CAPTAIN PAULHUS RESIGNS.

Duties Compel Him to Give Up All Military Service. Capt. Jean R. Paulhus, who for the past thirteen years has been actively identified with military affairs, both country, state and private, is to end his military career soon and has tendered his resignation to Gen. Florimond L. Union St. Jean de Baptiste d'Amery, as its captain, to take effect.

Captain Paulhus has recently become affiliated with the Argus Drive Battery company of this city and his duties are such as to preclude his attention to military affairs to any great extent in the future and he deems it advisable for him to relinquish all connection with the organization, with which he has so long been affiliated and has been identified.

The Steadily Increasing Business of This Bank

goes to show that the People like our conservative method of doing business. One of the vital keynotes to Success in Banking consists in making conservative loans and confining same to a limited territory. This Institute solicits only such loans in the behalf that the Security is better. That is why we are increasing our business — by doing a Safe Business.

Water Receipts Fall Off.

It is expected that the business of the local water department will be in as good condition by a number of hundreds of dollars this fall as it was last year.

Painfully Injured.

George G. Cahoon, a carpenter in the employ of Joseph A. Martin, is laid up at his home, 248 Valley street, as the result of a painful accident Wednesday afternoon. While at work pulling down a ceiling, the head of the axe that he was using became loosened from its handle and fell, edge downward, and struck and pinned Mr. Cahoon's right hand to the scaffolding, inflicting a bad wound several inches in length through the hand. Dr. Owen O'Neill rendered surgical attendance.

Going to Denver Encampment.

Department Commander Frank P. Fenwick, in command of the Spanish War Veterans, will leave today (Thursday) by way of Hartford and Springfield, Mass., en route to Denver for the encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans. He will join the commander in chief with escort and staff at the city of Greenfield, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick are expected to be absent about ten days.

Fell Dead on Crossing.

A good horse, said to be owned by John Curran, who drives a delivery truck, was killed by a train crossing at the Mill street crossing just before the arrival of the noon express Wednesday. It is expected that the carcass of the horse will be recovered by the railroad.

Settled Satisfactorily.

The foreclosure judgment obtained by Hornedans Dion of this city against Mrs. Frank E. Gilman, of Westchester, Mass., and Mrs. J. E. Sullivan of this city, a brother, Paul, and two younger sisters, also of this city.

Miss Helen Vanderman Succumbs to Acute Pneumonia Attack.

Miss Helen, aged 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vanderman, died at her home, No. 3 Turner street, Wednesday evening following a short illness with acute pneumonia. Miss Vanderman was a member of the class of 1909 of the Willimantic High School and was well known and enjoyed the acquaintance of a large circle of friends who will miss her very much.

Persons.

WILLIMANTIC CAMP GROUND.

Annual Meeting of Association—Encouraging Reports Presented—Inspiring Sermons During Wednesday's Services. The Tuesday evening service was held in the quietest of large halls on the platform, and several hundred made up the congregation.

Evangelist Lauds Joseph.

Evangelist Taylor's text was Genesis 49: 22, 23, 24. The name Joseph means prosperity and health. Healthy church members are better than wealthy ones. I.e. spiritually healthy ones. A perfectly healthy man can walk through a hospital. God help us to be immune from worldly microbes by getting better spiritual health. Joseph's character wonderfully

DANIELSON

Political Interests—Margaret Hodgins Committed to State School—High Temperature on Wednesday—Possible Need Industries. Miss Marguerite Caron is visiting friends in Providence.

PUTNAM

Sight-Seeing Trip in Maine—Lizotte-Thurber Marriage—Special Town Meeting—Farewell Gifts for Edward M. Corbin. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Shaw have been visiting the Goodall brothers, old schoolmates of Mr. Shaw, who are large plush and woolen manufacturers in Sanford and Springvale, Maine.

Home from Aldrich Estate.

Frederick Bellows has returned to Danville from Warwick Neck, N. H., where he has been at work on the estate of Senator N. W. Aldrich. Miss Evelyn Bigdon remains ill at the home of her father, F. E. Bigdon of Broad Street.

Candidates for Selectman.

It is reported that Sidney Barstow will be a candidate for the republican nomination for selectman from the third district. Harley Place, the present member of the board from that district, is also a candidate.

Call for Democratic Caucuses.

Members of the democratic town committee will meet today (Thursday) at a call for a party caucus to be held in the town hall to name delegates to the state convention to be held in New Britain at the congressional convention to be held in Norwich, and to the senatorial district convention to be held at Danville.

Band to Entertain Public.

St. James band is to give another concert on Davis park Tuesday evening, September 6. This concert will be given gratis by the band, which has played all the concerts that have been subscribed for by citizens during the past few months.

At Foster Old Home Day.

Danielson sent a large delegation over the Rhode Island border into the town of Foster Wednesday to be present at the annual Old Home Day exercises. Governor Aram Prentiss of Rhode Island was the principal speaker.

Death of Mrs. Patrick Riley.

Mrs. Patrick Riley, 70, and one of the oldest of the town, died at her home in Danville Wednesday morning after a long illness. Mrs. Riley, whose husband died many years ago, is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frederick Short and Miss Ames, and by three sons, Frank, Lawrence and Joseph.

Probate Hearing.

Saturday of this week has been named by Judge Oliver E. Getty of the probate court as the date for the hearing on the allowance of the administrators account in the estate of Laura Ann Stover Hyde.

Over 90 Degrees on Wednesday.

August furnished one more scorching Wednesday when the mercury went as high as 92 degrees in Rockville. The wind was from the west and made the day even more oppressive.

New Industries Possible.

If business shows the expected improvement this fall, it is probable that the local water department will be in as good condition by a number of hundreds of dollars this fall as it was last year.

Boarding Places for Teachers.

The difficulty that teachers in the schools of Killingly experienced in finding suitable places to board in Danville during the last school year has been overcome this season by reason of an arrangement that was recently announced. The teachers who were considerably inconvenienced last year, will undoubtedly appreciate the change.

Judge Back's Successor.

Who will replace Judge Back at the head of the town court, which is appointed to the attorney generalship of the state is a question that is of local interest at this time. It is thought that there seems to be no doubt that Judge Back is to be named for the high office mentioned.

Notes.

The deaths of children under the age of five years has been strikingly increasing in Brooklyn and Killingly the past two weeks. While there is uncertainty about this as yet, it is possible that a grand jury will be empanelled for service at the criminal sessions of the next term in North Grosvenordale, where it was held for Mrs. Melden's text was Hebrews v. 8. "Though he is a son, yet learned he obedience by the sufferings which he endured."
