LOCAL ITALIANS HAVE COLUMBUS CELEBRATION. Parade of Giuseppe Garibaldi Society Headed by Tubbs' Band.

Columbus day on Wednesday, the first time Oct. 12 has been a legal holiday in Connecticut, was not allowed to pass without recognition by the Italian community, observing it with a parade of the Giuseppe Garibaldi society, of which Bruno Pedace is president.

The parade in the afternoon with about forty men in line, starting from Carpenters' hall in the Lucas block, headed by Tubbs' band. The line of march was to the West Side, returning along Main street and up Broadway to Rockwell street, through Rockwell street, Franklin street and Franklin street to Franklin square and then to Greenville and back to the hall.

At the end of the parade they stood for a short time in Shetucket street in front of the Lucas building, where Michael Capurini made an address upon the history of the Italian people, the royal Italian air. An address was also made by President Bruno Pedace when the society assembled in the hall after the parade.

The paraders wore red tanned shirts, red caps, gray trousers and carried swords. They carried the Italian and American flags and a banner with the motto, "The Italian people are united." It is their intention to make the celebration on a larger scale next year with a parade and speakers from out of town.

DO NOT WORRY It Makes Wrinkles.

Worry over ill-health does you less good, and merely causes wrinkles, that make you look older than you are.

If you are sick, don't worry, but go to work to make yourself well. To get this we repeat the words of thousands of other former sufferers from womanly ills, similar to yours, when we say, take Viburn-O.

It is a wonderful female remedy, as you will admit if you try it. Directions for its use are printed in every bottle. Price 75c at drugists. FRANCO-GERMAN CHEMICAL CO., 106 West 12th Street, New York. oct13d are the two great creators of energy. You can get along without Scott's Emulsion if you have enough sunshine, but for the millions who don't get much sunshine, Scott's Emulsion is absolutely necessary. You can always get Scott's Emulsion. Get sunshine, too, whenever you can.

day. Games were played and a team hunt enjoyed by the children, Inez Clifford being the most; and was awarded the first, and Florence Clifford received a performing clown for having found the best. The table, loaded with good things, was greeted with joy. Mamma Duck held a complimentary place at the center, holding in her mouth red ribbon, at the end of which were tied small duckings, which each guest received as a souvenir. The birthday cake with its lighted candles bore upon an attractive feature. Little Miss Harriet proved a charming hostess and received many pretty gifts. At six o'clock the little guests departed, each wishing Miss Harriet many more pleasant anniversaries. Among those present were Eleanor Johnson Cousins, Ruth Bartley, Helen McMullen, Anne and Florence Clifford, Avis Tracy Cobb, Gladys and Mildred Newbury and Ada Russell, and Master William Russell Stanton of New London. Mrs. Newbury was assisted in entertaining the children by her sister, Mrs. William R. Stanton of New London, who is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Newbury.
