

AS JOB JOLT SEES IT

It may be harder for a rich man to enter heaven than for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle...

Samantha Preater says the women who want to vote ain't worth a derm when it comes to milking cows of durnin' stockings.

I heard a city man say farmers may have their trials, but they don't have to borrow their own lawn-mower from a neighbor in order to get their work done.

Going bare-footed may be healthy, but one look at Sally Bangs' feet is enough to teach anybody that it doesn't add to their beauty.

Parson Dawson told us too many men judged of their own goodness by looking at their neighbors' sins, but that it was not genuine piety.

Cy Cymbal says it is all well enough for a farmer to make a girl who can milk and saw wood, but it isn't evidence of a good farmer to shove that work off upon her as a daily duty.

Bill Bangs says the countryman who doesn't let his wife drive into town to do the tradin' and hear the gossip half the time in warm weather is a durned fool.

Parson Dawson's boy says he don't want to preach, he'd rather be a policeman. He wants to take to the shady side of life instead of to M. Zion.

The farmer who leaps too much on Providence or the hoe handle doesn't keep up with the champions in boeing his row.

The farmer whose fences are always loose and whose stock get into his neighbor's garden seems to think an apology is just as good as money.

You show me a willing, sweet-tempered farm hand and I'll show you a rarity. Most farm hands are willing to do promptly what you don't care to have done.

Sarlah says she's been looking all her life for a man who loves God and all his creatures. I feel mighty glad she's never found him.

There are men who are such swappers that they would swap their wives if they could; but such men don't marry women that any man will bargain for unless there is a pup or a shoat thrown in.

If the man who hits his horse every time he gets mad could be whipped once a day until cured of the habit, he'd reform in a week.

An Old Subscriber wishes that the sister who wrote the Corner about the use of a mangle for ironing clothes in her method of brewing it—quantity of sage and quantity of water—and says how to do it—how frequently—Editor Social Corner.

Good Things Aunt Sadie Makes. Editor Social Corner: I enjoy reading the letters of the Corner, they are so friendly and personal. I would like to send you a few lines to express my change for some of the fine ones I have copied from these columns:

Summer Mince Pie: Pare, core and chop one-half bushel of apples; add two cups chopped raisins, two cups molasses, one large cup sugar, one-half cup salt, one teaspoon of cinnamon, one-half teaspoon of cloves, one nutmeg, and a piece of citron, beat and juice of a lemon; add water to make the proper consistency. Steep slowly till apples are done. I double the recipe and can white hot, and when Thanksgiving or Christmas comes, I make a pie of it.

Stuffed Tomato Catsup: Eight quarts of fine tomato, five tablespoons of salt, two tablespoons of black pepper, two tablespoons of mustard, one tablespoon of ginger, one-half teaspoon of cloves, one-quarter of vinegar, one cup of brown sugar, and the quantity of nutmeg, add one-third. Do not add the sugar at first, for fear of burning. Stir constantly. Seal hot if wanted to keep a long time.

Baked Huckleberry Pudding. No. 1: One cup molasses, two cups of flour, one cup of sugar, one-half cup of butter, one-half teaspoon of soda dissolved in a little milk or water; make a liquid with the flour, sugar and butter.

Huckleberry Pudding. No. 2: One small cup sugar, half cup butter, one or two eggs, two and a half cups of flour, one or two teaspoons of cream tartar, one cup of sugar, one-half cup of milk, one cup of raisins, one cup of currants, one cup of blueberries, and make a nice liquid sauce.

Date Pie: Two or three pounds of dates that come in bulk; pick over and wash in an ample quantity of water, cover with water, boil a few minutes, remove from the fire; when cool take out the seeds, add the grated nutmeg and juice of a lemon and one or two cups of sugar; bake in two crusts. They are fine and economical, so it is rich and does not require so much in a pie.

Horde or Table Decorations. Editor Social Corner: Those who have had experience know that a small aquarium with gold and silver fish therein, sand, a few stones and a little duck weed, or a small herbarium with green things in an ample quantity, a little pine tree or even cranberry vines and mosses make very pretty living room ornaments. In fact, a few things in expensive glass cases used to be necessary and costly glass globes, but late year saw the coming of the green things in it, it makes the prettiest little herbarium in the world. The fish tanks are to be set in wooden boxes, and the plants are to be set in wooden boxes, and the plants are to be set in wooden boxes.

Among returning passengers from Europe this week was Arthur Hambrick, who has been absent since May. He announced that he has completed arrangements, according to his plan, for a trip to the Manhattan opera house season at the Manhattan opera house, which will begin Sept. 15 with a production of Hans, the Flute Player, in English work by Lester Ganna. The principal role will be taken by Sophie Brant.

The New York Review says: Clary Loftus is to become a star of legitimate comedy once again, the vivacious lady having been engaged by J. E. Vedrenne for the principal role in William J. Locke's play, The Man from the Sea, with which Mr. Vedrenne is to open his West End theater, London, in September.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

THE SOCIAL

A Good Saver is a Good Server.

THREE PRIZES MONTHLY: $250 to first; $150 to second; $100 to third. Award made the last Saturday in each month.

EVERY WOMAN'S OPPORTUNITY. The Bulletin wants good home letters, good business letters; good helpful letters of any kind the mind may suggest. They should be in hand by Wednesday of each week. Write on but one side of the paper.

PRIZES AWARDED FOR JULY. First Prize of $250 to "Blanche" of Norwich for letter entitled "Fireless Cooker."

Second Prize of $150 to "Charly Sweet" of Central Village for letter entitled "Be a True Helpmeet."

Third Prize of $100 to "F. of C." of Moosup for letter entitled "Little Domestic Help."

We all welcome "Aunt Maria" to the Social Corner.

GREATER LICENSE. The readers of this Social Corner doubtless noticed last week that "M. Roena" addressed her letter to "the dear Sisters of the Corner," and the editor rather liked it, and any writer who prefers it need not keep to the more formal "Editor Social Corner."

Two Little Words—One Good Pie. Editor Social Corner: Joy and sorrow are two little words that represent the light and shadow of life, and it is up to every individual to see to himself what he can do for joy, for sorrow will take care of itself, needs no codding and should not be allowed to taunt memory.

How Do You Save? It might be of interest to Corner readers to learn how to economize—how to save pennies, dimes or nickels.

Stop That Cough and That Pain. Editor Social Corner: I have demonstrated that a little thought will save a doctor's bill. There is too much unnecessary suffering in the world—too many long illnesses which might be cured in a few days.

Save Your Money. Editor Social Corner: I enjoy reading the letters of the Corner, they are so friendly and personal. I would like to send you a few lines to express my change for some of the fine ones I have copied from these columns:

Summer Mince Pie: Pare, core and chop one-half bushel of apples; add two cups chopped raisins, two cups molasses, one large cup sugar, one-half cup salt, one teaspoon of cinnamon, one-half teaspoon of cloves, one nutmeg, and a piece of citron, beat and juice of a lemon; add water to make the proper consistency. Steep slowly till apples are done. I double the recipe and can white hot, and when Thanksgiving or Christmas comes, I make a pie of it.

Stuffed Tomato Catsup: Eight quarts of fine tomato, five tablespoons of salt, two tablespoons of black pepper, two tablespoons of mustard, one tablespoon of ginger, one-half teaspoon of cloves, one-quarter of vinegar, one cup of brown sugar, and the quantity of nutmeg, add one-third. Do not add the sugar at first, for fear of burning. Stir constantly. Seal hot if wanted to keep a long time.

Baked Huckleberry Pudding. No. 1: One cup molasses, two cups of flour, one cup of sugar, one-half cup of butter, one-half teaspoon of soda dissolved in a little milk or water; make a liquid with the flour, sugar and butter.

Huckleberry Pudding. No. 2: One small cup sugar, half cup butter, one or two eggs, two and a half cups of flour, one or two teaspoons of cream tartar, one cup of sugar, one-half cup of milk, one cup of raisins, one cup of currants, one cup of blueberries, and make a nice liquid sauce.

Date Pie: Two or three pounds of dates that come in bulk; pick over and wash in an ample quantity of water, cover with water, boil a few minutes, remove from the fire; when cool take out the seeds, add the grated nutmeg and juice of a lemon and one or two cups of sugar; bake in two crusts. They are fine and economical, so it is rich and does not require so much in a pie.

Horde or Table Decorations. Editor Social Corner: Those who have had experience know that a small aquarium with gold and silver fish therein, sand, a few stones and a little duck weed, or a small herbarium with green things in an ample quantity, a little pine tree or even cranberry vines and mosses make very pretty living room ornaments. In fact, a few things in expensive glass cases used to be necessary and costly glass globes, but late year saw the coming of the green things in it, it makes the prettiest little herbarium in the world.

Among returning passengers from Europe this week was Arthur Hambrick, who has been absent since May. He announced that he has completed arrangements, according to his plan, for a trip to the Manhattan opera house season at the Manhattan opera house, which will begin Sept. 15 with a production of Hans, the Flute Player, in English work by Lester Ganna. The principal role will be taken by Sophie Brant.

The New York Review says: Clary Loftus is to become a star of legitimate comedy once again, the vivacious lady having been engaged by J. E. Vedrenne for the principal role in William J. Locke's play, The Man from the Sea, with which Mr. Vedrenne is to open his West End theater, London, in September.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

Right here comes in the practical suggestion of each one of us. If he can't help swell the flow of any of these little streams, he can, at least, refrain from going out of his way to put obstacles in their course. If he can't help, he can surely abstain from hindering. As things are, the farmer who, by word or deed, presents a block or turn aside the progress of the other, is a hindrance to himself and to rival the shackles on his limbs of all his fellows.

BAD AT 25

Mr. Armstrong Tells How He Grew Hair in a Short Time

"Dear Sirs: I was told of your great remedy, Parisian Sage, so I got a bottle and tried it. I am a young man, and only 25, and my hair is thinning out of my head, and now I have hair one inch long, with the use of only one bottle. I shall certainly keep on using it, until I have a good head of hair, which I have no doubt it will bring." Oscar Armstrong, Engineer, Belleville, Horsham, & Rolling Mill Co., Belleville, Ont., August 21, 1909.

To the readers of the Bulletin: The Giroux Mfg. Co. Am. the maker of Parisian Sage, wish to state that they now guarantee Parisian Sage to grow hair on bald heads because in most cases the hair root is dead. In the case of Mr. Armstrong the hair root was not dead and growing as we do, the astonishing hair growing virtue of Parisian Sage, we see no reason why it should not grow hair on the head of Mr. Armstrong.

Large bottles 50 cents, at drug stores everywhere, and at The Lee & Osgood Co.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Parisian Sage is a daintily per-gummed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and may be used by both ladies who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

The Porteous & Mitchell Co. Clearance Sales

IN EVERY DEPARTMENT OF THE STORE All Day Today and This Evening.

Here are some of the remarkable values that will help you to economize, today, in your buying. Read every item.

MEN'S WEAR

Clearance Prices on Men's Clothing, Shirts, Underwear, Neckwear, Hosiery, Etc.

- 75c Washable Ties at 12 1/2c
25c Men's Suspenders at 15c
50c Praline Suspenders at 33c
10c Men's Hosiery at 17c
25c Men's Hosiery at 50c
50c Outing Shirts at 42c
15c Outing Shirts at $1.19

BOYS' WEAR

Clearance Prices on Boys' Clothing, Shirts, Underwear, Neckwear, Hosiery, Etc.

- 25c Children's Hats at 10c
25c Boys' Black Hats at 19c
50c Boys' Caps at 39c
50c Boys' Houses at 19c
50c Boys' Trousers at 46c
50c Boys' Trousers at 46c
$1.00 Khaki Trousers at 69c
69c Wash Suits at 46c
$1.25 Wash Suits at 90c
$1.50 Wash Suits at $1.19

WOMEN'S WEAR

Clearance Prices on Women's Clothing, Shirts, Underwear, Neckwear, Hosiery, Etc.

- $1.00 Women's Waists at 50c
25c Dressing Saques at 19c
15c House Dresses at 85c
15c House Dresses at $1.19
$8.50 Wash Suits at $4.69
$6.00 Princess Dresses at $3.39
$10.00 Wool Coats at $5.75
$13.50 Wool Suits at $6.98

MILLINERY

Clearance Prices on Millinery, Hats, Caps, etc.

- At 10c—Untrimmed Hats for Women and Children—all this season's styles.
At 48c—All our Trimmed Outing Hats, value as high as $1.95 a pair.
At 96c—All our Women's Dress Hats, value as high as $3.00.
FINE HATS at $1.99
Women's Fine Dress Hats, comprising Pattern Hats from our own millinery department. Tailored Hats—all at $3.99 to close former prices as high as $15.00.

HOSIERY-UNDERWEAR

Clearance Prices on Hosiery, Underwear, etc.

- At 9c—Children's Black Ribbed Hosiery, sizes 5 to 9 1/2, regular 12 1/2c.
At 11c—Infants and Children's Socks, black, white and colors, some with plaid tops, and 25c.
At 9c—Women's Fast Black Seamless Hosiery at 9c a pair, 3 for 25c.
At 11c—Women's Hosiery, black and tan, also Black Lace, also black outsize, value 15c.
At 12c—One case of Women's Gauze Hosiery, very sheer and gauzy, value 15c.
At 19c—Women's Embroidered Hosiery, black lisle with silk embroidery, value 25c.

OTHER SPECIAL OFFERINGS

Clearance Prices on Various Goods, etc.

The Porteous & Mitchell Co.

THE FARMER TALKS TO FARMERS

The Hounds, The Wolves, The Victims.

(Written Specially for The Bulletin.) I've been talking recently with farmers from different parts of Uncle Sam's big farm, and the thing which has impressed me most in all my talks I've had has been the certainty of each one to come round, sooner or later, to the fact that the farmer is the real victim of the commercial world. He is expected to sell his produce at what the other