THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

Genuine Merit Required to Win the People's Confidence

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, do not drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fill the promise of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that is advertised as curing almost itself, as like an engine chain system, the remedy is recommended by those who have been cured, to those who are in need of it.

In an interview on the subject a prominent local druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows immediate results, as many of my customers testify. No other medicine reminds me of I know of as large a sale."

The success of Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that it cures every kind of urinary troubles, kidney and bladder diseases, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which is the cause of them.

A free trial bottle will be sent by mail, absolutely free. Address: Dr. J. C. Kilmor, 110 West 19th Street, New York, N. Y. Mention this paper. Sold at druggists in bottles of two sizes—50c and $1.00.

Beadle of Franklin, and on Wednesday evening, Rev. J. W. Bixler, D.D., of New London will preach. WEDDING. Brown—Wheeler. Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock Miss Ella Harris Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Wheeler, and Palmer Knapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Brown, were united in marriage at the home of the bride. The ceremony was witnessed by about 60 relatives and friends and was performed by Rev. A. C. Jones, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, taking place under an arch of smilax. The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of brocaded satin with tunic. She carried a white prayer book and was attended by Miss Minnie McNeill as bridesmaid, who wore a gown of champagne mesalite cut empire and carried a bouquet of calla lilies. Miss Helen Elaine Wheeler, niece of the bride, dressed in white silk, acted as flower girl and carried a basket of roses. Harkett Brown, brother of the groom, was best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held and refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will go to Eden park, where a furnished home awaits them. The bride received many valuable presents. Of unusual interest was the gown which the bride wore. It was purchased in Shanghai in 1869 by Capt. William E. Wheeler, grandfather of the bride, on one of his many visits to the orient country. It was first worn by Mrs. William E. Wheeler, Jr., mother of the bride, in 1889, and by Mrs. Horace N. Wheeler in 1871, by Mrs. George J. Wheeler in 1900, by Mrs. Frank R. Wheeler in 1891, by Mrs. John G. Wheeler in 1891, and by Mrs. Brown in the sixth in this beautiful gown.

Important Meeting. The Modern Woodmen of America, Poquet camp, held an open meeting on Saturday evening in their rooms in the G. A. R. hall for the purpose of arousing interest in the proposed organization of a camp of Royal Neighbors as an auxiliary to the Woodmen. The speaker for the evening was Assistant Deputy Mrs. L. E. Dow of the Clara B. Woodard camp of New London and also Miss Connet Connor and Christopher Collins, both of New London. It was a fairly well attended meeting and much enthusiasm was aroused.

Cantata Well Given. The cantata Bethany, given under the direction of the chorister, Ira F. Noyes, of the Methodist Episcopal church, was largely attended on Sunday evening. The solo work of Mrs. J. Elmer Newbury, Willard Kugnia, Thomas M. Eyles and Miss Browne was worthy of mention. Those who took part in the chorus work were: Soprano, Mrs. Luck, Miss McGrover, Miss Woodman, Miss Gladhill, Miss Purdy, Miss Douglas, Miss Crouch, Miss Brooks, Miss Stevenson, alto, Miss Woodman, Miss Erika, Mrs. Mr. Mercer, Mr. Noyes, Mrs. Thomas W. Eyles presided at the organ and G. Victor Grinnell, violin, E. E. Bucklin, cornet. It was the nicest musical ever presented in Mystic and much credit is due Mr. Noyes in the way he worked to make it a success.
