her daughter, Miss Virginia Lyman, have returned to their home on Washington street, after spending the winter in New York, where Miss Lyman has been studying at the Art Students' league.

Supper at First Baptist Church.
The variety supper furnished by the Ladies Aid society of the First Baptist church Wednesday was well patronized and will add a substantial sum to the treasury. The committee consisted of Mrs. Herbert Wiley, Mrs.
Hezekiah Perkins acting as hostess on the occasion. Among those from Montville who took part were Mrs. Ellen Parker, Mrs. D. Chester Comstock, Mrs. Ellen
Clifford and Mrs. Elizabeth Burchard.

Celebrated Birthday in Norwich.
Mrs. Henry Champlin of Norwich, but formerly a resident of Montville, celebrated her 94th birthday at her home on Wednesday night, Mrs. Robert Champlin acting as hostess on the occasion. Among those from Montville who took part were Mrs. Ellen Parker,
Mrs. D. Chester Comstock, Mrs. Ellen
Clifford and Mrs. Elizabeth Burchard.

CLAIM RECEIVERSHIP.
New London Manufacturing Concern in Hotly Contested Case.

A controversy between stockholders in the Wait vs. Fenner case, which began Wednesday afternoon in the superior court before Judge Williams, has resulted in the plaintiffs, William B. Wait and Miss Anna Dabson, claiming the receivership of the Babcock Printing Press Mfg. Co. of New London. The case promises to be hotly contested and will last until the end of next week.

George P. Fenner, against whom the case is being pressed, is the president of the concern. The evidence introduced was entirely documentary. Documents in boxes and cases have been received from New London and if all the books are introduced in the case it will take some time. It is expected that there will be a number of interesting developments in the case in a short time.

CONTEST WILL BE OPEN TO AVIATORS OF THE WORLD.
All May Have a Chance at the $25,000 Prize.

Chicago, June 2.—John C. Shaffer, who jointly guaranteed a $25,000 prize for the Chicago and New York aero-plane flight, today announced that the flight would be open to aviators of the world, and that European entries were expected.

"The intention of the chief movers in the enterprise, as I understand it," said Mr. Shaffer, "is to throw the competition wide open to the world.
There are some good long distance runners, and there is no reason why they should be excluded from the contest. This is a Chicago and New York affair, as the money will be put up by Chicago and New York men, but it is also a world affair."

Mr. Shaffer announced that the $25,000 prize was as good as subscribed. The money will be put up by wealthy men, and there will be no popular subscriptions.

THERE IS GREAT NEED
OF A MERCHANT MARINE.
Address by Ex-Secretary Shaw at the Bridgeport Club Banquet.

Bridgeport, Conn., June 2.—At the annual banquet of the Bridgeport club here tonight ex-Secretary Shaw said, in part:
"We are proud of our navy. We sent sixteen battleships around the world to impress the timid ones of the east with our prowess. We were in fact, however, the laughing stock of every military and naval country, for we were compelled to hire 27 foreign ships floating foreign flags to take the necessary coal to our battleship fleet. One hostile shot from a foe would have scattered the column to the four winds, and out fleet would have been left high and dry. We have reached a time when we do everything for ourselves. We insist that congressmen and senators shall obey the will of their constituents and allow them not to think for themselves. It is the wise congressman who obeys the will of his constituents and votes accordingly. There is no sentiment for the merchant marine, therefore we have not, but we need it. We have approached the time when it is political suicide for a man to attempt to be a statesman. All his duty is to do it, as sure to be a statesman. A real states-
