CONSPICUOUS MODELS.

Elegant Hats Noted at Friday's Openings—Many Beautiful Ones Bought on Sight.

Hat buyers were out in crowds on Friday and all the beautiful models so effectively displayed came in for their share of admiration, many being bought on first sight.

Conspicuous among those offered was a cute little auto bonnet in corded green satin, with visor of velvet in a leather shade, side rosettes and ties of Louisiana to match the bonnet.

A large hat with Persian top was trimmed with eight graceful ostrich plumes in black.

In mushroom shape, a big, striking satin model had black velvet facing and for trimming a black and white striped ribbon butterfly bow.

Green mirror velvet was employed in making a turban, trimmed with jeweled band and shaded green wings.

A small black velvet hat had a modish breast crown in black with blue and white paradise bird as a smart finish.

Nothing could be lovelier than a white cony turban, with trim of black velvet, old gold cloth algrette with black rat-tail pendants.

Equally effective was a taupe panne mushroom, faced with blue, its adornment old blue satin ribbon and roses of taupe.

Every woman will want to see these elegant hats while the choicest are displayed.

SECOND CHURCH 150 YEARS OLD

Anniversary Will Be Celebrated Sunday With Special Services, Morning and Evening and Reunion Monday Evening.

The one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the Second Congregational church fell on July 24, but because of the warm weather it was decided to hold the celebration September 25 and 26, and the committee in charge of the affair, including Joseph D. Haviland, Mrs. J. M. Huntington, Mrs. Lucy A. Forbes, and Mrs. J. M. Huntington, have perfected all the details and arranged a programme for the two days. The programme for the morning service will be as follows:

Organ prelude—Meditation, DuBois Call to Worship. Chant—Judith 10. Invocation and the Lord's Prayer. Responsive Reading. Anthem—The Lord Hath Done Great Things. Murphy. Prayer. Offertory and Prayer of Consecration. Anthem—Faith Supreme, Shelley. Scripture lesson—Selections from Psalms 44 and 78. Hymn No. 48. Sermon—Theme, The Epic of the Church, Rev. Charles H. Ricketts, 127:1. Anniversary Hymn—tune, Duke Street. The Doxology.

Organ postlude. Paul Sachs. The anniversary hymn, which is to be sung at this service, was written especially for the occasion by John Troland, a member of the church.

Evening Programme. The programme for the evening service is as follows: Organ prelude—La Priere, Thayer. Anthem—O Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem, Knox. Scripture lesson—Isaiah 67:10, 62:12. Hymn—No. 332. Greetings from the Elder Daughter—The Broadway Congregational Church, Rev. Edward S. Cory, 187:1. Greeting from the Younger Daughter—The Park Congregational Church, Rev. Samuel H. Howe, D.D., Solo—A Thousand Shall Fall by Thy Side, Coombs. Walter F. Lester. Greeting from the City—Rev. Charles H. Ricketts. Greeting from the Town—Rev. George H. Ewing. Prayer—Rev. Leveyn Pratt, D.D. Hymn—No. 234. Benediction. Organ postlude in D. Harris.

The evening service will be a union one for all the Congregational churches of the city and town and all the pastors will take part.

At noon the Sunday school will devote the hour to exercises in honor of the anniversary, with short addresses by former superintendents and special music.

At 6:30 the Y. P. S. C. E. has arranged an special feature to have brief sketches, illustrated by photographs of present and past members of the Second church, to be given by the Y. P. S. C. E. members.

For Monday evening the Church Improvement society has assisted the improvement committee and arranged for a reunion of all the members and friends of the church in the church parlors to meet at 7 o'clock.

There will be attractive music, a modest exhibit of some of the interesting antiques of the church and abundant opportunity for the renewing of old acquaintances and deepening new friendships.

An outline of the history of the church, now organized as the Church of Christ in Chelsea, follows:

The sixth or Chelsea Ecclesiastical society was organized November 29, 1751. Hised ministers conducted the services, but there was no church building. The supplies were Elijah Lathrop, 1751; John Curtis, 1752-1754; Ebenezer Cheever, 1755-1757.

The Church of Christ in Chelsea was organized July 24, 1760, with six charter members, and Trapp's tavern in Shetucket street was used, after which a church was built in Main street, in 1768. Rev. Nathaniel Whitaker was pastor from 1760 to 1769. He was installed in February, 1761, and accompanied Samson Occum to England in behalf of Indian education.

Interest in the revolutionary war overshadowed local religious matters subsequently, and many members, including the minister, enlisted, and there were large financial contributions to the cause of freedom. Rev. Ephraim Johnson was installed in October, 1773, and remained until 1778, served as chaplain in the war.

Then followed a period of general decline, with no settled pastors. Young theological students served as pulpit supplies from 1778 to 1787, the supplies being Nathaniel Niles, David Austin, Zebulon Ely.

The church was burned in 1793, and the Episcopal church was used, after which the present site was purchased. The building dedicated in 1795, and Rev. William S. Palmer was installed as pastor in May, 1787, and dismissed in July, 1811.

There were two divisions over the dismissal of Mr. King, but these were healed and harmony restored by the judicious Hooker. The Foreign Missionary society of Norwich was formed and the Sunday school was started in 1815. Rev. Asahel Hooker was installed as pastor in January, 1812, and the third service building was burned in 1829. Several members were transferred to the new church at the Park Congregational church in 1827.

Rev. James Dickinson was installed in April, 1832, and he was dismissed in August, 1834, to go to the foreign field. During his two years many new members were added and a general religious awakening took place. Sixty members were given to the organization of the Greeneville Congregational church in 1832.

During the pastorate of Dr. Alvin Bond, who was installed in May, 1836, and dismissed in April, 1844, 78 members were dismissed to form the Broadway Congregational church in 1842. The second church building was burned in 1844, when the Central Baptist church was used. The present building was dedicated in 1846.

Rev. Malcolm Mott, D.D., was installed in December, 1844, and dismissed in April, 1874. The Bred beneficent fund of $20,000 was established in 1871 and 110 members of the church were given, he was dismissed to form the Park Congregational church in 1874.

Rev. William S. Palmer was installed as pastor in September, 1874, and dismissed in October, 1883. During his pastorate there was notable reconstruction of the numerically weak church and the Y. P. S. C. E. was organized. The church was reorganized and the Samuel C. Morgan beneficent fund of $23,000 was established.

Rev. Leonard W. Bacon served as a supply from 1880 to 1883, who was an era of brilliant preaching and pastoral friendship.

During the pastorate of Rev. Cornelius W. Moore from June, 1883, to September, 1892, there was a steady growth of the church organization, a complete renovation of the building, and gifts of the present organ, and members of the church were commissioned in home and foreign fields.

The pastorate of Rev. Dr. L. L. West, from January, 1893, to November, 1899, was a period of fine and permanent spiritual growth, accompanied by renewed kindling of vision and consecration and effort. It was a worthy building on the great foundation of the past.

The present pastor, Rev. Herbert J. Wyckoff, was installed in April of this year.

Water Board Preparing For Artesian Wells. Superintendent Corkery Instructed to Investigate the Method—Reservoir Is Now 223 Inches Down.

At a meeting of the board of water commissioners on Thursday evening, it was voted that there remains about $5,000,000 gallons therein, or about forty days' supply. The two Venturi meters show a registration of 58,539,000 and 24,470,000 gallons, respectively, having left the reservoir during the past 58 days.

It is possible that if it is decided to drive wells, and such a decision will probably be reached at the water board meeting next week, that they will be driven in places where there is no water alongside the brook, where in 1900 three wells were driven to the depth of 25 feet and each well gave 45 gallons a minute. After getting down that far there came copious rains and the basin was flooded, and the work had to be abandoned.

Others to appear were Rev. H. C. Wright, the pastor, Charles M. Cole of Newport, R. I., James L. Case, Miss Alice M. Dean and Frank L. Arnold.

Bible School Teachers. Conference for Those at Central Baptist Church and Preston Chapel.

A supper and conference for the teachers of the Central Baptist Bible school and the Preston chapel school was held Friday evening, beginning at 6:30, when supper was served in the Preston chapel. An inviting menu was served under the direction of Mrs. W. W. Beckwith and a corps of assistants. After the supper Miss Susan Shepard, B. Palmer presided, addressing the teachers briefly upon the outlook for the coming months, and introducing the speaker of the evening, who was Rev. Dr. George W. Righter of the First Baptist church, Westley. Dr. Righter was listened to with close attention during his talk upon the importance of the Teacher, in which he made numerous suggestions of value. Others to appear were Rev. H. C. Wright, the pastor, Charles M. Cole of Newport, R. I., James L. Case, Miss Alice M. Dean and Frank L. Arnold.

Probate Convention Today. The probate convention of the republicans of the town of the district will be held here at noon in the town hall today. There will be a good sized attendance, but no contest will be on, as Judge Ayling will have no opposition for the office which he has filed so satisfactorily.

CURE FOR ECZEMA.

Discovery That Cures Pimples, Eczema and All Skin Troubles.

If you are troubled with pimples, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, blotches, freckles or other skin disease or blemish, now is the time to cure it with Hokara.

This pure and simple skin food is being introduced in Norwich by The Lee & Osgood Co., at the low price of 25c for a liberal sized jar, and in the past few weeks they have sold hundreds of treatments.

It contains no grease or acids, is clean to use and is a true food and nourishment for the skin, cleansing and clearing it in every pore, making it soft, white and beautiful.

If Hokara does not do even more than is claimed for it and give perfect satisfaction return the empty jar to The Lee & Osgood Co. and they will refund your money. If you have any skin trouble, you cannot spend 25c to better advantage than for a jar of this skin food. Large size 50c.

The Gratitude of Elderly People goes out to whatever helps give them ease, comfort and strength. Foley Kidney Pills cure kidney and bladder diseases promptly and give comfort and relief to elderly people. Lee & Osgood Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Huntington Hyde and daughter, Mary, are with Mr. Hyde's parents on Washington street for a few days' stay, on their way from a summer at Edgerton, Mass., to their home in New York.

Handsome Apples. In the window of Cranston & Co's store on Main street are displayed four baskets of the finest apples of the variety on Laurel Hill which show what can be done in apple culture rightly directed. They are immense and as handsome as they are big, for they are without blemish, the result of spraying his trees, which Mr. Purvis tried this year for the first time. Some of the fruit measured over fifteen inches in circumference, while before spraying Mr. Purvis had never been able to get any sort of a crop.
