Rev. J. W. Frisk supplied the pulpit on Sunday at the Voluntown Baptist church.

Mrs. Ball, widow of Dr. W. C. C. Ball of Plainfield is visiting Mrs. L. W. Combs of 118 Liberty street.—Danbury News.

Judge and Mrs. Lucius Brown have returned from an extended stay at Atlantic City. Judge Brown is much improved in health.

Dr. E. Goldman, a Yale graduate, and recently of the New Haven hospital, has been added to the list of practicing physicians of this city.

SEVENTH BIRTHDAY

Celebrated by Kenneth Vernon Thompson at Home of His Grandparents.

Master Kenneth Vernon Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Thompson, celebrated his seventh birthday on Sunday at the Voluntown Baptist church.

A dozen little guests were present for the occasion, and Master Kenneth received a number of beautiful gifts, among them being a $5 gold piece from his grandparents. He also received a number of telephone calls with birthday wishes for the day.

The dining room was prettily decorated in pink and green and a birthday cake, decorated with the initials of the birthday child, was served. The table, surrounded by seven brass candlesticks containing lighted candles, was the center of attraction.

When the little tot was gathered around the table for the refreshments, the blessing was asked and congratulatory remarks were given by Mrs. Fannie Larkie Wilder. Mrs. Thompson was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. Charlotte Worsley Yers, Mr. Fannie Larkie Wilder, Mrs. Florence Noyes, Miss Nannette Carington and Mrs. Irene Butler.

Music and games made an attractive programme for the entertainment of the children, who included Master Kenneth, and his cousins, East Norwich, Thomas Spivery, Hattie Spivery, Frances Fells, Margery Fells, Edith Jackson, Gladys Dennis, Priscilla Gunn, Edna Gunn, Martha Chin and Harry Chin.

IN THE EAST MAINE CONFERENCE

Former Pastors in This Conference Now Located There.

Rev. Charles A. Purdy, who served two pastorates in eastern Connecticut and another at Staffordville, has been carrying a superannuated relation with the Eastern Maine conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, of which conference he is now a member.

At the last session of that conference he was named as one of the official visitors to represent the conference at Drew Theological seminary, Madison, N. J., where he is now with his family during the past year.

Mr. Purdy has resided in this city, where he has many friends. It is probable that he will enter the effective ranks at the conference session at Madison, N. J., where he is now with his family during the past year.

Rev. Frank L. Hayward, A. M., who is remembered as a former much beloved Methodist pastor in this city, is now closing his first year's pastorate at Skowhegan, Me. A correspondent in the Bangor News (daily), representing that locality states that Mr. Hayward is gaining in the love of the people. Mr. Hayward is now an influential member of the Maine conference which covers the territory in the western part of the state of Maine.

Stuart E. Phelps, M. D., a very successful physician and surgeon of Sullivan, Me., is about to leave that locality and will come to Farmington, Conn., with his family about April 1 and take up his residence. Dr. Phelps will form an important addition to the medical profession of that section.

Local Clerks Leave.

John A. McHattie, who has had charge of two departments at the State store, and Edward Bergeron, of the upholstery department of that store, have resigned and taken new positions out of town. Mr. McHattie, who was in charge of the prints and tinware departments, has gone to New Britain, while Mr. Bergeron has gone to Manchester, N. H., in the interests of his health. The leaving town by both of the clerks is regretted by their many friends.

Attractive Window Display.

A novel and instructive window display is shown at the Lee & Agood Co. store as arranged by E. Lewis Young. Samples of nineteen different kinds of ribbons are exhibited, coming from every part of the world. This is shown by ribbons which lead from Boston, New York, and other cities, to the window, each ribbon being fastened to the appropriate country, to indicate the source of the drug.

Bridgeport.—Preparations for the annual regatta of the Burnum & Bailey circus are well under way at the winter grounds Saturday evening, March 13, the first installment of the big show will leave for New York, where it will appear at the public for the first performance Thursday, March 23.

RECOGNITION SERVICE

Rev. F. M. Burgess of New Haven was the Preacher at Christ Episcopal Church—Discourse on Teach Me to Do the Thing That Pleaseth Thee.

There was a good sized congregation at Christ church on Wednesday evening for the second of the midweek Lenten services in which Christ and Trinity churches unite and the services of evening prayer was read by the Rev. Mr. Burgess.

The preacher's discourse was a helpful one from the text "Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee." He told his hearers that to please God was the business of our lives, through life runs the single thread of God's will and it simplifies our lives if we aim to follow the will of God.

The prayer of the text is a fundamental and one especially suited to the Lenten season. It should be our desire simply to please him. It is his will that we should do the thing that pleases him.

ONE ARGUMENT REMAINS IN DOWNING VS. WILCOX CASE. Evidence All Completed and Case Will Go to the Jury Today.

The court of common pleas was occupied another day with the suit of Downing vs. Wilcox. The case was set to recover half the judgment in another suit the plaintiff lost, as he claims, following the boundary line set out by Mr. Wilcox when he bought trees from Mr. Wilcox and cut them. The evidence was all completed and the arguments were begun in the afternoon. Attorneys A. L. Brown, Babcock and W. H. Shields have made their arguments.

Perkins had spoken for about twenty minutes when court adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock. The case will then be completed and Judge Waller will charge the jury, after which they will have the matter to decide.

GRAND ARMY OF STATE TO CONVEAT AT HARTFORD

Annual Encampment on April 12 and 13, Marking Fiftieth Anniversary of Firing on Sumner.

Hartford has been selected for the annual encampment of the Grand Army of Connecticut of the Grand Army of the Republic and the observance of the semi-centennial of the Civil war.

The last state encampment of the G. A. R. held in Hartford was May 18-20, 1884, and the date is yet recalled as a big event, with Senator Bulkeley as department commander.

The representatives of the various posts will be the guests of Robert O. Tyler and Nathaniel Lyon posts of the G. A. R. Commander William Huntington of Robert O. Tyler post, and Commander D. P. Hall of Nathaniel Lyon post will have a large part of the preparatory work to attend to.

National Commander Coming. National Commander John E. Gillman of Boston will be present at the encampment and will deliver a speech during his stay. Commander Gillman has headed the Grand Army of the Republic and the Grand Army men of Hartford intend to make his visit a memorable one.

The state encampment was held in New London last year. The Hartford posts have been looking forward to the past few years, because one had not been held here in so long a time.

When Hartford was selected as the place for the observance of the semi-centennial, it's half a century, now since the boys in blue, with firm tread and the fires of patriotism burning within them, marched away and those who remain will not let the occasion pass without due recognition.

The ranks of the veterans are thinning rapidly, but there'll be enough gathering in Hartford on the 12th and 13th of April to make a grand showing.

Over 600 Delegates. There will be delegates from all the posts in Connecticut, over 500 in number. The delegates include the past commanders, the commanders, officers and a large number of members.

The headquarters of the Grand Army men during the encampment will be the Union hall on Pratt street, where the business sessions will be held. On April 13, which will be the day of the day Fort Sumner was fired on, the veteran Grand Army men will be entertained at Foot Guard hall by the Sons of Veterans.

The nature of the encampment will be in the nature of a commemorative exercise. There will be a campfire around which the comrades will recall the days of strife and the memory of their departed comrades, who are now greatly in the majority.

The semi-centennial will be one of the most notable celebrations of the year. Hartford will greet the veterans with open arms and help them celebrate the big event.
