WHAT IS GOING ON TONIGHT

Vaudeville and moving pictures at Polli's Vaudeville and motion pictures at the Auditorium. Dahlia Show at the Buckingham Memorial.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Norwich Art school opens Tuesday, Sept. 27th, at 9 a. m. See adv.

THE AUDITORIUM

All anyone wishing a good laugh will have to do to satisfy their desire is to visit the Auditorium today and see The Laughing Horse, which closes its engagement here tonight. Monday morning will bring an entirely new bill to this popular house, headed by the New York Vaudeville, the greatest aggregation of dancing girls. This act is pretty, original and a sure-fire hit and owing to its being the largest act which ever played the house and the expense and difficulty in securing it, the usual single will be omitted from the bill and only three acts will be used. A Partner Wanted is a very amusing sketch presented by Williams & Stevens, a clever team, who will hold the closest attention of their audience during the fifteen minutes they have the stage. Whitney & Bell, an eccentric comedy singing and talking duo, will hand over some new and original stuff which everyone will get. The motion pictures are clear, steady and all of good subjects.

AT POLLI'S.

The show at Polli's still continues to please the large audiences that are attending this popular playhouse. The management has arranged to present one of the biggest vaudeville shows of the season next week. Headlined on this bill are Conlin, Steele & Carr, who are seen in bits of musical comedy. This is a sure-fire here they play. Farnum & Delmore offer a rough house act entitled "John Fitt Spasm," that is laugh from start to finish. The Four De Champs, four children in a character comedy, appeals to both young and old, while Lynch & Zeller are seen in a very difficult routine of club juggling. A comedy sketch that will carry off high honors is Tell Barry & Co. The management has arranged a number of special nights for next week. Tuesday night will be the Taftville night, when about 500 residents of that district will attend this theater in a body accompanied by a band. It will be one of the biggest nights Norwich has seen for some time. Odd Fellowship will hold fall away at this theater on Wednesday evening. Tickets for this night may be obtained from any member of Canton Oneco or at the box office. Reid & Hughes have arranged to present management to give their employes an outing at this theater on Thursday night while Porteous & Mitchell have made the same arrangements for Friday night. Get in line now and follow the crowds to Polli's and you will not be lonesome.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Norwich readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. Catherine Hogan, 22 Hickory Street, Norwich, Conn., says: "For some time I was severely troubled by kidney complaint. I had pains and aches across my back and an indescribable feeling of weakness all through my body. I tried numerous remedies but did not obtain relief. I was finally told about Doan's Kidney Pills and procuring a supply from N. D. Sevin & Son's drug store I took them according to directions. They helped me from the first and continued use brought about a complete cure. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills very highly.

(From statement given April 12th, 1906.)

Doan's Kidney Pills Cure Permanently

On August 25th, 1908, Mrs. Hogan said: "I take pleasure in confirming the statement I gave in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills over two years ago. Practically speaking, I have had no trouble from my back or kidneys since using this remedy. Many people have called upon me to ascertain if my statement were true, and I have always convinced them of its correctness."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

POETRY.

IF I SHOULD DIE TONIGHT.

If I should die tonight,
My friends would look upon my quiet face,
Before they laid it in its resting place,
And deem that death had left it almost fair.
And laying snow-white flowers against my hair,
Would sigh about it down with tearful tenderness,
And fold my hands with lingering care.
"Poor hands, so empty and so cold tonight!"

IF I SHOULD DIE TONIGHT.

If I should die tonight,
My friend would call to mind with loving thought,
Some kindly deeds the icy hands had wrought,
Some gentle words the frozen lips had said;
Errands on which the willing feet had sped;
The memory of my selfishness and pride
My harsh words would all be put aside,
And so I should be loved and mourned and missed.

IF I SHOULD DIE TONIGHT.

If I should die tonight,
Even near the grave would turn once more to me,
Recalling other days remorsefully,
The eyes that chill me with averted glance
Would look upon me as of yore, perchance
And soften in the old familiar way,
For who could war with dumb unconscious clay?

IF I SHOULD DIE TONIGHT.

Oh friends, I pray tonight,
Keep not your kisses for my dead cold brow,
The way is lonely, let me feel them now,
Think gently of me; I am traveling now;
My faltering feet are pierced
