"Cultivate brevity," says Mayor Buckingham of Bridgeport. "I would like to impart it upon people who take part in public hearings that are permitted on this our 10th anniversary after a lapse of 19 years to again assemble in this hallowed temple, erected to the glory of God and dedicated to the purpose of Freedom. It is the only building in our state dedicated exclusively to Freemasonry, and in which provision has been made for all the grades of our beloved order, both in the York and Scottish Rites, and in which the degrees of Masonry from entered apprentice to sovereign grand inspector general can be conferred."

VETERAN REASONS GATHERED HERE. Fortieth Annual Session Held at Masonic Temple with 192 Present—William McKee, Oldest Mason in the State, Made a Member—Officers Re-elected and Next Meeting Will Be Held at Guilford.

At Masonic temple on Thursday the fortieth annual session of the "Beneficent Masonic Veterans' association" was held. The association being entertained by the Grand Lodge, St. James' lodges. The day was an excellent one and about 190 were in attendance. Ten of the number have been Masons for over fifty years.

Reference was made to the fact that the inscription on the monument of William W. Lee at Pleasant Valley is incorrect. He was at the head of the association thirty-four years—1879 to 1903. Election of Officers. Upon motion of A. H. Brewer, the officers were elected as follows: Reuben H. Tucker, Assistant venerable master, John C. E. Humphrey, Simsbury, Benjamin Jones, William H. Davis, Thompson, Bridgeport, Samuel G. Redshaw, Ansonia, Henry S. Parker, Coventry, Joseph F. Vodor, New London, Albert H. Lodge, Roxbury, Robert W. Burke, Middle-town, secretary, Dwight C. Kilbourn, Norwich, treasurer, Charles W. Ziegler, Norwich, registrar, Harold H. Bishop, Torrington, sentinel, Edward M. Platt, Winsted.

Next Meeting at Guilford. At the afternoon meeting it was practically decided to hold the next meeting at Guilford and plan for the election of new officers. The venerable master announced that he would see that the level worn by Mr. Terrell for being the oldest Mason in the state would be secured and sent to William W. Lester, without doubt the oldest Mason in the state.

Seventy Years a Mason. One of those to become a member of the order was William McKee of this city. Mr. McKee will observe his 70th birthday anniversary on Wednesday, June 23, in Killaleigh, County Down, Ireland, in 1840. He was raised in Killaleigh lodge, No. 649, F. and A. M., subsequently joining the chapter council and commandery of the order in this city.

President's Address. This was followed by the annual address of the venerable master, who took occasion to thank the members for their greetings and said: "Veteran Brothers and Venerable Patriarchs of our order, I greet you by the wisdom and protecting care of our supreme grand master who are permitted on this our 10th anniversary after a lapse of 19 years to again assemble in this hallowed temple, erected to the glory of God and dedicated to the purpose of Freedom."

A Mountain Climber. Gains 12 Pounds on Change of Food. When a change in food can rebuild a man 17 years of age, it is evidence that there is some value in a knowledge that can discriminate in the selection of proper food to rebuild the body. A physician attending a California 77 year old, told him that death from old age would soon claim him. He suffered from general weakness and debility.
