WHAT IS GOING ON TONIGHT

Vaudeville and motion pictures at the Auditorium. Moving Pictures at the Bress' Theatre. Drill of Third Company at Armory. Norwich Lodge, No. 450, B. P. O. E. meets in Pythian Hall. Palmyra Encampment, No. 3, I. O. O. F. meets in Odd Fellows Hall. Ricklayers' Union, Local No. 12, meets in Carpenter's Hall. Lafayette Council, No. 307, L. Union Jan. Baptist D'Amorico, meets in Forester Hall. Halle Club Entertainment at Y. M. C. A. Hall.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tonight at 7:15 at Y. M. C. A. hall, Women Workers state convention. Addresses, solo dances, and "The Kleptomaniac." Admission 15c. New York Giants at the Auditorium. The management of the Auditorium are offering for the most seasonable attraction that could be obtained at this time of the year, in the moving pictures of the famous New York Giants baseball team in training. The picture shows all the famous stars in action, and "close up" views of such heroes of the diamond as Muggsy McGraw, Russ Raymond, Big Chief Meyers, Willie an others. One spectacular feature of this picture is when all of the pitching staff line up at once and each one pitches a ball in his own peculiar style of delivery. Short scenes of the $25,000,000 fire at the Albany state capital, and of the New York shirtwaist factory fire will also be shown.

The vaudeville features offered are of the best, and this portion of the programme is headed by Mr. and Mrs. Corlis, two former dramatic stars, in their own original comedy playlet, "The Tams." This is for laughing purposes only, so act accordingly.

Art Raphael, "The artist with the tender voice," a unique novelty, combining both cartooning and singing at the same time. You will like Art. Ruth Helmar presents a novelty specialty, consisting of feats of equilibrium and jugglery while balanced on the invisible wire.

Nick Zeller will render a pair of catchy songs, featuring the latest rag song, "The Lovers' Ceremony," which he will sing in his own original style. Christo Colombo, a character song, will be his encore number.

Beside the vaudeville picture, there are several others that are bound to please, such as "The War of the Clouds," "Tweedledum, Aviator," and a "Bison Indian picture, The Warrior Snow."

Coming, The Fall of Troy. Watch for the date.

BREED THEATER.

What a woman can do, is a western picture that is a distinct novelty and one of the freaks of a college fellow, who, upon coming to the city, asks his sweetheart to go west with him. Two years later finds him hopelessly grubbing for gold and at last makes a rich find, and upon his way home to tell his wife he makes numerous purchases for her. Reaching home he finds a note from his wife, saying that she has left with one who can give her a decent living. In two years more Mills has become immensely rich and his miscreant wife has been cast aside by her new love and is dying at a hotel. After vainly trying to get out, Mills drops of suffocation, expiring upon the pile of gold.

A very strong Biograph drama, entitled "The Two Sides," is another attractive picture and is based upon the labor question.

Mr. J. E. Calkins will sing the stirring war song, entitled "Valley Forge."

Bass-Clef Concert.

The final rehearsal for the concert to be held in Slater hall on Friday, May 26, was held in the hall last night. The following will make up the chorus and no such body of male singers has ever been heard in the city.

Those who were present at last night's rehearsal predict a big surprise to those who attend on Friday. The members of the club are:

First tenors—Arthur R. Blackledge, Charles R. Carville, Eben Learned, Charles W. Parsons, William Scott, George F. Smith, George A. Turner.

Second tenors—Ebon Allen, William A. Buckingham, Vincent D. Eldred, James J. Moore, Stephen E. Peckham, George W. Stanton, William D. Tillson, Louis A. Wheeler.

First basses—James L. Case, Charles E. Eaton, Charles D. Green, Allen Lathrop, William F. Lester, Archibald P. Macdonald, Arthur R. Parker.

Second basses—Fitch L. Allen, Walter M. Buckingham, James B. Jackson, Thomas H. Linton, William A. Lund, William B. Young, Jr., John E. Vaughn.

The Brooklyn Times has the following to say of Miss Tudor, who sings at Slater hall every evening:

"Miss Tudor sang with admirable skill and clear, true tones. Her songs were sung with an intelligent conception and charm of expression that won her approval. It is safe to say that Miss Tudor has never appeared to better advantage before a Brooklyn audience."

Bristol.—A new custom was established Wednesday by the senior class of the Bristol High school in the celebration of Ivy day.

New Britain.—Mrs. Eva Ginsburg, a midwife, was fined $250 for practicing medicine without a license by Judge Meskill in police court.

Torrington.—The Torrington grange will present a four-act comedy, "Joshua's Courtship," at the new grange hall this (Thursday) evening.

Bridgewater.—Judge and Mrs. W. A. Criven of Savannah, Ga., will occupy the "Rubens" residence at the park for the summer. Mrs. O'Brien was Sarah Wren before her marriage.

Ansonia.—After spending two weeks in this city in their efforts to locate the frog who has been busy here, members of the state police have doubtless given up their quest.

Wallingford.—At Monday evening's meeting of the Central school district committee the resignation of Thomas Ginn, assistant principal of the Wallingford High school, was received.

Derby.—The Connecticut company has awarded the contract for the erection of the new carbarn in Derby to a firm from Waterbury, and it is expected that the contractors will begin work at once.

New Haven.—Artificial arms for fireman Thomas Vaughn will be bought by the fire commissioners. Vaughn was terribly burned in the county jail fire a year ago. He practically lost his sight and had both arms amputated.

Watertown.—The annual Taft School Alumni association meeting was held at Taft school Saturday afternoon and evening. One of the prominent visitors present was James R. Garfield, a former cabinet member, father of John and James Garfield, students of the school.

Oats constitute three-fourths of the food upon which the Russian horse must exist during the 12 months of the year. Russian oats, however, are far superior in sustaining power to the American cereal. It is also claimed that animals do not become tired of this steady diet as they do of the hay and corn products in the United States.

POETRY.

AN EGYPTIAN LOVE CHARM. Carven with curious symbol and mystic sign, Enwrapped in tresses of gold, as in a shrine, It lay in a sandalwood casket wrought with pearl, And radiance of ivory. What slim, dark girl, What charmed love of king or caliph was this delicate trinket? Did Egyptian Avail to keep faith in hearts of old? And would their passionate love shame our modern maid? Enchanted, yet it breathes rose attar and the pure love of Beneath palm boughs, By marble fountains, tempted, sphinx-like ways, Were kisses treason or the pledge of days? Heavy with fate? Was love too madened sweet For one so frail? Was love too fevered And did she wear this token to her grave? Counting might be his queen or slave And had she those fond fancies that the grave soul of his soul, content to die? Think averse love immortal? Love since then The centuries have borne great tides Undying Greece has flamed and flared away? Reverberant Rome has passed; yet to this day This fragile bit of perishable gold, With vows and kisses, prayers and tears encroiled, Fair as of old, wanders in distant lands, Homeless, aware for those first soft hands. Gertrude Huntington McGiffert, in Smart Set.

MUCH IN LITTLE

Indications point to a heavy mortality from plague in India this year. Cases and deaths have increased each week this year. The authorities of Marburg, a university town of about 25,000 inhabitants, near Frankfurt, plans the construction of electric street railway lines. An unknown girl rode horseback at midnight, rousing families and telling them of their danger from a forest fire spreading in the lower Catskill range. A new piece of leather can now be transformed into a pair of boots in 34 minutes, passing
