WILLIMANTIC

What is Going on Tonight. Address at Hearing Before the Commission Council, Natchaug Lodge, No. 22, nights of Friday and Saturday.

Divorce for Willimantic Woman. In the Hartford superior court on Friday, George Baldwin Lee of Willimantic was granted a decree of divorce from Thomas J. Lee on the ground of desertion and intolerable cruelty. Lee is now a veteran, seen in East Granby. They were married in Willimantic January 16, 1902.

FUNERALS. Mrs. Samuel Chesbro. The funeral of Mrs. Samuel Chesbro was held Sunday afternoon at three o'clock from the family residence on Pleasant street. The services were private. Rev. Ralph G. Hartley, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated. Burial was in the Woodville cemetery. Funeral Directors Elmore & Sibford were in charge of the arrangements.

Abbie J. Gardner. The funeral of Abbie J. Gardner was held Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the home of her son, Oscar W. Gardner, 19 Lincoln avenue, Rev. R. H. Hartley, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated. Burial was in the Woodville cemetery. Funeral Directors Elmore & Sibford were in charge of the arrangements.

SMOKED IN BED. John Bezajala Set Bedclothes Afire and Was Nearly Suffocated. An alarm ring in from box 54 by Oliver Louis Paulhus for a fire in a sleeping room in the house owned by the Hoke family at 105 Union street, at 2:40 o'clock Sunday morning, caused the prompt removal of a couple of rooms to some tailors. The fire was extinguished by chemicals and damage to the house was slight, but Mr. Krug said Sunday afternoon that the loss would be about $125. A boarder, John Bezajala, who rents a couple of rooms at a late hour, in some way the bed caught fire and Bezajala, who was sleeping in the room, arrived here nearly suffocated. The services of Dr. C. H. Girard were retained to resuscitate him. He remained in the hospital about an hour and a half, but was still unable to talk lucidly Sunday afternoon.

Frank M. Lincoln and family left Saturday for Pleasure beach, where they will spend the summer. The remainder of the season Mr. Lincoln will return today and make regular week-end trips to the beach.

Lebanon Personals. Edward A. Hoxie and Elisha Waterman of Lebanon attended the meeting of the Connecticut Agricultural Association on Thursday, held on the farm of R. G. Waterman in Windham.

Miss Vera H. Hoxie of Lebanon is spending a few days in Willimantic. The funeral of Miss Hazel Hoxie and her mother, Mrs. E. H. Hoxie, was held at the Windham high school building.

VENERABLE CLUB. Holds Tenth Annual Meeting at Hooker House on Saturday, Fifty Attending. The venerable club of Windham held its tenth annual reunion and dinner at the Hotel Hooker, Saturday. There were fifty members in attendance, including thirteen charter members.

Willimantic Town Winners. Manager L. N. Dondoro's rejuvenated Willimantics took the measure of the Swanton club, who were heavily defeated on Windham field Saturday afternoon in a good, fast, interesting baseball game by the score of 7-5. For a time it looked rather bad for the home team but just as soon as its members got together and found Pete Lamprecht there was nothing to it. The visitors led at the end of the fourth by a score of 4-2, but the local bunch came back strong and tied it up in the sixth and put the game away on ice in the eighth by clouting out five nice hits, making three runs, and the best the manager or outfit could do was to add one in the ninth.

The all-round playing of the home boys was good for the fans to look upon, although several bad errors gave them a chill now and then. Lazinski seemed to grow stronger toward the close of the game, and the visitors did not take kindly to his left-handed denials. He was quick to take advantage of men running the bases and caught a number asleep with his quick, sharp throw to first and third. He was also strong with the stick, hitting, however, was the heavy swatter of the day, securing three hits out of five times. Lanzinski, Hamel, Burns and McLean were his nearest rivals with two apiece to their credit. Crockett, who was the pitcher, did the best stickwork for the visitors although it was Norlander's drive that brought in the runs and he himself scored by reason of the fact that Crockett failed to cover third on Driscoll's pretty throw to the bag.

Joseph L. Flood of the South Manchester News was an interested spectator at the Manchester-Willimantic baseball game at Windham field Saturday afternoon.

Miss Etta Cole left Saturday morning for Brooklyn, N. Y., to attend the funeral today of Mrs. George Kane, who died in that place Friday evening. Mrs. Kane was at one time a resident of this city.

Miss Gertrude Kelleher of Westerly, R. I., and Miss Esther Holly of Dayville, Me., returned to their homes the latter a student of the normal training school, left for their respective homes Saturday morning.

Champion of Them All. If Zelva and Castro really want to stir up trouble, why don't they sign up with W. J. B.—Washington Post.

Danielson

Knights of Pythias at Willimantic Memorial Exercises—Old East Factory—Observance of the Day—Class of 1909—Brothers Fined For Not Paying Personal Tax.

Rev. F. W. Armstrong writes of having been to the church of which he recently took charge at East Liverpool, Ohio.

Fred S. Keach of Norwich has been spending several days with relatives in Danielson.

Postmaster C. A. Potter is to go to Willimantic on the Fourth as a member of the staff of the department commander of the G. A. R. for Connecticut.

At Willimantic Memorial. Members of the local lodge of the Knights of Pythias met Sunday to take part in the memorial exercises conducted by the lodge in that city.

Howard C. Bradford was leader of the Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at the Congregational church Sunday evening. Missions in China was the subject.

Rev. J. S. Porter preached at the service at the Congregational church Sunday morning.

Donald Johnson, Horatio Purinton, George Tourtelotte and Harold Lesters have been at Bluffs, Mass., during the past week.

ST. JOHN'S DAY. Observed by Masons—Special Services at South Woodstock.

Putnam lodge of Masons of Woodstock, with invited brothers representing various other lodges of the order, observed St. John's day Sunday by attending services at the Baptist church in South Woodstock.

Several were present from this city. Rev. L. B. Curtis, who preached the sermon, officiated for the last time at the church. He is to go to Old Mystic.

BRADLEY THEATER MANAGER. Booking Strong Attractions for Coming Season.

Such dramatic and musical productions as The Three Twins, Madams X, Overnight, Chorus Lady, The Beauty and the Beast, and others have been booked for the fall and winter season.

Big Blasts Set Off. Chunks of rocks the size of duckmelons rained down on the dwellings in the vicinity where the trench for the new bridge is being excavated.

Excavation is about 20 feet deep at this point and is being carried on as to be barely destructible. The mine dwellers are right on the line and to protect them to some extent the windows have been barricaded.

ODD FELLOWS' OUTING. Plan to Have Brethren of Three States Combine.

There is a plan afoot to have the lodges of Odd Fellows in Putnam, Southbridge, Webster and Passaconaway, representing three states, combine on Friday morning for an outing to the State river resort.

The date has not been selected. It is planned to have the outing on the river, and every feature as to insure a big success.

S. of V. Ditto. Along this same line of endeavor the camp of the Sons of Veterans in this city is also working for the idea of getting the camps of the organization in Putnam, Danielson, Grovesnor, Webster and Central Village to combine for a field day some time during July.

A meeting of a committee was held in Putnam Saturday night to discuss the matter.

Eagles' Delegate. Thomas R. Ryan will be a delegate from Putnam to the convention of the state convention of the order to be held in Danbury on Saturday of this week.

A field day programme has been arranged in connection with the convention.

International Sunday School Day. A special opening exercise was used in the Congregational Sunday school Sunday morning to emphasize the thought of the day in connection with the observance of International Sunday school day.

Necessitated by Improvements. The transferring of trolley passengers on account of blockades of the tracks caused by sewer excavations is apparently going to be an unavoidable condition that will prevail in Putnam the greater part of the summer.

Missed Chief Attraction. President Taft saw the elephant while he was in New York, but he didn't get a glimpse of Colonel Roosevelt—Boston Globe.

Keeping Up His Reputation. King George, not to be outdone by a mere president of the United States, has visited the zoo—Atlanta Journal.

Outdoor Union Services. Beginning next Sunday evening union services will be held each Sunday at Davis park under the auspices of the Congregational church.

General News. This (Monday) afternoon Mrs. C. H. Pike will have the members of the Ladies Reading circle at her home for a meeting.

Miss Mary Jordan, a teacher in the public schools of New Haven, is at her home in this city for the summer months.

Miss Abbie Witter, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Maffitt the past week, returned to her home in Brooklyn Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer M. Cross, who have been guests of relatives in this city for a week, left Saturday afternoon for their home in Newport, R. I.

Ex-Secretary S. Arnold Peckham and Mrs. Peckham of Willimantic have returned home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ranney of Meriden.

Joseph L. Flood of the South Manchester News was an interested spectator at the Manchester-Willimantic baseball game at Windham field Saturday afternoon.

Main Street, Danvers, Mass. He Saw She Saw It. As the man who writes little items for the paper at getting himself fitted with a pair of shoes the other day he saw this happen. A woman was getting fitted on the third floor of his right hand diamond twinkler weighing at least a carat and a quarter. He hadn't always worn a ring of that sort. It was new to him. He took a great deal of pride in his new ring. Oh, how it sparkled when the light was just right. Once or twice he got so interested in twisting it around on his finger with his thumb to a position where it would be most easily noticed by the woman customer that he forgot to finish fitting up the shoe she was trying on.

But he had succeeded in bringing the jewel to her attention. She had a sharp, leathery, suffragette face and a disposition to speak right out on things. "I see it," she remarked in a refrigerated tone. "It's very pretty and attractive. You wear it with a good sign of abandon too. I admire it exceedingly. After you've finished trying with it I wish you would go ahead and show me something else—something with not quite such a narrow toe."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

GOOD NEWS

Ladies Everywhere

are glad to know of the wonderful benefit that Viburn-O-Gin has always been to sufferers of their sex. Thousands of ladies spread the good news among their neighbors and friends.

Others write letters for publication, thus suffering sisters, unknown to them, may learn about it in the newspapers.

So the good work goes on. Viburn-O-Gin is a purely vegetable compound, containing no harmful properties, is actively specific in its curative action on the womanly organs as a function.

To young and old it is highly recommended for the treatment of all forms of female troubles.
