HOW WESTERY CELEBRATED

Tame and Quiet Holiday—White Rock Defeated in Double Header—Two Liquor Raids on the Night Before—Albert C. Howard's Death—Postmaster Butler Receives Official Appointment.

Charles J. Butler, for twenty years assistant postmaster at Westery, acting postmaster upon the death of Postmaster Walker Price, subsequently nominated for postmaster and confirmed by the senate just before the recess.

The first necessary official act of Postmaster Butler was the appointment of his successor as assistant postmaster. Having been promoted himself he considered it advisable and for the benefit of the office to appoint to adhere to the rule that applied in his own case.

The promotion of Mr. Butler leaves a vacant clerkship which will probably be given to one of the clerks who offers privileged to take the position without examination.
