LONDON, Feb. 21.—Bill Lang, who once held the heavy weight championship of Australia, was nearly out when he was defeated by Sam Langford, an American colored pugilist, in a scheduled twenty round bout at the Olympia tonight. Langford won the sixth round, and Lang was disqualified, but the contest could not have gone much longer, as Lang was almost out when he committed the foul.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. QUIET MARKET DAY. No Signs of Extensive Bear Pressure.

New York, Feb. 21.—Most of the favorite issues on the stock exchange were heavy today, although there was no evidence of extensive bear pressure or liquidation. Traders were engaged so busily with securities of the Missouri Pacific that they gave little attention to the remainder of the list, and it dropped through neglect. Indications of recent accumulation of the Gould securities by strong interests attracted a large speculative following to them, and when the market opened the buying of these stocks and bonds, which sent them up sharply toward the close of yesterday's session, was resumed. Belief is gaining ground that the movement in connection with a broad plan which will probably not be consummated for some time. It was recalled that when George J. Gould's active retirement as chairman of the Missouri Pacific was announced the intimation was conveyed that changes in control of the Gould properties would probably follow.

The day's business was conducted largely in the morning, in which dealings in Gould securities ran into the forenoon. Missouri Pacific, Denver and Rio Grande, St. Louis Southwestern preferred, Texas and Pacific and Washab common and preferred all made substantial gains. The market as a whole fell off, although there was some improvement at midday. The influence of the holiday tomorrow was felt in the afternoon, and trading was at a low ebb. In the final hour the market became more active at lower prices than in the afternoon, with slight losses in the usually active stocks.
