SPECIAL CAR FOR LOCAL YALE MEN

Plans Being Made for One to Bring Them Home from the County Gathering Next Saturday Night.

The committee having in charge the meeting of the graduates of Yale in this county for the purpose of forming a county Yale alumni association, are meeting with good success in eliciting the interest of the graduates of Old Eli, and it is expected that there will be from fifty to 100 in attendance at New London next Saturday evening.

It is possible that some of the graduates have been overlooked in the sending out of notices, but the committee is anxious that any such oversight should be made known to them, or that those who have been overlooked should attend.

There is to be a meeting of the graduates, in all departments, at New London at 7:15 for the purpose of organizing a county Yale alumni association. The banquet will be served, Louis R. Porteous of the committee has secured a large number from this end of the county who are going and it is possible a special car will be secured to bring them back.
