REV. PREACHERS HERE

Rev. Frederick W. Coleman Delivers First Sermon Here at Methodist Church—Rev. Joseph Clark, at Central Baptist Tells of Labors and Work in Africa.

Rev. Frederick W. Coleman, the new pastor of Trinity M. E. church, preached at both services Sunday, there being large congregations present, and at the morning service he was presented by District Supt. J. H. Newland. At both services the vested choir sang in a pleasing manner, while at the evening service a cornet solo was given at the offertory.

Rev. Mr. Coleman in the evening took his text from Matthew vi:10: 'Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. What better definition do we want of heaven than that given in the Lord's prayer?' said Rev. Mr. Coleman. 'John tells us of heaven, but human language and thought are inadequate to describe it. I cannot conceive of turning this earth into heaven, though it can stand a great change, and I do not look forward to changes which will make it a heaven. If we were to depict an earth ideal, it would not be heaven. When I think of heaven as a place where the will of God is done, then I have a complete conception of heaven.'

The will of God is not done upon earth. By His will we are the purpose and desire of God. How is it that it is frustrated? Man is a free agent with power to do good or evil. God does not intend to coerce us in our moral duty. Man's will is not in harmony with God's will and hence His will is being frustrated. Eastern people say false rules make the western man believe in the power of his own will and that it can overcome adverse circumstances.

I rest in the assurance that God's will will be accomplished on earth, though one man may stand in the way for a time, yet that holdback is eventually overcome. Many great men accomplish the will of righteousness and humanity among the people, and he referred in particular to Lord Cromer's work in Egypt.

We are here to bring about God's will to earth and we are trying to bring it about. If he or she is conscious of the divine heart being in communion in God, there lies the greatest happiness. The greatest thing is to bring human souls into harmony with the divine will. If you only realized that the efforts of everyone help out in the great cause, more of us would be engaged in it. It is for everyone to fight the good fight, on the side of righteousness and God, against the forces of wrong. The good man keeps the evil present evil down, while the bad man allows it to surge up and ruin his life. May God make each one of us a worker in bringing about God's will on earth.

Rev. Mr. Coleman made a most favorable impression at both services, delivering his sermons in an easy and impressive manner. He had a clear and distinct delivery and holds the attention of his congregation, as he is possessed of the gift of preaching without his usual aid.

Missionary Life in Africa. Rev. Joseph Clark, D.D., of Africa, a missionary there for thirty-one years, was the speaker on Sunday at the Central Baptist church, at both the morning and evening services, the most interesting of the congregations.

DOG WARDEN STANTON GETS REAPPOINTMENT Named by Chief Murphy for Another Year—Has Had Busy Twelve Months.

Dog Warden George H. Stanton on Saturday received from Chief Murphy of the police department his reappointment as dog warden for the city for the next year, making his third term in the office. He has also been dog warden for the town, to which position he will be reappointed. His services in the office have been appreciated and the year has been a busy one.

On Saturday Warden Stanton killed a dog for a family on Jail hill, who wanted it put out of the way.

CATHOLIC MEN'S SOCIETIES Receive Holy Communion in a Body at St. Patrick's Church on Palm Sunday.

In spite of Sunday morning's snowstorm, both divisions of the A. O. H. and St. Mary's T. A. and B. society marched from their rooms to St. Patrick's church, where the pews on either side of the main aisle were reserved for the several hundred members who assisted at the 7.30 o'clock mass. The usual low mass was read by the Rev. Edward J. Flinn, who was assisted in giving communion to the societies and other parishioners by Rev. William F. Cavanaugh.

Rev. Father Treanor was the preacher, commending the edifying example of the societies in receiving holy communion in a body at this time, indicating that as Catholics men they stand for Catholic principles in the community, and that knowing the law of God they practice it. He emphasized the fact that many members of both societies are in the habit of receiving communion frequently throughout the year, but that their attendance as members of the organizations was significant, showing the strength and power for good which came from societies as societies when based upon sound religious principles.

The blessing of the palms at this church followed the high mass. Owing to the length of the day's lessons there was no vespers.

HAILE CLUB TEA. Social Hour Sunday Had Large Attendance—Busy Week.

Sunday afternoon at the Haile club for the regular afternoon tea and social hour had a large attendance of the members and a general programme of music was enjoyed. Pleasing songs were rendered by Miss Catherine O'Neill and Miss Elizabeth Wilson. Those serving were Mrs. A. Bourdeau, Miss Mary Dunderdale, Miss Elizabeth Wilson, Miss Fannie Silverman, and Miss Isabel Murphy.

This week includes several important dates for the club, beginning with Monday evening when the cooking class has its first lesson under its new instructor, Miss Alice Fittz. On Tuesday the basketball teams begin their series of games and on Thursday evening the annual election of the club's officers. On Tuesday afternoon, also, the Lenten class in study-travel holds its final lesson.

Gifts to Players. Saturday afternoon at Foll's R. D. Stedman was presented a large bouquet of carnations, and as a joke to his role of Charlie's Aunt a corset cover. Farrell McKnight was remembered with a similar bouquet and a large doll dressed as a bride. Both gifts were appreciated by the players as well as the house.

Badly Bitten by Dog. Letter Carrier Herman S. Case was quite badly bitten by a dog while on his Thameville route on Saturday morning. A large bulldog in the yard at the James Allen place sprang at him, catching his right hand and tearing his thumb badly. The wound was cauterized by a physician.

TWELFTH ANNIVERSARY OF FATHER MATHEW SOCIETY.

President Joseph Bellefleur Gave History of the Order—Past County Director Fitzgerald Spoke.

Carpenter's hall, in North Main street, was filled to the doors Sunday evening on the occasion of the twelfth anniversary of the Father Mathew Total Abstinence society, and the hall was attractively decorated in blue and white crepe paper. The programme opened at 7 o'clock with selections by the orchestra, and in spite of the fact that this was their first public appearance, the numbers were rendered in an excellent manner. The address of welcome was delivered by President Joseph Bellefleur.

The chief objects of this society are to spread the cause of temperance, to cleanse and purify the home, to relieve our sick and distressed brethren, to wage a war against the saloon, and by his voice and vote to repeal the laws resulting from intoxicating liquors; to stand ready at all times to assist those engaged in spreading the propaganda of temperance, and to reclaim the drunkard and make him a more loving and dutiful parent and a son or brother to be admired.

JOSEPH BELLEFLEUR. floor, and he related briefly the history of the society from its organization, through the efforts of Rev. J. Smith in 1839, until the present time. In speaking of the purpose of the society he said:

The chief objects of this society are to spread the cause of temperance, to cleanse and purify the home, to relieve our sick and distressed brethren, to wage a war against the saloon, and by his voice and vote to repeal the laws resulting from intoxicating liquors; to stand ready at all times to assist those engaged in spreading the propaganda of temperance, and to reclaim the drunkard and make him a more loving and dutiful parent and a son or brother to be admired.

May Pepper Vanderbilt, the noted medium, was the speaker on Sunday at the Spiritist seance on Pine street, attracting as she has on previous occasions large congregations to hear her addresses and spirit messages. At the seance the medium, who is a violin solo, Andante Cantabile (Vogt), was rendered with musical ability by Mrs. Charles A. Dowsett, and the speaker was introduced by Rev. A. P. Blinn.

Mrs. Vanderbilt spoke upon subjects given her from the congregation, two being handed her. Reincarnation from the spiritualistic standpoint. There is a Natural Body and There is a Spiritual Body. These were treated in an able manner and at considerable length, after which Mrs. Vanderbilt gave a number of spirit messages, often bringing applause from her hearers for the vivid and detailed way in which she brought the messages home to those for whom they were intended.

JAMES KANE HAS SIGNED WITH A CIRCUS Will Be Announcer With Clayton Wild West Show.

One more Norwich boy who has been attracted to the showman's life, James Kane, who is signing with a circus, has demonstrated that he is to make good in the business, having just been notified that he is to report in two weeks at the circus, which will assemble there, and that he is to be the chief announcer under the big canvas, as well as to do the megaphone act at the head of the parade, and the saddle of Vanderbilt. The show has consolidated this season with two others and will be larger than ever. After assembling at Baltimore he will move through the south and work north later in the season, making this state in July, and probably show either at New London or Norwich.

Mr. Kane had a snake charming act last season in the side show, which this year he will turn over to his partner, a woman handler of the reptiles. He is now at his home at his home here all winter, now having 25 fine specimens.

MANY AT OPENING. Public Most Favorably Impressed with New Building of National Shoe and Clothing Co.

At the opening of the new four-story building of the National Shoe and Clothing store in Orange street, there was a very large attendance. The proprietors were complimented highly for their handsome store and admirable arrangement of the premises. The building occupies three floors and the basement. It was a most successful opening, and many from out of town present. The building and store are a decided improvement to the square.

REASONED IT OUT And Found a Change in Food Put Him Right.

A man does not count as wasted the time he spends in thinking over his business, but he seems loth to give the same sort of careful attention to himself and to his health. And yet his business would be worth little without good health to care for it. A business man tells how he did himself good by careful attention to his physical condition, investigating to find out what was needed, and then changing to the right food.

For some years I had been bothered a great deal after meals. My food seemed to lay like lead in my stomach, producing heaviness and dullness, and sometimes positive pain. Of course this rendered me more or less unfit for business, and I made up my mind that something would have to be done.

My mind led me to the conclusion that over-eating, filling the stomach with indigestible food, was responsible for many of the ills that human flesh endures, and that was punishing myself in that way that was what was making me so dull, heavy and uncomfortable, and unfit for business after meals. I concluded to try Grape-Nuts food to see what it could do for me.

I have been using it for some months now, and am glad to say that I do not suffer any longer after meals; my food seems to assimilate easily and perfectly, and to do the work for which it was intended.
