

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES.

NEW LONDON COUNTY.

Miss Lamphere Celebrated Twentieth Anniversary—With the Travelers and Vacationists—Personal and Social News.

Miss Etta May Lamphere celebrated her 20th birthday Saturday, July 10th, by entertaining at Riverside Lawn the Queens of Avillon, of which society she is a member. The lawn and porch were prettily decorated with flags and Chinese lanterns on the occasion. A feature of the party was a peanut hunt on the lawn. Miss Viola Eldridge secured the largest number, thus winning a prize.

A picnic was held Thursday, July 7, at John R. Babcock's cottage at Riverside farm on the east side of the Mystic river. A fine dinner was served. Those present were Deacon Cyrus H. Brown, Mrs. George H. Utter, Wilfred Utter, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Campbell of Westerly, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown and two children of Newburyport, Mass., Mrs. Annie Bradley Brown of Roxbury, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Babcock, Miss Susan H. Babcock, Miss George Babcock, Emily Babcock and Wallace A. Phillips.

Herman Rawitzer of New York and Frederick Wiley of Stafford Springs, members of the Mystic Woolen company of Old Mystic, were here Tuesday.

Joseph Avery and family left Friday last for a two weeks' camping trip at Mason's Island, near Newburyport.

The Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church met Wednesday evening with Mrs. J. Harold Williams.

Miss Nellie E. Schoonover of Elm-hurst is visiting a schoolmate at her home in Middlebury, Vt.

Mrs. Allen P. Williams of Quoque-taug Hill has been ill for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy entertained Sunday Earl Walbridge of Fishers Island, Richard Walbridge of Stafford Springs and Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas of New London.

Miss Anna Forsthoft returned Tuesday to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y., after a two weeks' visit to Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hartley.

Miss Lucy Gallup is visiting her sister, Mrs. Anna Gallup, of Laurel Hill, Norwich.

Miss Mary Harris Dean has returned from a week's visit to her sister, Miss Adeline E. Dean, of New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Sullivan of Mohogian were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin H. Hoxis.

The Queens of Avillon held a session Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Electric church.

Miss Leah Johnson was a recent guest of her uncle and aunt, Capt. and Mrs. Clinton Caswell, of London.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cook has been staying for the past week Miss Hendrickson and Miss Work of Minneapolis, Minn.

Miss Anna Burdick of North Stonington is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Main.

John Hartley of Providence is spending his vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Elsie C. Hartley.

Miss Ada Lamb of Center Groton was recently calling on friends at Burnett's corners.

George Sisson of Stafford Springs is visiting at the home of his brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sisson.

Mrs. Sarah B. Dewey has been seriously ill for the past few weeks.

Miss Laura Goodwin, who has been attending school at Mystic, has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Goodwin, of the Wolf Neck district.

Mr. and Mrs. Quincy McGuire and Mrs. Palmer of New York, and their son of Albany have arrived at the McGuire homestead for their summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Gates and daughter, Miss Mildred, and Mrs. Chesbro have returned to their homes in Providence after a visit to Mrs. Isabel Nell and Miss Holloway at the Edwards homestead.

Miss Marjorie Harris has returned to the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Harris, after a three weeks' visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Harris, of Tariffville.

Mrs. Wallace A. Phillips, who has been ill for the past month at the home of her parents, Miss Susan H. Babcock, is steadily regaining her health.

Mrs. Margaret Johnson has returned to Providence after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Crumb.

Mrs. Charles H. Denison of Mystic was a recent guest of her father, John W. Barrows.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wheeler visited Ocean Beach Sunday, making the trip in Mr. Davis' automobile.

MONTVILLE

Church Clerk's Report Gives Much Satisfaction and Encouragement—Delegates Appointed for Association.

Mrs. George Wood and Miss Jennie Wood spent a few days last week with friends in Norwich.

Miss Ethel Boynton spent the Sabbath at her home at Gardner Lake, returning with her sister, Miss Ruby Boynton, Sunday evening.

At the Thursday evening prayer-meeting, the church clerk, Frank Rogers, read the statistics and letter for the annual associational meeting to be held at the Huntington Avenue Baptist church, New London, in September. The report was a great encouragement to the members.

Seven members have been added to the church, the church roll carefully revised, 33 names being erased; church buildings and parsonage repaired at an expense of about $1,700; the missionary apportionment paid; all services well supported; the average attendance at the Christian Endeavor for past six months was 98 against 42 of the first six months of 1909.

The insurance agents from Hartford have inspected the ruins and adjusted the insurance satisfactorily on the Hayes Process company property.

Albert Munger of Guilford was a visitor in this place Friday.

Ernest Penharlow had a narrow escape from drowning Saturday night in the watering trough in this place. Penharlow was found with his face submerged in the water by William Gray, an intoxicated constable, and he was taken to the trough to water his horse.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Latimer are spending a part of the summer in Boston.

Delegates appointed for the New London Baptist association were Deacon and Mrs. Edwin S. Henry, Mrs. Arabella Latimer, Mrs. Norman C. Allen and Miss May Darrow.

Mrs. G. A. Chapman and Mrs. Edmunds took an outing at Ocean beach, New London, Wednesday.

Rev. George C. Chappell delivered the third sermon of the series on Great Losses, at the Union Baptist church Sunday morning. Topic, Lost Prayer.

At the Bible school society, having adopted the model Christian Endeavor constitution and by-laws, Miss Nellie Chapman spent the Sabbath at Storrs, Mansfield, returning Monday.

Miss Lena Miner and Miss Josephine Hart are taking the summer course of study there.

Rev. Dr. Taylor to return.

Friends of Dr. F. A. Taylor, who practiced in the town until last spring, are circulating a paper for signers to induce the return of the doctor to practice again in town.

Four Black Bass.

C. E. Sweet at a recent fishing excursion to Oxbow lake succeeded in taking four black bass.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse C. Watt, who have been in the Berkshires, returned home Monday.

Alfred J. Watt, in Hartford, returned home Monday.

Ralph H. Melcer, who has been spending a few days in the Berkshires, returned home Monday.

More Treatment for Macadam.

That portion of the macadam road from the bridge in place to Trading Cove, which has not been satisfactory, is to be again treated.

People Blinded by Dust.

Property owners living along the highway from this village to Palmer's dock, complaining of the dust, are to have the road, which is so dusty that people are nearly blinded by the dust and ashes.

Installation at Thames Lodge.

Thames Lodge, O. C. F., held installation of new officers for the year in the Palmer Memorial hall on Tuesday evening.

James A. Stoddard attended the auction sale at the Gilbert store, held in Worcester.

James E. Stoddard has some fancy registered stock himself, but thinks this herd of one hundred head which was sold was the best he ever saw and brought fabulous prices.

There was also a sale of Berkshire hogs which brought as high as $127.50 each.

E. B. Menger of Madison, Conn., was in town recently and purchased a pair of oxen of Charles E. Maynard, also a pair of oxen and a cow of Enos M. Gray.

UNCASVILLE

Hearing on Assault Continued Until Today—Found With Face Submerged in Watering Trough—Officers of Thames Lodge Are Installed.

The hearing in the case of the state vs. Harris Frieburg, which was held before Justice of the Peace William Smiddy Thursday, was continued and will be heard again July 16. Frieburg was arrested by Constable Michael Hickey on charge of assaulting Harry Weiner and Carl Jacobowitz, who were beating on Frieburg's farm. The boys say that he caught them, assaulted them, taking their pills and berries away. The complaint was brought by the parents of the boys. Frieburg is out under bonds.

Persons and Briefs.

Robert Dodds is spending a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Godley, in Natick.

Frank Hart, who has been spending a few days with relatives in town, has returned to Hartford.

Fred Chapel and William McKenzie have returned home from a visit to Atlantic City.

Mrs. Earl Browning is confined to her home by illness.

Herbert Champlin of Norwich spent Sunday the guest of his sister, Mrs. Elsie Vibber.

Guy A. Loomis, after a few days absence from his home in town, returned to his duties in Hartford.

The insurance agents from Hartford have inspected the ruins and adjusted the insurance satisfactorily on the Hayes Process company property.

Albert Munger of Guilford was a visitor in this place Friday.

Ernest Penharlow had a narrow escape from drowning Saturday night in the watering trough in this place.

Penharlow was found with his face submerged in the water by William Gray, an intoxicated constable, and he was taken to the trough to water his horse.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cornet have returned to their home in Massachusetts after a few weeks' stay at the home of Mr. Cornet's mother, Mrs. Edward Cornet.

William Deardon has moved this week to the Louisa Gallup house in Pequot.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Coats and daughter, Miss Eula, who have been guests at G. P. Conix' home at Huntington, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Susan Baker of Westerly is a guest at the home of her nephew, Edward Drayton.

Want Dr. Taylor to return.

Friends of Dr. F. A. Taylor, who practiced in the town until last spring, are circulating a paper for signers to induce the return of the doctor to practice again in town.

Four Black Bass.

C. E. Sweet at a recent fishing excursion to Oxbow lake succeeded in taking four black bass.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse C. Watt, who have been in the Berkshires, returned home Monday.

Alfred J. Watt, in Hartford, returned home Monday.

Ralph H. Melcer, who has been spending a few days in the Berkshires, returned home Monday.

More Treatment for Macadam.

That portion of the macadam road from the bridge in place to Trading Cove, which has not been satisfactory, is to be again treated.

People Blinded by Dust.

Property owners living along the highway from this village to Palmer's dock, complaining of the dust, are to have the road, which is so dusty that people are nearly blinded by the dust and ashes.

Installation at Thames Lodge.

Thames Lodge, O. C. F., held installation of new officers for the year in the Palmer Memorial hall on Tuesday evening.

James A. Stoddard attended the auction sale at the Gilbert store, held in Worcester.

James E. Stoddard has some fancy registered stock himself, but thinks this herd of one hundred head which was sold was the best he ever saw and brought fabulous prices.

There was also a sale of Berkshire hogs which brought as high as $127.50 each.

CANTERBURY

Ladies Entertained at Canterbury Plains—Henry Hayden, 80, Passed Away—Visitors In and Out of Town.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Millett and daughter, Miss Mary Jane, are spending this week with relatives in Springfield, Mass.

Charles Nutall, plumber at C. E. Barber Hardware company's store, is having a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Olney Entertains on Birthday.

About thirty members of the ladies of the W. R. C. and W. C. T. U. drove to Canterbury Plains Wednesday, where they were royally entertained at the home of Miss Frederica Olney in honor of her birthday. She was given a postcard shower and received other gifts. A dinner was served, also ice cream, cake and lemonade during the afternoon. They returned late in the evening, reporting a very enjoyable day.

Newspapers.

Thomas, little son of Thomas Carlin, is recovering from several weeks' illness with stomach trouble.

Mrs. Erastus Fiske of Killingly is spending a few days at Everett Richmond's.

Miss Arvilla Besse, who has been spending several weeks at Killingly, has returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. Albert C. Walker.

At Willimantic Camp Grounds.

Miss Phoebe Barber, who has been in the past few months recovering so she was able to leave Saturday morning for the Willimantic camp ground, where she intends to spend the summer at Vine cottage, No. 8 Haven avenue.

Mrs. Peter Burke was called to Webster, Mass., Thursday by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Stephen Marcuse.

Mrs. Arnold B. Mathewson is entertaining her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Gray of Boston, this week.

Mrs. John Shelley is seriously ill at her home on River street. Her sister, Mrs. Burrill Franklin, of Providence, has been called here to attend to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Narcisse Caplette and little daughter Blanche have been in Putnam, Providence and Narragansett Pier, R. I., during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thayer of Putnam spent Saturday and Sunday at Israel Seguin's.

Master George Dewey Seguin, who has been spending a week with friends in Norwich and Gales Ferry, has returned home.

Mrs. Fannie Card has returned from a visit with her daughter in Providence.

William Sunn, a student at Colby academy, New London, N. H., is assisting in the office of the Central Worsted company this week.

Attended Picnic.

The picnic by the Baptist Sunday school of Moosup was enjoyed by several of our young people who were guests.

Napoleon Beaudry has returned from his vacation spent in Providence and Block Island.

Fred Ashton has returned from Fitchburg, where he has been spending a week.

Mrs. Charles Wagner and three children and nurse of Ann Arbor, Mich., are visiting Mrs. Wagner's parents, Conductor and Mrs. Marshall Kenyon.

Rev. George Benedict's family attended church Sunday. They have moved from North Amherst, Mass., to a furnished house in Plainfield, and there is no desirable tenement vacant here for them at present. It is hoped the pastor will see to it that his pastor can live in the village.

August Holgerson and son Howard spent Sunday with relatives in Putnam.

Frank Davis spent Sunday with his family in Providence. They have been visiting Mr. Davis' parents in Woodstock.

Death of Henry Hayden.

Henry Hayden, about 70 years of age, died at the home of his son-in-law, Patrick Loughren, early Sunday morning after several months' illness with heart trouble and other diseases. Funerals services were held Tuesday morning. Burial was in Providence at St. Patrick's cemetery. He had assisted in caring for the Evergreen cemetery for several years.

Purely Personal.

William Newton, clerk in R. L. Rose's grocery store in Providence, is spending a week with his mother, Mrs. Eva Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clarke have been visiting relatives in Canterbury.

Jesse M. Hopton, clerk at F. H. & F. W. Tillinghast's store, is enjoying a week's vacation. Edward Tillinghast is assisting in the store during his absence.

Mrs. Everett Richmond is spending two weeks with relatives in Fitchburg and Leominster, Mass.

CANTERBURY

Ladies Entertained at Canterbury Plains—Henry Hayden, 80, Passed Away—Visitors In and Out of Town.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Millett and daughter, Miss Mary Jane, are spending this week with relatives in Springfield, Mass.

Charles Nutall, plumber at C. E. Barber Hardware company's store, is having a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Olney Entertains on Birthday.

About thirty members of the ladies of the W. R. C. and W. C. T. U. drove to Canterbury Plains Wednesday, where they were royally entertained at the home of Miss Frederica Olney in honor of her birthday. She was given a postcard shower and received other gifts. A dinner was served, also ice cream, cake and lemonade during the afternoon. They returned late in the evening, reporting a very enjoyable day.

Newspapers.

Thomas, little son of Thomas Carlin, is recovering from several weeks' illness with stomach trouble.

Mrs. Erastus Fiske of Killingly is spending a few days at Everett Richmond's.

Miss Arvilla Besse, who has been spending several weeks at Killingly, has returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. Albert C. Walker.

At Willimantic Camp Grounds.

Miss Phoebe Barber, who has been in the past few months recovering so she was able to leave Saturday morning for the Willimantic camp ground, where she intends to spend the summer at Vine cottage, No. 8 Haven avenue.

Mrs. Peter Burke was called to Webster, Mass., Thursday by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Stephen Marcuse.

Mrs. Arnold B. Mathewson is entertaining her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Gray of Boston, this week.

Mrs. John Shelley is seriously ill at her home on River street. Her sister, Mrs. Burrill Franklin, of Providence, has been called here to attend to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Narcisse Caplette and little daughter Blanche have been in Putnam, Providence and Narragansett Pier, R. I., during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thayer of Putnam spent Saturday and Sunday at Israel Seguin's.

Master George Dewey Seguin, who has been spending a week with friends in Norwich and Gales Ferry, has returned home.

Mrs. Fannie Card has returned from a visit with her daughter in Providence.

William Sunn, a student at Colby academy, New London, N. H., is assisting in the office of the Central Worsted company this week.

Attended Picnic.

The picnic by the Baptist Sunday school of Moosup was enjoyed by several of our young people who were guests.

Napoleon Beaudry has returned from his vacation spent in Providence and Block Island.

Fred Ashton has returned from Fitchburg, where he has been spending a week.

Mrs. Charles Wagner and three children and nurse of Ann Arbor, Mich., are visiting Mrs. Wagner's parents, Conductor and Mrs. Marshall Kenyon.

Rev. George Benedict's family attended church Sunday. They have moved from North Amherst, Mass., to a furnished house in Plainfield, and there is no desirable tenement vacant here for them at present. It is hoped the pastor will see to it that his pastor can live in the village.

August Holgerson and son Howard spent Sunday with relatives in Putnam.

Frank Davis spent Sunday with his family in Providence. They have been visiting Mr. Davis' parents in Woodstock.

Death of Henry Hayden.

Henry Hayden, about 70 years of age, died at the home of his son-in-law, Patrick Loughren, early Sunday morning after several months' illness with heart trouble and other diseases. Funerals services were held Tuesday morning. Burial was in Providence at St. Patrick's cemetery. He had assisted in caring for the Evergreen cemetery for several years.

Purely Personal.

William Newton, clerk in R. L. Rose's grocery store in Providence, is spending a week with his mother, Mrs. Eva Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clarke have been visiting relatives in Canterbury.

Jesse M. Hopton, clerk at F. H. & F. W. Tillinghast's store, is enjoying a week's vacation. Edward Tillinghast is assisting in the store during his absence.

Mrs. Everett Richmond is spending two weeks with relatives in Fitchburg and Leominster, Mass.

CANTERBURY

Ladies Entertained at Canterbury Plains—Henry Hayden, 80, Passed Away—Visitors In and Out of Town.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Millett and daughter, Miss Mary Jane, are spending this week with relatives in Springfield, Mass.

Charles Nutall, plumber at C. E. Barber Hardware company's store, is having a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Olney Entertains on Birthday.

About thirty members of the ladies of the W. R. C. and W. C. T. U. drove to Canterbury Plains Wednesday, where they were royally entertained at the home of Miss Frederica Olney in honor of her birthday. She was given a postcard shower and received other gifts. A dinner was served, also ice cream, cake and lemonade during the afternoon. They returned late in the evening, reporting a very enjoyable day.

Newspapers.

Thomas, little son of Thomas Carlin, is recovering from several weeks' illness with stomach trouble.

Mrs. Erastus Fiske of Killingly is spending a few days at Everett Richmond's.

Miss Arvilla Besse, who has been spending several weeks at Killingly, has returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. Albert C. Walker.

At Willimantic Camp Grounds.

Miss Phoebe Barber, who has been in the past few months recovering so she was able to leave Saturday morning for the Willimantic camp ground, where she intends to spend the summer at Vine cottage, No. 8 Haven avenue.

Mrs. Peter Burke was called to Webster, Mass., Thursday by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Stephen Marcuse.

Mrs. Arnold B. Mathewson is entertaining her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Gray of Boston, this week.

Mrs. John Shelley is seriously ill at her home on River street. Her sister, Mrs. Burrill Franklin, of Providence, has been called here to attend to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Narcisse Caplette and little daughter Blanche have been in Putnam, Providence and Narragansett Pier, R. I., during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thayer of Putnam spent Saturday and Sunday at Israel Seguin's.

Master George Dewey Seguin, who has been spending a week with friends in Norwich and Gales Ferry, has returned home.

Mrs. Fannie Card has returned from a visit with her daughter in Providence.

William Sunn, a student at Colby academy, New London, N. H., is assisting in the office of the Central Worsted company this week.

Attended Picnic.

The picnic by the Baptist Sunday school of Moosup was enjoyed by several of our young people who were guests.

Napoleon Beaudry has returned from his vacation spent in Providence and Block Island.

Fred Ashton has returned from Fitchburg, where he has been spending a week.

Mrs. Charles Wagner and three children and nurse of Ann Arbor, Mich., are visiting Mrs. Wagner's parents, Conductor and Mrs. Marshall Kenyon.

Rev. George Benedict's family attended church Sunday. They have moved from North Amherst, Mass., to a furnished house in Plainfield, and there is no desirable tenement vacant here for them at present. It is hoped the pastor will see to it that his pastor can live in the village.

August Holgerson and son Howard spent Sunday with relatives in Putnam.

Frank Davis spent Sunday with his family in Providence. They have been visiting Mr. Davis' parents in Woodstock.

Death of Henry Hayden.

Henry Hayden, about 70 years of age, died at the home of his son-in-law, Patrick Loughren, early Sunday morning after several months' illness with heart trouble and other diseases. Funerals services were held Tuesday morning. Burial was in Providence at St. Patrick's cemetery. He had assisted in caring for the Evergreen cemetery for several years.

Purely Personal.

William Newton, clerk in R. L. Rose's grocery store in Providence, is spending a week with his mother, Mrs. Eva Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clarke have been visiting relatives in Canterbury.

Jesse M. Hopton, clerk at F. H. & F. W. Tillinghast's store, is enjoying a week's vacation. Edward Tillinghast is assisting in the store during his absence.

Mrs. Everett Richmond is spending two weeks with relatives in Fitchburg and Leominster, Mass.

BOZRAH

Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Fox of Wethersfield have returned home after spending a short time on Lathrop hill.

Harry L. Lathrop of Cumberland Hill, R. I., is at his home for two weeks.

Clayton Parker and son Floyd are at the home of Edward Bishop for a few days.

Edgar Parker of Norwich is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Parker.

Earl Avery, who has been confined to his bed for some time with fever, is a little better.

BETHEL