TAUNTON PASTOR REACHES HERE

Rev. Malcolm Taylor Says the Christian Ideals Must Be Above the Common Level—Not To Do Is Failure.

For the fourth of the midweek united Lenten services, held Wednesday evening in Christ church, there was a fair attendance from Christ and Trinity church parishes. The service for evening prayer was conducted by the two pastors, Rev. Neilson Poe Carey and Archdeacon J. Eldred Brown, and the preacher for the evening was Rev. Malcolm Taylor, pastor of St. Thomas church, Taunton, Mass.

That standing in the public esteem so that all men speak well of an individual, is taken up as a sure index of success was the thought impressively brought home to his congregation in his practical sermon from the text: "We are to be as men when all men shall speak well of you." The speaker said that there was a striking contrast noticeable in the two different renderings of the Beatitudes as given by Luke and Matthew, but it was considered probable that the verses in Luke were probably more nearly the exact words used by our Lord. Matthew used the more spiritual, Luke presented the more material aspect of these sayings, and to each of the Beatitudes in Luke was appended "We are to be as men." There was another side to our Lord than his winsomeness. There was his directness and his frankness, for our Lord was always ready to speak the truth and when he saw it, not fearing lest some should be offended, and it is even recorded that for his direct and straightforward speaking many walked no more with him.

Of all the woes in the text seems most difficult. There is explanation for the others, but for this one, what? If a man does not stand with God and we should find him, and if a man does ill he is not condemned? But here the Master says that the man praised by his fellows is unfortunate. And in so

THIRD IN SERIES OF TALKS TO BOY SCOUTS.

About Sixty Were Present to Hear a Few Fish Stories from John C. Morgan.

In the vestry of Trinity M. E. church Wednesday evening there were assembled about sixty boy scouts to hear a talk by John C. Morgan, it being the third in a series of talks arranged for the members of Troop No. 1. Mr. Morgan talked for an hour or more, his subject being A Few Fish Stories. He told them of his experience trout fishing in Maine, and showed them one large mounted trout which he caught there, weighing seven pounds. He also told of experiences near at home and gave those interested in such sport an evening of pure pleasure. In Maine he fished near Lake Androscoggin, and there is a far different game than whipping the brooks hereabouts.

Next week the talk will be by Supt. John E. Standen, whose subject will be Inhabitants of the Woods, the birds and animals.

There were interesting decorations Wednesday evening, a tent being pitched on the platform nearby, where was a campfire, which with the red electric lights gave it a realistic affect.

BANKER AND DEPOSITOR.

Legal Relations Between Set Forth in Magazine Article by Charles A. Brady.

In the March number of The Banker and Depositor, Charles A. Brady, of New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Brady of Norwich town, has an interesting article on The Legal Relation Between Banker and Depositor.

He is in the National guard and the article shows careful study of the matter and search of legal decisions, a number of which are quoted in his statement. Mr. Brady's addition to the valuable legal information comprehensively given a number of interesting situations are related which makes the article of much interest.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Lucius Tuttle. The death of Mrs. Estelle Martin Tuttle, wife of Lucius Tuttle, occurred at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at her home, No. 1120 Elm street, in the city. She was married to Mr. Tuttle in 1875, going to Hartford to live. In 1878 Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle removed to Boston and later to New Haven and Montreal, returning to Boston to live in 1888. Mrs. Tuttle became president of the Boston and Maine railroad. They resided on Commonwealth avenue until four years ago, when they moved to Brookline, with a summer home at Magnolia.

Mrs. Tuttle was a member of various social and charitable organizations, but for the past four years had not been along such lines on account of poor health. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. George George, married to Mr. Basil R. C. Foster of Boston, and a brother, Rev. George E. Martin, formerly of this city. C. Leslie Hopkins of Williams street is a cousin of the deceased.

Mrs. Charles T. Townsend. Mrs. Rhoda Taft Townsend, mother of C. Fred Townsend, of the firm of Foote & Townsend, died Monday in a private sanitarium in New Haven at the age of 55 after a long illness. She was a daughter of the late Thomas Jefferson Taft of Woodstock, Conn., and Annie E. Parker of Ashford, and one of twelve children. She lived for many years in Willimantic, actively associated with her husband, Charles T. Townsend, in his photographic studio, and thus she formed a wide acquaintance. Thirteen years ago she went to New Haven to live with her son. Besides her son she is survived by seven brothers and sisters, namely, Messrs. George, Marvin and Basil Taft and Mrs. Ruth Purinton, all of Willimantic, Mrs. Addie Spafford of North Windham, Mrs. Catherine Harris of South Windham, Mrs. Mary White of Hartford, all in Connecticut.

Mrs. Townsend was a member of St. John's Episcopal church, New Haven. Elisha Roath.

Elisha Roath died at his residence in Eastville, at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening. He was 72 years of age. Death was due to pneumonia, with heart trouble as a contributory cause. Mr. Roath has been ailing slightly for some time, but his death came rather unexpectedly. He is survived by a brother, James, with whom he has lived for several years. A sister survives, resident in Hartford, and a niece lives in Norwich. The body was brought to Norwich Tuesday night and the funeral will be held there, the interment to take place in Yantic cemetery. Rev. G. C. Chappell, pastor of Union Baptist church, will officiate.

Mr. Roath was born in Preston, September 13, 1838, and has lived in Montville for about eight years. He was a gardener by occupation and when he first came to Montville occupied a tenement over C. A. Chapman's store. In recent years he has worked for G. W. Dart, when he was able. He was highly esteemed in the town, was of a kind disposition and took great interest in church work.

BROWN MUSICAL CLUBS HEARD WITH DELIGHT

Y. M. C. A. Hall Filled to Hear Concert Which Was Given Under Auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The Brown university musical clubs entertained an audience which filled Y. M. C. A. hall on Wednesday evening. The club quartette and solo numbers all being heartily received and many encores were given.

The selections by the Mendocino club were finely played. Wald's Kaleoia and Stahl's Tallman both being cleverly done, as were the extra numbers they gave. The selections by the combined clubs brought out a big chorus and won much favor. Alma Mater being the closing selection and during its rendition alumni to the number of five or more in the audience stood.

The bass solo by Mr. Dane, Blow Thou Wintry Wind showed him possessed of a deep, rich voice, while the baritone solo by Mr. Newell brought forth much applause and in each case encores were given. The readings by Mr. Moore were all highly pleasing, the audience being kept in laughter throughout.

Especially good were the selections by the Glee club, the pieces being new and bright. The singing was of a high order and full justice was done throughout the programme to the interesting numbers. The quartette was well balanced and likewise pleased with its clever work.

The affair was given under the auspices of the Woman's auxiliary of the association, and a good sized sum should be realized. The members of the clubs were entertained in local homes during their stay in town.

From 4 to 5:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the Alpha Gamma Sigma sorority of the Free Academy gave a recital at the Y. M. C. A. room to the members of the club. The reception committee consisted of Mrs. Frank R. Bunnell, Mrs. W. Russell Baird, Miss Edith Davenport and Miss Elizabeth Pullen. Miss Marion Bishop and Mrs. Nelson Taintor poured. It proved a delightful success, at which many were in attendance. Daftodils were used as decorations.

Trolley Collision at Naugatuck. Naugatuck, Conn., March 22.—Two trolley cars standing on a switch in Union City tonight were run into by a third car, smashing the vestibule of the third car and slightly injuring the motorman. He was taken to Waterbury.
