MONTIE'S CELEBRATION Was Called from Start to Finish—Feast, Desecrations and Oratory in Honor of Erin's Saint.

St. Patrick's day was fittingly commemorated Saturday evening at the Montgomery hose company's quarters in the Jackson street fire station by the active, associate and honorary members of that popular organization, who also entertained a few guests and past members of the company from out of town.

The house was elaborately decorated by P. D. Donahue, and electrical effects were furnished by John T. Ash-ton. The decorations comprised American flags, shamrocks, shields, genuine blackthorn canes, shillalahs and other emblems.

A sumptuous banquet was served under the direction of Fritz Hornberger and his able assistants. The post-prandial exercises were in charge of Foreman L. J. Flynn of the company. The toasts were informal but none the less enjoyable.

Among the out of town guests were Dr. Daniel F. Donahue of Waterbury, Dr. Joseph A. Moran of Hartford, Thomas P. Burrows of New Haven, John A. Murphy of Springfield, Timothy McNamara of Palmer, Mass., Harry Shurtz of New London and George Scully of Saybrook. The evening was presented a real Irish potato from Ireland as a souvenir of the enjoyable affair. The committee in charge comprised Foreman L. J. Flynn, First Assistant George Grady and Treasurer James A. Shea.

DEAD AT 90. Mrs. Adeline L. Franklin, Kinswoman of Governor Trumbull.

Mrs. Adeline L. Franklin, aged 90, died late Friday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Burrows, 198 South Main street, Middletown. She is remembered by many in this city, where it had been her custom to spend the summer months with her daughter, Mrs. C. P. Riebold, of North street. The past summer Mrs. Franklin was ill with pneumonia, from which she recovered at her last birthday, Feb. 19, all of her relatives were present, although at that time she was in the best of health. She had been gradually failing ever since. Mrs. Franklin was a real daughter of the American Revolution, although not enrolled as a member of any chapter of that society. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Wells and a granddaughter of Asaph Trumbull, a brother of Jonathan Trumbull, and was also a relative of one of Connecticut's former chief executives, Governor James H. Burdick, and she resided in Columbia. There survive two daughters and a son, Mrs. W. F. Burrows of Middletown, Mrs. C. P. Riebold of this city and L. W. Franklin of Hartford.

Wedding Invitations Issued. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eisenberg have sent out 250 invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Mertha, and Morris Brown of Hartford. The ceremony and reception will take place Sunday evening, April 2, at 7 o'clock, in A. B. S. hall, this city.

Starved Cattle Free from Disease. The twenty-three head of cattle that were removed from the possession of Franz Walkup of South Windham by the State Humane society because of their poor physical condition have been taken possession of by W. D. Granger, who has since been in the cattle, however, are still at the Road place in Windham, and were examined Friday by Dr. B. K. Dow and Officer Parsons of the civil commission's office for traces of tuberculosis. A careful examination was made, but no traces of the disease were found to exist in any of the cattle.

Suit Against Hebron Man. James F. Brown of this city has brought a suit against George Long of Hebron to recover on a note for about $40. Property belonging to Long in Hebron has been attached to protect the case, and the case was heard Saturday morning before Justice of the Peace Curtis Dean, but by reason of the attorney's being engaged for one week, Judge A. J. Bowen is appearing for the plaintiff and Attorney W. A. King for the defendant.

Domiciled in Eagle's Nest. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Deoppier and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dickson, who recently purchased the residence known as The Eagle's Nest from Postmaster C. H. Dimmock on Hooper mountain, have occupied their new home and are busy getting settled.

OBITUARY. Jeremiah Sullivan. Word was received in this city Sunday that Jeremiah Sullivan, aged about 70, died early Sunday morning at the Soldiers' home in Noroton. Deceased was a veteran of the Civil war and enlisted with Company H, Twenty-second Massachusetts, and served during the war. He lived in this city for a while and frequently made visits here with his daughter, Mrs. J. J. Keirans. He formerly lived in Portland, and the body will be brought here today (Monday) for the funeral and burial this afternoon. There survive three daughters, Mrs. J. J. Keirans and Mrs. Timothy G. Sullivan of this city, Mrs. Henry Lovett of Grooton, and one son, Thomas Sullivan, residing somewhere in the west.

POMONA MEETING. Three Granges to Combine for Sessions on Thursday—Interesting Programme.

There will be a combined Pomona grange meeting held in this city at the American Benefit society hall on Thursday, March 23. The three granges that combine for this meeting are the East Central Pomona, No. 3, of Tolland county, New London County Pomona, No. 6, and Quinebaug Pomona, No. 2, of Windham county.

The meeting will open in the fifth degree and pass immediately to the fourth, in order that all members of subordinate granges, whether fifth degree members or not, may be present.

Morning Programme. Violin solo, Arthur B. Roberts, Little River grange; The Reformation, Old Apple Orchard, Everett E. Brown, Wolf Den grange; whistling selection, Beautiful Star of Heaven, Miss Marion C. Clyde of Norwich; Farmers' Discouragements, Mrs. Maude E. Bliss, Norwich grange; Farmers' Encouragements, Mrs. M. E. Higgins, Norwich grange; humorous selections, Charles R. Risley, East Hartford grange; The Connecticut Agricultural College, President C. L. Shumway, has been spending two weeks in Boston, receiving treatment for rheumatism.

Elder F. A. Davis of Boston was the speaker at the service held at the Advent church Sunday afternoon. F. E. Shumway has been spending two weeks in Boston, receiving treatment for rheumatism.

The body of Mrs. Margaret J. Roberts, who died at Norwich Friday, was brought to Putnam Saturday afternoon and taken to the undertaking rooms of L. E. Smith, Mrs. Roberts having been a resident of this place. She leaves two sons, Charles and Edgar of Worcester, and three daughters, Mrs. M. E. Higgins of Putnam, Miss Elizabeth Kilborn of Putnam, and Miss May of Woodstock.

Money Order Just Paid Fine. Arthur Jenpson of Mechanicville flashed out a money order, after his endorsement was turned it over to the city court when he was fined for intoxication Saturday morning.

The peculiar thing about the transaction was the fact that the money order, made in Jenpson's favor, was for the exact amount of the fine and had come to him through the Bristol R. L. postoffice.

Officers of Congregational Sunday School. Following are the officers of the newly elected Sunday school class of the Congregational church: President, Mrs. George W. Perry; secretary, Mrs. C. E. Child; secretary and treasurer, Miss Emma J. Kinney; members, Mrs. C. E. Child, Mrs. E. Shaw, Mrs. P. E. Clark, Mrs. S. Wing; entertainment committee, Mrs. George W. Gilpatrick, Mrs. T. C. Bugbee, Mrs. W. L. Longwell; reading committee, Mrs. E. H. Johnson, Mrs. R. L. Kenyon.

To Preach at All-Day Meetings. Rev. W. Douglas Swaffield, pastor of the Baptist church at Danielson, and Rev. E. W. Belcher, pastor of the Putnam Baptist church, will preach at an all-day meeting at the Putnam Baptist church Wednesday. Rev. Mr. Swaffield will preach at the morning service.

COMBINED MEETING. Of Three Pomona Granges to Be Held at Willimantic.

The lecturers of New London county, East Central and Quinebaug Pomona granges have made plans for a combined meeting of these three Pomona granges at Willimantic on Thursday of this week. One group of officers is to open the grange, a second group will take charge after lunch, and third group will close the grange at the end of the day's work.

No Day Expresses. There has been some talk relative to plans of the New Haven road to run day expresses over the route between Norwich and Putnam, and thus make a route to Maine points, this summer, but this talk is now said to be untrue. Railroad men say that the plan is not feasible to believe there was any fire or that an accident had occurred.

L. V. Whitford Recovers Health. After four months of enforced idleness on account of serious illness, L. V. Whitford is at his block again this morning. Mr. Whitford is in charge of a department for Dearnley & Clarke and has many interested friends who are pleased that he is so convalescent. For several weeks in a private sanitarium at Willimantic.

St. Patrick Social for X. L. Class. Miss Elizabeth Clarke entertained the X. L. class of the Baptist Sunday school with the teacher, Rev. J. W. Payne, and the assistant, Miss Mary M. Brown. The class always has a social time with games and in addition other games there was a peanut nut hunt, Miss Josephine Miller winning the prize, a large peanut filled with candy. Emma Gardner won a prize in a book entitled "History of Ireland" in the potato race. Chicken salad, olives, sandwiches and green ribbon decorated cakes, candy and charlotte russe were served in the dining room, which was decorated in green in honor of St. Patrick's day.

Hibernians Receive Holy Communion. Division No. 1, A. O. H., John Blake, president, received holy communion at St. Mary's church in a body at 8 o'clock Sunday morning.

Open Season on Reservoir. Saturday afternoon the lower Aspinook reservoir was sufficiently cleared of ice to allow boating from main line down toward the dam. Now all summer many of the residents in the farming districts west of the pond make use of this method of coming to the borough, shortening the distance two miles.

Deep-Sounding Whistle. It is a pleasure to all who hear it to listen to the long, even, musical blast of the new Aspinook whistle, which resembles more than anything the whistle of one of the big liners of the Polish laborers at the boiler house, who had but recently arrived in this country, when he heard it for the first time, danced about in great excitement, declaring to his fellows that a ship was coming from the homeland.

Personal Notes. Herbert Wheelock of West Lynn, Mass., was at home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Webster had as guests Sunday from New London, Charles R. Carlyle and sons, David and Rodney of Norwich, David Merritt of Putnam, and Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lieberthal and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Spicer and sons, Harold and Oscar, of Jewett City.

Baptist Committees Appointed. Two committees were elected in the Baptist Sunday school Sunday; a music committee, Mrs. A. M. Brown, Mrs. R. R. Gardner, Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mrs. Emma Babcock and Wallace H. Payne. This committee will have in charge the music of the school, and also the organization of a Sunday school orchestra. An Easter committee was also appointed, Misses Katherine Babcock, Annie L. O'Connell, Broome and Mrs. George H. Prior, Broome and Mrs. Sherman Waters entertained Mrs. William Waters and two sons, Arvin and William, of Waterbury, and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Read of Lisbon, on Sunday.

Long Time to Wait. It is predicted in some quarters that Senator Dick of Ohio "will be present before he dies." It is true that Mr. Dick will be compelled to surrender the old-age record—Los Angeles Times.
