Home Team Climbs to Second Place

Norwich Makes a Joke of Bannan's Team—Willimantic Beat Rockville—League Meeting to Fix New Schedule—Jackie Callivan to Fitch Here Today.

Norwich took second place in the league, demolishing Middletown by defeating the Bannons, 12 to 10, at Sachem park on Thursday afternoon. From highest town in the league, Middletown was played off of its feet by the strike work and base running of the home side. Duff, who had the visitors up in the air wondering what new move was to be pulled from his quiver with each at bat, had the same fortune that happened to him once before here and he was ganked from the game by the home side. Usually Ferris has had the Norwich hitters baffled, but they laid into the curves with run producing results this time.

Bannan had Edgar shifted from second to short and played second instead of right field. The Norwich team had two new faces in the lineup. "Cell" Callivan, the Rhode Island Major League player, second instead of Strickfuss and pitcher Wallace, who has just been released from Willimantic. In the home side, believe it or not, the home side was in right field. This new second baseman participating in the fielding chances nicely. Wallace was hit hard in the double play. Wallace was hit hard to pitch good ball in the latter part.

The 200 spectators got more for their money than often comes in a game, as they watched both sides run the bases till there were runs in the paths. Middletown fumble fielding chances and threw the ball at every opportunity, and Norwich dodge along the lines till they had Middletown dizzy and Bannan purple in the face with rage at the way his boys were throwing the ball around. To add to this Umpire Edgerton had an off day and was about as bad as he could be without requiring police protection for several gilt edged plays.

Middletown got off with a flying start, making two runs in the first inning. Norwich promptly tied it up principally through the double steal executed by Duff and Noonan on which the latter scored. Duff then stole and Frieles single brought him in.

Bannan took a lead off of Duff's back in the second inning, starting the running game for a while it looked as if the home team were to be victorious. But Wallace helped in the confusion and four runs were scored for Middletown. In the third and fourth innings, Norwich gained a lead by a brace of runs in both the sixth and eighth innings, but Norwich pulled ahead and won out in their half of the eighth.

The winning runs were scored in an exciting session, starting with Ferris put two men on by ruffling Anderson's attempted sacrifice. Jules Murphy who pitched right handed in the last five innings did the running for Frieles who was hurt in a collision with the pitcher. Ferris then pitched a home run, pushed both runners forward with a sacrifice. Then a powwow was had over the play. Ferris then pitched a home run, pushed both runners forward with a sacrifice. Then a powwow was had over the play.

Among the features were a one-hand catch of a fly over his shoulder after a hard run, and a nice catch by Noonan of a long fly. Umpire Edgerton was in the center over a decision on a punt by Duff that Ferris tried to gather up but baffled into Duff's feet. Bannan claimed interference or hit by batted ball, but the umpire had the decision right and refused to be budged.

DIAMOND PICKUPS.
There is to be a league meeting this morning in Mayor Dunn's baseball headquarters at Willimantic arranged for a schedule for the rest of the season.

Willimantic and Norwich have exchanged dates on the schedule, giving a game between the teams here this afternoon and in Willimantic on Saturday.

Jackie Callivan is to be sent in against the Willimantic team at Sachem park today. The friends of the Academy star will be out to see him show the goods.

Centerfielder Monahan is slated for Rockville. Strickfuss is also probably due for the blue ticket. The former has been a weak batter and the latter a weak pitcher. Monahan is dropping many when he was playing the second station or covering first on bunts.

Tommy Bannan gave the fans a good chance to get a line on what kind of a pitcher he was. He had good sportsmanship. He had it figured out to make a getaway at 4:55 just as he did on the first game. In this way, but the home management had not agreed to it this time, nor had the umpire. Just when the time arrived Middletown managed to tie the score. Callivan pitched Tom's first game. Seller Craney, who had promised to hold the car for him. "Not on your mind," said Bannan. "I'll play all night now."

JACK JOHNSON WITH THE BACON. Mother Has a Chalky Cooking—Jack Plans to Take Thinks Easy. Chicago, July 7.—Jack Johnson, champion of all prize fighters, tonight, is once more at home with his mammy, and his automobile.

Five thousand members of his race and a large number of white persons made the living wall at the Chicago and Northwestern railway station where he landed on his return from Reno. Policemen were swept aside when the fighter looming above the crowd fought his way smiling through manacles and pads on the back to a waiting automobile.

With a rush and a roar that left all behind, Jack in his new racing car dashed madly home, where his mother, Mrs. Tina Johnson, with members of his family waited in the midst of another crowd of thousands.

He pushed his way into the house amid deafening roars, and with tears streaming down his face embraced his mother. Behind him a compositist struggled through the crowd, bearing aloft a smoked bacon side, symbolic of Johnson's own smoking habit.

"I'm coming home with the bacon," "You don't need no bacon chic," cried the aged Mrs. Johnson, "ah want to tell you I see got a mighty fine chicken cookin' out heat in de kitchen and yo know how you like eatin' meon?"

"We have got some dandies, Jack," "Now Jack," said a reporter, "what are you doing now?" "I'm about Sam Langford and your mother's saying you were to quit fighting forever, and your trip to Reno."

"Glad to be asked all at once," he replied, "cause I say I don't know if I have enough money to last me till next week and I am going to find out what's going before I do anything."

His father, he said, would be outlined only generally and this is how he generalized them. "Sleep on it, get his money up first, and then proceed to whip me afterward."

BASEBALL STARS HAVE SHORT LIFE. Average Player Lasts Longer—Big Blazes Burn Out Quick. The greater the star the quicker the fall, seems to be a cardinal principle in baseball.

The batting averages of the Jewett City team of the Eastern Connecticut league as reported by the borough fans is as follows: Jewett City Batting Average.

Confidence, nerve and good eyesight are essential for success in batting. A man should be up to the plate with the idea that he is bound to hit. He should expect the pitcher to get something and be prepared to match his own cleverness against it.

That Connecticut is a waxing and not a waning state is being indicated by the assessed valuation of taxable property.
