NEW ZEALAND VISITOR

Being Entertained by Hartford Relatives—Something About His Native Country.

Hugh Christie of No. 23 Irving street, Hartford, is entertaining at his home his nephew, Hugh Christie, of Whangarei, New Zealand, it being the first visit of the New Zealander to this country, says the Courant. In New Zealand Mr. Christie is a prosperous farmer, and in April of this year, when there came a slump in the Australian timber trade, he was obliged to leave his home and come to the United States, where he is now living in Hartford.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured. If you cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear, there is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by restoring the inflamed membrane of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed, it causes the eardrum to become tight and the hearing is lost. It is entirely closed deafness, the result of inflammation, and which, if not taken out in time, will be permanent. The purpose of a life should be to be true, upright and noble, with love to those about us, and sympathy with God.
