

Henry Allen & Son FURNISHING UNDERTAKERS 68 Main Street.

ALL THE Rexall Remedies

Sevin's Drug Store

FINE TAILORING John Kukla,

Merchant Tailor, 208 Main St. Jun15d

The New Fall Derbies and Soft Hats

for Men are now ready at McPherson's The Hatter

You cannot find better lines in the City to select from, both for style and quality than are shown here.

McPHERSON'S,

The Hatter, 101 Main St., City Aug24d

TO-NIGHT WOLFCARET

WOLF

Mesh Bags

A fine new pattern in Mesh Bags

Kid lined, extra pocket inside, nice large roomy bag.

Prices from $1.50 to $6.50

The Plant-Cadden Co., Jewelers and Silversmiths, Established 1872.

PLAUT-CADDEN BUILDING

Delivered to Any Part of Norwich

HAVE YOUR Watches and Clocks Repaired by FRISWELL,

25-27 Franklin Street. Jun17daw

LOUIS H. BRUNELLE BAKERY

We are confident our Pie, Cake and Bread cannot be excelled. Give us a trial order.

20 Fairmount Street.

There is no advertising medium in Eastern Connecticut equal to The Bulletin for business results.

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Thursday, Aug. 25, 1910.

The Bulletin should be delivered everywhere in the city before 8 a. m.

Subscribers who fail to receive it by that time will confer a favor by reporting the fact to The Bulletin Co.

THE WEATHER.

Forecast for Today.

For New England: Partly cloudy on Thursday; Friday shower and cooler; moderate south to southwest winds.

Predictions from the New York Herald: On Thursday partly cloudy weather and light to fresh southwesterly winds will prevail, preceded by local rains, with slightly lower temperatures, and on Friday partly cloudy to fair weather, with slightly lower temperatures.

Observations in Norwich.

The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Wednesday: Ther. Bar. 7 a. m. 66 30.30

Comparisons. Predictions for Wednesday: Partly cloudy; light south winds.

Wednesday's weather: Partly cloudy; warmer.

Sun. High Moon Rises. Sets. Water. Sets. Sun. Moon and Tides.

Six hours after high water it is low tide, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENEVILLE

Fishing Party at Poquestanuck Draw-bridge—Mrs. Chas. D. Card Moves into New Home—Visitors Coming and Going.

Howard O. Spaulding, James J. Kirby and William A. Pitcher spent the day Wednesday at the Poquestanuck draw-bridge. They caught about fifty bluefish and all enjoyed a very pleasant time. The trip was made by automobile.

Moves into Dr. Brophy's Old Home. Mrs. Charles D. Card has moved from her home at No. 21 Twelfth street to No. 291, Central avenue, the place recently vacated by Dr. Edward J. Brophy.

Personal Mention. Miss Nellie Monahan has returned from a week's stay in Providence.

Charles P. Corey and F. Downing were visitors in Hartford Sunday.

Miss Pearl Webster of Willimantic is spending a week with friends in town.

Miss Bessie Prentice of Prospect street is spending a week in Colchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gellno and daughter are spending a week with relatives in town.

Homer Anker of Hartford has returned after spending a week with friends on Sixth street.

Miss Mary Quinn of Sixth street has returned from a two weeks' visit with relatives in New Haven.

Mrs. J. J. Shea and her son, John Shea, of Boswell avenue, are spending three weeks at Pleasant View.

John S. Sullivan has returned to Jersey City after spending a few days as the guest of Mrs. Dennis Bowen.

Mrs. Agnes Frink of North Main street has gone to South Coventry for one week in the interest of her health.

Miss Florence Peckham of the East Six returned Tuesday evening from a pleasant visit with friends in New Haven.

Miss Catherine Connors of Whitinsville is spending two weeks as the guest of Mrs. Dennis Bowen of Central avenue.

Mrs. Joseph Bray of Central avenue, who has been spending the past three weeks with relatives in Bridgeport, has returned.

Mrs. Mary E. Burdick of Brooklyn is spending a week as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Kennealy, of Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kramer have returned from Groton Long Point, where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George J. Grant.

William J. Farrell has taken a position as assistant cook in A. D. Zabricki's restaurant at the Willimantic camp grounds.

Mrs. Katherine Brown, a nurse at St. Vincent's Hospital, Hartford, is spending a week with Mrs. John J. Lynch of North Main street.

Miss Mamie Sakowski of Webster, Mass., is visiting at the home of her uncle, August Sakowski, of No. 299 North Main street, for a week.

Miss Lena Beaudreau of North Main street and Miss Bridget A. Enright of Seventh street have returned from a week's vacation spent at Block Island.

The Misses Lillian and Irene Moriarty and Thomas Moriarty of North Main street have returned from a few weeks' stay with relatives in Manchester.

Howard P. Benjamin of Central avenue returned on Tuesday from Springfield, Mass., where he has been visiting his brother, George Benjamin, formerly of this place.

Seek Murderer. The state police are keeping their eyes open for Louis G. Restelli, the Quincy, Mass., murderer, whose disappearance was reported by the Assistant Superintendent Arthur I. Story stated Wednesday morning that many Connecticut hunters of Italian-speaking men have been visited by the state officers in the search for the dangerous fugitive.

One person was killed on the rail-ways of India for every 229,000,000 miles travelled.

Funeral Director and Embalmer:

70 Franklin St., Bulletin Bldg. Telephone 642-2.

Prompt service day or night. Lady Assistant. Residence 116 Broadway, opp. Theatre. Telephone 642-3.

OL FOR TOWN OF NORWICH ROADS

Two Tanks Have Been Ordered and Will be Put on by the State at Yantic, Thamesville, Laurel Hill Road and Salem Turnpike—Other Roadwork by the State.

Two tanks of oil for the state roads in Norwich have been ordered and are expected to arrive soon, stated John Donovan, county inspector of state roads, on Wednesday.

The oil is of a different kind than is being placed on the city streets, coming from Illinois and Texas and is being used throughout the state. It will require some time to get it on to the stretches of state road in Norwich, but it will be the first that the state has sent here, although two tanks were ordered here a number of weeks ago, but sent elsewhere, as the roads were then not ready to receive it.

The placing of the oil on the town roads in Norwich was started this week on the stretch of road from Uncasville to Palmertown and from the Uncasville winding road, south of the town of Groton. The work in Groton, New London, Waterford, East Lyme and Lyme over which the state has any control have now been oiled.

The repairs to the road in North Stonington will be completed this week. The several roadbuilding jobs in this vicinity good progress is being made. The Montville road contract is being completed. The road from the turnpike in Butternut Hill makes a decided improvement there. The crushed stone has been placed at a point just beyond the foot of the long Molegan Hill, on the north side.

QUARTERLY REPORT OF PROBATION OFFICER.

R. W. Mansfield Tells of Cases Under His Care in County.

The efficacy of the probation officer system is shown in the quarterly report of County Probation Officer R. W. Mansfield of New London, submitted Wednesday to the county authorities.

The report shows that the officer has had seven under his care. Two were young men charged with chicken stealing. They have been under probation nine months, in which time they have supported their families and generally conducted themselves properly.

Another is a young man wanted for reimbursement from an express company. He received permission to leave the state and is now employed at Schenectady, N. Y., where he works as a secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

A man and woman, charged with chicken stealing, are two others. They were young men charged with chicken stealing. They have since been permitted to leave Connecticut and is employed at Plainfield, N. J., reporting periodically.

Two other are Jewett City young men. They are in charge of Elmer C. Barker as a special assistant probation officer. They have since been on probation behaved themselves, but they have been arrested and held for the superior court on a charge antedating the charge which caused them to be placed on probation.

Mr. Mansfield is a firm believer in the probation system of giving a man another chance.

WEDDINGS.

Brown—Cross. A very pretty wedding was that of Miss Annie E. Cross of this city and William E. Brown of Providence, R. I., which took place on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert French, of No. 76 Union street. In the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends, many from other cities, Rev. William H. Eley, pastor of the A. M. E. Zion church, of which the bride is a member, officiated and the nuptial knot in his impressive manner at 7:30 o'clock.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

The groom is a rising young lawyer in Providence and his excellent characteristics make him well liked by a wide circle of friends. His bride, although her parents, George E. and Adelle Johnson Cross, now reside in Providence, has made her home in Norwich for a number of years and is a well known figure among her many friends. Two years ago she took a normal course in Hartshorn Memorial college, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Eley, who is a well known figure in the city, presided at the wedding. The bride and groom are both graduates of the college and are both graduates of the college.

NORWICH TOWN

Local Visitors to South Coventry—Funeral of Adna O. Norcross—Vacation Notes.

Mrs. William R. Lathrop and Miss Lillian Bailey spent Tuesday at Lake Wangumbaug, South Coventry. The cemetery adjoining has the Nathan Hale monument at the entrance. The yard is kept in perfect order and it is the most beautiful cemetery in this vicinity. Mrs. Dimmick, sister of the late William C. Whitney, secretary of the navy, has put the stones in shape and has done much to render the inscriptions legible. In the town clerk's office is a book of records which is called Mrs. Dimmick's book, because it is the result of her researches.

FUNERAL. Adna O. Norcross. The funeral services of Adna O. Norcross were held at his home on West Town street at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. John Thompson conducted the service. Mrs. Rufus Stanton sang with tenderness and expression "A Friend We Have in Jesus and Pass Me Not, O Gentle Saviour."

For prayer and the reading of selections of Scripture Rev. Mr. Thompson said: "One of our number has been called home. We know not why he suffered so. Jesus has revealed to us the way to that blessed home. If we honor it, we will be well with us when the end comes."

There were choice flowers. Burial was in Yantic cemetery, where a comfortable grave was secured at the grave. The bearers were former associate clerks in the Boston store, Charles S. Smith, James J. Bussac and Charles Smith. Henry Allen & Son had charge of the arrangements.

Among the relatives present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. William Risley and Miss Daisy Risley of Hartford.

Noted Here and There. Miss Ethel Dawson of Guilford is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Fred Hazard of Plain Hill.

Mrs. A. G. Miner has returned to her home on Huntington avenue after several weeks' stay at the Willimantic camp ground.

Miss Mildred Ladd has returned to Torrington after visiting her cousin, Miss Belle Miller of West Town street.

Misses Emily and Susie Wilcox of the Scotland road spent Wednesday at the Willimantic camp grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Miner attended the reunion of the Stark family, held recently at the Golden Spur Inn, East Lyme.

After a visit with her sister, Mrs. George Peck of Plain Hill, Miss Sarah Markham returned on Wednesday to Easthampton.

Misses Faith and Marion Haynes, who are visiting relatives here, went on Wednesday to spend a week in Middletown.

Miss Marlon Randall of West Town street is entertaining one of her classmates at Maryland college, Miss Ruth Ellis of Worcester, Mass.

Miss Gladys L. Miner and Miss Martha L. Brown are guests of Mrs. F. H. Bushnell at her cottage on the Willimantic camp ground.

Some old address, until after election. CHAS. F. THAYER.

Postscript—Since writing the above I notice in a later news item that the committee engaged in investigating the Cox bribery case, among them was one from Rev. James W. Bixler, D.D., pastor of the Second Congregational church, who was in town.

Aug. 24, 1910. Postscript—Since writing the above I notice in a later news item that the committee engaged in investigating the Cox bribery case, among them was one from Rev. James W. Bixler, D.D., pastor of the Second Congregational church, who was in town.

PASSED 103D BIRTHDAY. Mrs. Ann Peterson Possessed All Her Faculties to a Marked Degree.

There is no happier woman in New London than Mrs. Anne Peterson, the great-grandmother of the late Mrs. George S. Morgan, who is now 103 years of age at her home rocking and smiling contentedly as she thinks of the friendship and affection expressed in the gifts and presents she received on the occasion of her one hundred and third birthday.

Mrs. Peterson, who was announced Monday, held her usual informal reception. About fifty friends called. Among them were many from the Southern New England society, which takes a great interest in the remarkable old woman. Mrs. George S. Morgan, the society president, was the guest of honor.

The Sunshine society from New York sent a medal, which it sends to women attaining 100 years of age. Mrs. Peterson will receive two birthday gifts. The number of gifts and the variety of places from which they came, evidenced the respect and esteem all have for Mrs. Peterson.

The hours of the reception were from 2 to 3 p. m., and Mrs. Peterson showed no signs of fatigue, but was bright and cheerful all the time. She retains good eyesight and her health is generally very good.

She walks up and down stairs, and from her meals, and sews without glasses, never having any eye-glasses. Perhaps the most remarkable feature of Mrs. Peterson's being is the way in which she does her work of all kinds. With patience and accuracy she makes up and sews work bags for young women, she makes work bags for young women and similar things. To her friends she makes present of these things.

She is residing at the United Workers' home, Truman street, New London. There she is with everyone a great favor, and she is very sunny with her lovable disposition.

Wolcott Family Reunion. More than 100 members of the Wolcott family gathered for a reunion at ten o'clock Wednesday morning for the sixth annual reunion, which was held at the home of a representative. The address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Edward L. Smith. Owing to the absence of Eben Wolcott, the president of the association, the response was made by Henry Wolcott of West Virginia.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Francis of this city. The officers chosen were: President, E. H. Wolcott, Groton, Ind.; first vice president, C. E. Wolcott, Syracuse, N. Y.; second vice president, H. K. Wolcott, Norfolk, Va.; secretary and treasurer, Dr. E. H. Wolcott, Rochester, N. Y.; chairman of the historical committee, Chandler Wolcott, Rochester, N. Y.

At the State Library. The following books have been received at the State Library: "The Laws of England," by the Earl of Halsbury, lord high chancellor of Great Britain, and other lawyers, volume No. 5; "Founders of the Memorial Volume," containing an account of the 225th anniversary of the founding of the city of Philadelphia and history of its principal scientific institutions, medical college hospitals, etc., by Dr. Frederick P. Henry; volume Nos. 225 and 224 of 1909 of the reports of cases decided in the supreme court of the state of Missouri.

Miss Violet Kenyon has completed a two weeks' visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Charles Kenyon of Moosip.

Miss Kate McCarthy, who has been visiting Miss Louise White of South B street, has returned to Providence.

Daniel McSheffrey has returned to his home on South A street after a pleasant stay of one week in Boston.

Mrs. Charles Prentice, who is spending the summer at Pleasant Beach, was in Taftville for a short time on Monday.

Miss Frechette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frechette, of North B street, is in Montreal, Canada, for a month's stay.

Frank Belique of the Canterbury turnpike has returned from Canada where he has been visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Alce Ramage of Norwich avenue returned Wednesday from a week's visit at Moose Island.

Ernest W. Jarvis and family are spending several weeks at Fisher's Island and are stopping at the Barnes cottage.

Alonzo Roy left here at 2 o'clock

FALLING HAIR

Many People Have a Simple Way of Stopping It.

It was Dr. Sangerhond, of Paris, who first discovered that dandruff and falling hair were caused by a microbe.

The remedy that kills the dandruff germ is sold in every town in America, the clean people of this country have awakened to the fact that dandruff is unnecessary; that falling hair and itching scalp can be quickly stopped, and that people who use Parisian Sage will never grow bald.

To every reader of the Bulletin who wishes to eradicate disgusting dandruff, stop falling hair, and have an immaculately clean scalp, free from itching, we make this offer:

Parisian Sage does not banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks. Parisian Sage is sold by druggists everywhere for 50 cents a large bottle. It is an ideal, daintily perfumed hair dressing, free from grease and stickiness, and will cause hair to grow luxuriant and lustrous. Sold and guaranteed by Lee & Osgood Co., 100 Broadway, New York.

Mrs. Francis Koel, 4 W. Jesmanus Street, St. Paul, Minn., on Nov. 16, 1909, wrote: "I have used several hair tonics, but there is none that can compare with Parisian Sage. It cured my falling hair and dandruff, and it does not only cure those troubles, but is the best hair grower in the world."