

MEETING OF TAFT AND ROOSEVELT

On The Evans Cottage Veranda at Beverly After Sixteen Months Separation

NO COLDNESS BETWEEN THE TWO MEN

The Meeting Was Everything that the Friends of President Taft had Claimed that It Would Be—"Had a Most Pleasant Time With The President but Nothing in Particular to Say" Col. Roosevelt told the Newspaper Men

Beverly, Mass., June 30.—For a full minute this afternoon President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt stood on the broad veranda of the Evans cottage with hands upon each other's shoulders, while evident delight shone in every line of their smile-wreathed countenances.

Mr. President! "Theodore!" "Mr. President!" It was Roosevelt who spoke, and there was earnest warmth in this salutation.

They parted each other affectionately on the shoulder. They laughed in a way that left not a single lingering doubt as to the genuineness of their feelings.
