

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

Men's and Women's Handkerchiefs

Our new stock of Men's and Women's Linen Handkerchiefs is very attractive. There is a large collection including fine Irish Linen Handkerchiefs, hemstitched, embroidered and some made of cross-bar linen, which are very dainty. Some very elaborate with beautiful corner designs and fancy colored borders.

Men's Plain Linen. Hemstitched Handkerchiefs, 5c, 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c and 20c each.

Men's Linen. Hemstitched Handkerchiefs with initial, 12 1/2c, 20c and 50c each.

Men's White Japanese Silk Handkerchiefs, plain, hemstitched, with initial, 50c each.

Men's Mercerized, Colored Border Handkerchiefs, 10c each, three for 25c.

Men's Extra Size Linen Handkerchiefs, with one-quarter and one-half inch hemmed border, 50c each.

Ladies' Handkerchiefs Ladies' Linen Handkerchiefs. In plain linen, Irish linen, hemmed, hemstitched, embroidered or scalloped, some made of cross-bar, very elaborate—From the plain 3c Handkerchiefs up to 5c, 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c, 35c, 40c, 50c and $2.00 each.

Ladies' Initial Handkerchiefs, 12 1/2c to 25c each.

Fancy Pillow Handkerchiefs in attractive colors, 10c each, three for 25c.

Visit our Circulating Library and get the latest books. We rent them at 2c a day.

All the latest Postal Cards are here, including Thanksgiving Cards.

Time to think of your Magazine subscription. Have it here. Will attend to it.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO. Agents Ladies' Home Journal Paper Patterns.

Times Are a Trifle Hard, But Cheer Up, for You Can Get Money by calling at the Willimantic Loan Company, 15 Union Street.

Terms strictly confidential. NEW PIANOS As low as - - $185. Write for Catalogue.

WATKINS BROS., 227 Asylum street, Hartford. Main and School Sts., Manchester. 852 Main Street, Willimantic.

ELMORE & SHEPARD, (Successors to Sessions & Elmore) Embalmers and Funeral Directors, 60-62 North Street, LADY ASSISTANT. Telephone connection.

A. R. BURNHAM, Agent. Manufacturer of different styles of Light Carriages and Wagons, Harness, Carriages and Wagons for sale. Carriage and Wagon Repairing of all kinds. Repository and shops 180 Valley Street. Horse Shoeing. Tel connection.

HIRAM N. FENN, UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER, 43 Church St., Willimantic, Ct. Telephone connection. Ladys Assistant.

For Artistic Wall Papers, send to E. MAFFITT & CO., 37 Church Street. We will be pleased to estimate on painting or decorating and will guarantee both work and price. Telephone connection. nov25d

CALL AND SEE THE 1911 Overland Models ERNEST P. CHESBRO, 1029 Main St., oct29d Willimantic, Conn.

"Going Out of the Clothing Business" Mechanics' Dep't. Store OUTFITTERS TO ALL. nov14d

WHEN you want to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

Willimantic, Danies and Putnam

WILLIMANTIC Surprise Party.

Friday evening about fifty of Miss Florence Rockwood's friends gave her a pleasant surprise at her home in Franklin. Among those present were young people from Lebanon, South Windham, Willimantic, Colchester and Franklin. Music was enjoyed the first part of the evening. Then followed the amusing game of donkey. Allan Hoxie received first prize, Chris Foster second and Miss Mae McGowan the consolation prize. Other games were played. The hostess served sandwiches, cake and coffee. Then Miss Hoffman kindly took charge of the music for dancing.

DANIELSON Supt. A. S. Ames to Reside in the Borough—$125 for South Killingly Church—Funeral of H. Theodore Stearns—Miss Mary Moran's Death.

The case of the state vs. Eli Dagenhas is set down for a hearing in the town court this (Monday) morning at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Lisa K. Fuller of Scotland, county president of the W. C. T. U., spoke before the Congregational Sunday school in Brooklyn Sunday. The day was observed as World's Temperance Sunday.

Albert S. Ames, the new supervisor of schools for Killingly and Brooklyn, will make his home in Danielson. He will probably have an office in the graded school on School street.

Fell from Load of Hay. Irving Chapman of Brooklyn has been confined to his home by injuries received when he fell from a load of hay.

Miss Roberta Horton of the high school faculty spent Sunday at her home in Pawtucket.

To Address Woman's Auxiliary. Mrs. John Porter of Attaria will speak at a meeting of the Woman's auxiliary of the Foreign Board of Missions to be held in the vestry tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon.

Juvenile Grand Officers Installed. The newly elected officers of Killingly Juvenile Grand were installed by Deputy N. C. Cleveland at a meeting held in their rooms in the Wood building on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Emma L. Day will have the members of the Ladies' Reading circle at her home for a meeting this (Monday) afternoon. George Sand will be the author studied.

Christmas toys in this advanced year are being more and more developed to a degree so remarkable as to cause comment and hold the attention of many of the "boys." An electrically driven locomotive drawing a train of diminutive sleepers over a real track and past freight and passenger stations are being shown in Danielson. This outfit costs about $40.

Progress on New Road. Work on the new road at Attawansic is being steadily advanced. A number of teams and men have been employed there for some time. This is to be a graded gravel road and the most important improvement in the section where there is a great amount of heavy teaming.

Occidental Development Company Stockholders Meet. The local stockholders in what was originally known as the Occidental Development company a corporation incorporated in Colorado, are considering the future of the company. A meeting was recently held here by them. E. L. Palmer, formerly of Danielson was at one time president of the company. Much of the stock of the corporation has been held here and a considerable amount is still owned, it is said.

AMOUNT TO $125. Collection and Pledges for Congregational Church in South Killingly. Charles T. Preston of Danielson has been named treasurer of a fund that is to be contributed to by persons interested in the welfare of the Congregational church of South Killingly. The movement was inaugurated at the recent Old Home day observance at the church. Thirty-four dollars were pledged at that time. The collection and pledges made since that time amount to $125.

FUNERAL. H. Theodore Stearns. Funeral services for H. Theodore Stearns were held in Wood's undertaking parlors at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. Ralph S. Cushman of the Methodist church officiating. A number of relatives, friends and a delegation from McGregor post, G. A. R., and Edward Anderson camp, Sons of representing the two organizations

H It's Wall Papers In all the latest designs that you desire, come here. Our large assortment and moderate prices will win you. Our stock of ready mixed Paints and painters' supplies are complete.

E. B. HOLMES, 72 Church Street, Willimantic, LOUIS PHANEUF Dealer in LADIES' AND MEN'S FURNISHINGS, DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS, HAT GOODS A SPECIALTY, 833 Main Street.

THERE IS NOT A HOME In Conn. that good music would not make happier. There is not a boy or girl in the state whose education is complete without some knowledge of music. A disc in the home is the first step toward a better and more enjoyable life. Buy your records and pay attention to the quality of the music. Write us today or call at once.

The A. C. Andrew Music Co. 804-806 Main Street, Willimantic, Ct.

E. L. PRINCE, Ice Cream and Confectionery 724 Main St., Willimantic, Conn.

Dr. F. C. JACKSON—Dentist Painless Extracting and Filling a Specialty 752 Main Street, Willimantic, Telephone. June

A nice variety of Fresh Fish; also Scallops, Oysters and Clams, at STRONG'S FISH MARKET, 28 North St. oct29d

JAMES HARRIES PERFUMES, TOILET ARTICLES, STATIONERY, "Ye Post Card Shop," 801 Main Street, Willimantic, June

Veterans, were present. The bearers, named, were William Whitman, Courtland Greene, Ellsworth C. Babson, Emory Public, William C. Beach, Dr. F. W. Darnier. Burial was in Westfield cemetery.

Hunters Have Big Day. Gurdon Withey, at the head of a party of four men, went out on the most successful hunt that has been reported this fall, near the close of the past week. In the country in the eastern part of the town they brought down twenty-two rabbits, two woodcock and a gray squirrel. This is the largest number of pieces of game brought in by local parties in a day during the present season.

OBITUARY. Miss Mary Moran. Miss Mary Moran, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Moran, who live on the Hutchins place in East Brooklyn, died Saturday afternoon after being at home only a few days. Miss Moran was a student at Killingly High school and her death came as a sad shock to all who knew her.

Miss Moran's husband, besides her father and mother, five younger sisters and brothers.

Suffers Shock While Attending High Mass. Peter Ganache of the West Side suffered a shock while attending the high mass at St. James' church Sunday morning. He was removed to his home in a partly conscious condition, but was reported as resting easier Sunday night.

Death of Mrs. Caroline Godreau. Mrs. Caroline Godreau, 54, died at her home on the West Side, Saturday morning. Mrs. Godreau had been in poor health for about twenty years. She leaves her husband and several children.

PUTNAM William P. Warren Named as Deputy Registrar of Voters—Oyster Supper for Eastford Republicans—Congregational Conference to Open Tuesday.

Herman G. Carver, republican registrar-elect of voters, has named William P. Warren as the man who will be his deputy registrar.

Editor H. F. Wilder, master of Putnam grange, will attend the sessions of the National grange at Atlantic City this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Holbrook were at Woodstock Sunday, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George C. Holbrook.

Mrs. A. I. Morse of Sunnyside will have the ladies of the Grange at her home for a sewing meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Temperance Crusade the Theme. Newton A. Ballard was leader of the E. Y. P. E. crusade in the War Against the Saloon was the topic. Milton G. Carver of Hopkiss was at his home in Putnam over Sunday.

Dr. Hiram Simmons of Worcester is to meet the members of the Pilgrims and Queens of Avillon in this city Friday and tell them about the working of the organization in Worcester.

Oyster Supper to Eastford Constituents. J. M. Tatem, elected republican representative from Eastford last Tuesday, gave a oyster supper at the home of the event on Saturday evening in the chapel of the Congregational church at that place.

Representative Tatem is a son of James B. Tatem of this city.

CANDIDATES ALERT. Want to Be Doorkeepers and Messengers in Next Legislature. Candidates for appointment as doorkeepers and messengers from this county in the next legislature are appearing.

John Boles of Willimantic has announced himself as a candidate for messenger in the senate, which is considered the Twenty-ninth district this session.

F. M. Wright of Ashford, doorkeeper in the senate during the last session, and J. J. Young of Eastford are out for appointment as messengers in the house.

Officers of Knights of King Arthur. Following are the newly elected officers of the Knights of King Arthur: Ernest Lewis, king; Kenneth Sharpe, squire; William Fuller, master of ceremonies; Walter Chaffee, squire; Malcolm Willey, William Martens, heralds.

DRIVER NOT TO BLAME. Walter Chaffee, 9, son of Mrs. Herbert Chaffee, was knocked down by a touring car owned by a Thompson party while driving in the city near the Dam tavern Saturday. The car was being run slowly at the time and the horn was taken into the car and brought to the office of Dr. F. A. Morrell and afterwards to the Day Kimball hospital. The boy was taken home. He suffered only from bruises and shock. From such reports of the happening as could be obtained it is not evident that the driver of the car was to blame.

CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE To Convene for Organization on Tuesday Afternoon. The state conference of Congregational churches will convene for optional organization in the Congregational church here Tuesday afternoon, the first session opening at 1 o'clock. The arrangements for the entertainment of the delegates are practically completed. C. E. Child, Mrs. F. J. Daniels and Mrs. Sargent are the members of the assignment committee. Many of the delegates will be entertained in local homes.

News in General. The Hon. S. H. Stratford, member of the incoming Connecticut senate was overlooked when mention was made in Saturday's Bulletin of the men in the legislature whose names begin with J.

Putnam experienced what might be termed a sun snow flurry Saturday afternoon—several of them in fact. The snow melted down from patches of storm clouds, while other parts of the sky were clear.

Mrs. Michael Lynch and daughter, Miss Margaret Lynch, have returned from a visit in Boston.

Mrs. Hiram G. Carver visited in Worcester Saturday.

In the superior court, Judge Winthrop Jones, Frank Trippe of South Woodstock has been granted a divorce from Mary Trippe, now of Worcester.

Wanted—A competent girl to do general housework. Apply Mrs. A. W. Hathaway, 20 Fremont street, Putnam, Tel. 182-2—adv.

AUTO ACCIDENT. Machine Plunges Down Embankment. Mrs. George Jacques of Woodstock Probably Fatally Injured. A plunge backward down a 35 foot embankment and onto the tracks of the Middle division of the N. Y. N. H. & H. road in an automobile that is a crumpled wreck was a horror which five Woonsocket people experienced at Mechanicsville, Sunday noon. All but one, a Mrs. George Jacques, 40 years of age, escaped with minor injuries. She has a fractured skull, and at the Day-Kimball hospital Sunday night her name was on the "dangerous list" with little chance that she will recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Couture, Mrs. Henry Jacques and Christopher Carpenter, the latter the chauffeur, were the other members of the party. Mrs. Henry Jacques may be internally injured. She is now under the care of a physician at the home of her sister, in Dayville. Mr. and Mrs. Couture escaped with a severe shaking up, but without a scratch, and the chauffeurs' injury was slight.

The latter considered it a miracle that the whole party was not killed, and that the injured were so well recovered. The latter considered it a miracle that the whole party was not killed, and that the injured were so well recovered.

repaired at the shops at Newport. They will probably be used in another boat. Fined in Borough Court. Peter Deveau of Mystic, who was charged with drunkenness was fined $2 and costs, amounting to $15.25, and being unable to pay he was committed to jail.

Colorado Bishops Confirm Class. Sunday morning the Rt. Rev. Benjamin Brewster, a brother of Bishop Chauncey R. Brewster, confirmed a class of six at the morning service at Calvary Episcopal church here. Bishop Brewster who is from western Colorado, spoke impressively to the class. He also delivered a most eloquent sermon. A large congregation attended the service.

MYSTIC Funeral of Horace T. Knight—Committee on New Fire Engine to Report—Confirmation at St. Mark's—Antiques Auctioned.

The funeral of Horace T. Knight was held on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock from his home on the Lantern Hill road, and was largely attended. Burial was in Elm Grove cemetery. He was the son of William and Eunice Main Knight and was 88 years of age. He was well known in Mystic, where he has many relatives. He leaves a widow and son.

Committee to Report. The executive committee—(Clinton Allen, Allen Avery and Frank W. Battalio) have called a special meeting for Thursday night to listen to the report of the special committee on the gasoline fire engine and to take some action on such report. The citizens will be asked to appropriate $2,500 for such engine, name special committee to buy it, lay special tax to pay loan necessary to insure the buying of the engine.

Birthday Celebrated. Miss Vivian Mabel Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams, celebrated her sixth birthday at her home on Saturday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock by entertaining 16 little friends at a birthday party. Games were played, and a delicious supper was served. Miss Williams received many gifts.

Class Confirmed at St. Mark's. St. Mark's Episcopal church was well filled Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock when the rite of confirmation was conferred on a class of candidates by Bishop Edwin Brewster of Colorado. Brother of Bishop Chauncey Brewster of the diocese. Special music was rendered at this service.

Address on Holy Land. At the Congregational church at 4:30 o'clock Rev. Dr. E. H. Jones of New London had charge and gave an address on the Holy Land. George Dunham of Stonington and Mrs. J. E. Jones, Newbury sang solos very acceptably.

Opening of Basketball Season. The first game of the basketball season will be played this week. A new arena has been provided for the sport in the Patrick's hall. Manager Walter J. Shea has got his team together, which are: Kippers, G. E. R. Fitzpatrick, H. F. McLean, W. Wilcox and Larkham Jr. James Deutsch of Stonington will be referee.

Miss Gately's Goods Sold at Auction. The auction of the goods of Miss Della Gately, who was committed to the asylum at the Westford, Newbury, was held on Saturday afternoon. A large crowd of antique collectors were present to bid on the goods, which were sold for little or nothing.

Closing Hour 11 p. m. A petition has been circulated around the village to have the licensed saloons in the town of Stonington. The right to keep their places of business open until 11 o'clock, as is the custom in all the towns and cities around here.

Village Varieties. Mr. and Mrs. Peleg Briggs of Providence are the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manning Miner. William Collins has left for Willimantic, where he has secured employment.

Carol Biven has returned to West Nyack, N. Y., after a visit with his sister, Mrs. Conrad Biven. Miss Ella Harris Wheeler is visiting in Boston.

Leon Saunders of Essex is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Collins has left for Willimantic, where he has secured employment.

William Douglas has left for Columbus, Ohio, for a two weeks' trip. Mr. and Mrs. J. McLaughlin is visiting relative in Stamford.

CHOCOWASSETT Soldiers Won, 17 to 13. Saturday afternoon a game of ball was played by the Soldiers of the town of the borough, the Choctaws and the Stars, the battery for the former won, 17 to 13. The game was played on the field near the latter Edward Gilmore and Louis Rose. The game was a spirited one, the score being 17 to 13 in favor of the Choctaws.

Schooner Laura Hatch, from New York, heavily laden, bound east, lay in the harbor over Sunday owing to the wind and sea.

FRIDAY EVENING The Stonington basketball team played the first game of the season with the Westerly Fifth company. A team, in the armory. The work done was excellent and although the home team was defeated by a score of 24 to 20, Manager Halley felt that the team was well prepared for the latter Edward Gilmore and Louis Rose. The game was a spirited one, the score being 17 to 13 in favor of the Choctaws.

Following is the lineup: Stonington—Graham Jr., Shackley Jr., Newham, Gilmore Jr., McKee Jr., Fifth company—Atkins, Allen, Marland, C. Steinhouse Jr., O'Connell Jr. Closing Hour 11 P. M.

At a special meeting of the warden and burgesses held Friday evening to consider the petition of the owners of this borough asking that they be permitted to keep their places of business open until 11 p. m., but in view of the fact that the board of selectmen have recently decided to permit those in the borough the same privilege.

Hearing on Mallaby Estate. Probate proceedings were held before Attorney W. A. Bred in the probate court a commission issued out of the superior court of the county of New York, dated the 12th day of August, 1910, in the matter of the estate of John Mallaby, deceased, who was a resident of New York, plaintiff, and Fanny Wood et al., for the purpose of settling the question of the place of burial of the said John Mallaby, deceased. The hearing was held at the residence of Rev. Thomas Mallaby, who was rector of Calvary church of the borough, on the 12th day of August, 1910. Mrs. Mallaby died in 1878, and her property, amounting to $150,000, was used in the settlement of the estate. The trust having terminated, the heirs at law, who were represented at the hearing by counsel from New York, claimed the property. The evidence taken will be used in the trial, which will be held in New York. Witnesses were called from the various church parishes and other witnesses. The lawyers present were C. S. Guthrie, T. G. Froeseau and J. W. Tucker, all of New York, and C. E. Hickey of New London.

Changes on the Bunker Hill. On Saturday the steamer Bunker Hill, which is moored at the New England wharf, was moved to the new wharf, and was relieved of its two blasting machines and its hoisting pumps, to be repaired at the shops at Newport. They will probably be used in another boat. Fined in Borough Court. Peter Deveau of Mystic, who was charged with drunkenness was fined $2 and costs, amounting to $15.25, and being unable to pay he was committed to jail.

Colorado Bishops Confirm Class. Sunday morning the Rt. Rev. Benjamin Brewster, a brother of Bishop Chauncey R. Brewster, confirmed a class of six at the morning service at Calvary Episcopal church here. Bishop Brewster who is from western Colorado, spoke impressively to the class. He also delivered a most eloquent sermon. A large congregation attended the service.

MYSTIC Funeral of Horace T. Knight—Committee on New Fire Engine to Report—Confirmation at St. Mark's—Antiques Auctioned.

The funeral of Horace T. Knight was held on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock from his home on the Lantern Hill road, and was largely attended. Burial was in Elm Grove cemetery. He was the son of William and Eunice Main Knight and was 88 years of age. He was well known in Mystic, where he has many relatives. He leaves a widow and son.

Committee to Report. The executive committee—(Clinton Allen, Allen Avery and Frank W. Battalio) have called a special meeting for Thursday night to listen to the report of the special committee on the gasoline fire engine and to take some action on such report. The citizens will be asked to appropriate $2,500 for such engine, name special committee to buy it, lay special tax to pay loan necessary to insure the buying of the engine.

Birthday Celebrated. Miss Vivian Mabel Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams, celebrated her sixth birthday at her home on Saturday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock by entertaining 16 little friends at a birthday party. Games were played, and a delicious supper was served. Miss Williams received many gifts.

Class Confirmed at St. Mark's. St. Mark's Episcopal church was well filled Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock when the rite of confirmation was conferred on a class of candidates by Bishop Edwin Brewster of Colorado. Brother of Bishop Chauncey Brewster of the diocese. Special music was rendered at this service.

Address on Holy Land. At the Congregational church at 4:30 o'clock Rev. Dr. E. H. Jones of New London had charge and gave an address on the Holy Land. George Dunham of Stonington and Mrs. J. E. Jones, Newbury sang solos very acceptably.

Opening of Basketball Season. The first game of the basketball season will be played this week. A new arena has been provided for the sport in the Patrick's hall. Manager Walter J. Shea has got his team together, which are: Kippers, G. E. R. Fitzpatrick, H. F. McLean, W. Wilcox and Larkham Jr. James Deutsch of Stonington will be referee.

Miss Gately's Goods Sold at Auction. The auction of the goods of Miss Della Gately, who was committed to the asylum at the Westford, Newbury, was held on Saturday afternoon. A large crowd of antique collectors were present to bid on the goods, which were sold for little or nothing.

Closing Hour 11 p. m. A petition has been circulated around the village to have the licensed saloons in the town of Stonington. The right to keep their places of business open until 11 o'clock, as is the custom in all the towns and cities around here.

Village Varieties. Mr. and Mrs. Peleg Briggs of Providence are the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manning Miner. William Collins has left for Willimantic, where he has secured employment.

Carol Biven has returned to West Nyack, N. Y., after a visit with his sister, Mrs. Conrad Biven. Miss Ella Harris Wheeler is visiting in Boston.

Leon Saunders of Essex is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Collins has left for Willimantic, where he has secured employment.

William Douglas has left for Columbus, Ohio, for a two weeks' trip. Mr. and Mrs. J. McLaughlin is visiting relative in Stamford.

CHOCOWASSETT Soldiers Won, 17 to 13. Saturday afternoon a game of ball was played by the Soldiers of the town of the borough, the Choctaws and the Stars, the battery for the former won, 17 to 13. The game was played on the field near the latter Edward Gilmore and Louis Rose. The game was a spirited one, the score being 17 to 13 in favor of the Choctaws.

Schooner Laura Hatch, from New York, heavily laden, bound east, lay in the harbor over Sunday owing to the wind and sea.

FRIDAY EVENING The Stonington basketball team played the first game of the season with the Westerly Fifth company. A team, in the armory. The work done was excellent and although the home team was defeated by a score of 24 to 20, Manager Halley felt that the team was well prepared for the latter Edward Gilmore and Louis Rose. The game was a spirited one, the score being 17 to 13 in favor of the Choctaws.

Following is the lineup: Stonington—Graham Jr., Shackley Jr., Newham, Gilmore Jr., McKee Jr., Fifth company—Atkins, Allen, Marland, C. Steinhouse Jr., O'Connell Jr. Closing Hour 11 P. M.

At a special meeting of the warden and burgesses held Friday evening to consider the petition of the owners of this borough asking that they be permitted to keep their places of business open until 11 p. m., but in view of the fact that the board of selectmen have recently decided to permit those in the borough the same privilege.

Hearing on Mallaby Estate. Probate proceedings were held before Attorney W. A. Bred in the probate court a commission issued out of the superior court of the county of New York, dated the 12th day of August, 1910, in the matter of the estate of John Mallaby, deceased, who was a resident of New York, plaintiff, and Fanny Wood et al., for the purpose of settling the question of the place of burial of the said John Mallaby, deceased. The hearing was held at the residence of Rev. Thomas Mallaby, who was rector of Calvary church of the borough, on the 12th day of August, 1910. Mrs. Mallaby died in 1878, and her property, amounting to $150,000, was used in the settlement of the estate. The trust having terminated, the heirs at law, who were represented at the hearing by counsel from New York, claimed the property. The evidence taken will be used in the trial, which will be held in New York. Witnesses were called from the various church parishes and other witnesses. The lawyers present were C. S. Guthrie, T. G. Froeseau and J. W. Tucker, all of New York, and C. E. Hickey of New London.

Changes on the Bunker Hill. On Saturday the steamer Bunker Hill, which is moored at the New England wharf, was moved to the new wharf, and was relieved of its two blasting machines and its hoisting pumps, to be

"It Cured My Back" "For twenty-nine years I have been at intervals a great sufferer from rheumatism. During that time, no telling how many gallons of the various kinds of liniments and oils I have used and with but little relief. Recently, I was confined to my bed helpless. I tried Sloan's Liniment and used it with such satisfactory results that I sent for two large bottles, and I have up to this time used about half a 50 cent bottle with splendid success."—JAMES HYDE, Beebe, White Court, Ark.

Got Ease in Less Than Ten Minutes. Mr. JAMES E. ALEXANDER, of North Harpswell, Me., writes:—"I am a horseholder and subject to many strains in my back and hips which has brought on rheumatism in the sciatic nerve. I had it so bad one night when sitting in my chair, that I had to jump on my feet to get relief. I at once applied your SLOAN'S LINIMENT to the affected part and in less than ten minutes it was perfectly easy. I think it is the best of all Liniments."

Sloan's Liniment does not need any rubbing. It's a powerful penetrant. Try it for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Sprains, Chest Pains, and Sore Throat. It gives almost instant relief.

Price 25c., 50c., and $1.00 at All Dealers. Send for Sloan's Free Book on Horses. Address DR. EARL S. SLOAN, BOSTON, MASS.

COLCHESTER Building Being Remodeled—Cloak and Suit Company's Machinery Held Up on the Way to New York.

Pineus Cutler is remodeling one of the buildings which he recently purchased, and will have two stores in it. He will occupy one as a market. He is to have plate glass windows set in front, the largest in town.

Cloak and Suit Company in Trouble. The Esserman & Goldman cloak and suit factory, which has occupied the top floor of the old shoe factory, has moved their machinery to the station, and was to have shipped it to New York; but owing to the company's not having paid for their power the Electric Light Company has placed an attachment on the same and will hold it until a settlement is made.

T. Coffey of Norwich was a caller in town Saturday. William E. Baker of New Britain was the guest of his parents in Linwood avenue over Sunday.

Fred A. Smith of New Britain was the guest of relatives in town Saturday. At the Baptist church Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. B. D. Remington, took as his subject "The Great Needs of the Church—What It Is Not and What It Is." The evening service was a praise service, in charge of the pastor.

Thomas P. Kinney was in Middletown Friday. Charles Swan of East Haddam was in town recently.

Mrs. T. Swan Bathum, daughter and grandson were visiting relatives in town Saturday.

William Allen and party have returned to New Haven, after several days' hunting in town.

Harry Houston of New Haven was in town Saturday at the Academy building, giving instruction in writing to the teachers here and from Hartford. Mr. Houston is teacher of penmanship in New Haven schools.

George Allen of Gilead was in town Saturday. Daniel W. Williams of New Britain was at his home on Broadway over Sunday.

Bobbs—When the mountain would not come to Mahomet what did he do? Stobbs suppose he went to the seashore.—Philadelphia Record.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA. TRAVELERS' DIRECTORY TO NEW YORK NORWICH LINE

The water way—the comfortable way of traveling. Steamers City of Lowell and Chesterburg—safe, staunch vessels that have every comfort and convenience for the traveler.

<