AUTO BUMPED GROCERY WAGON

Accident on Main Street Narrowly Escaped Serious Consequences. At 2:10 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, there were a few lively moments on Main street as a result of an automobile bumping into a grocery wagon, but fortunately no serious accident. The main street paving had just been started and the grocery wagon, driven by Thomas Althart, Andrew Gorman, William Rourke and Michael Carroll, was just about a New York automobile bearing the registry number 4915, owned by William Hass of Utica, N. Y.

STEERING GEAR REFUSED TO WORK

Just as William J. Miller was driving home in his 1910 Buick on Tuesday afternoon as he was rounding the curve up the steep incline at the foot of Johnson's hill to Pleasant street, the steering gear of his automobile refused to work and the course of the machine could not be changed and the automobile continued on in its course and crashed into a fence at the right. The only thing that saved the machine and Mr. Miller from being pitched down the embankment was that the auto struck a guy wire that ran down from a telegraph pole. The axle and lamps of the auto were slightly damaged, but Mr. Miller was driving his car in the afternoon.

CHAUFFEUR CHARGED WITH RECKLESS DRIVING

State Policemen R. H. Wheeler and W. E. COLUMBIA AVENUE IMPROVEMENT

Hearing on Benefits and Damages—Washed to Be Investigated to Alleviate Fears of Public. The street committee of the common council held a hearing Tuesday evening in the council chamber for the purpose of arriving at some estimate of the benefits and damages resulting to the property abutters on Columbia avenue that will be caused by the construction of a new state road from West Main street, from the bridge on Columbia avenue. Mrs. Adelaide Stanton, represented by her daughter, Miss Dally E. Stanton, David Pich, Mrs. Mary Warner, the two latter two of the heirs of the late Harold Stanton, and Andrew, whose property will be slightly benefited by the proposed layout, were present and were questioned by Corporation Engineer, Miss Dally E. Stanton, who refused to give any estimate of the benefits and damages, but gave their opinions, however, that they would be materially damaged, except Mr. Andrew, who was perfectly willing that the city take more of his land if necessary to make the new road, which is so greatly needed, a possibility. The committee will in all probability condemn the land and go ahead with the work unless an agreement can be reached next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, until which time the meeting was adjourned.

PUTNAM

George Breault Arrested at New London for Assault on Aug. 17th. Officer Benjamin Chaffee was sent to New London Tuesday afternoon to get George Breault, formerly employed at Earl's coffee house in this city, who called George Grosz and John Babbitt at Jo's stable, where they are employed, on the night of Aug. 15th. Breault entered the stable and after an argument with Grosz and Babbitt he attacked him and was doing serious damage to Grosz when Babbitt attempted to help the latter. Breault proved more than a match for the two boys and got considerably the worst of the engagement. Sergeant Patrick Hayes was called, but before he could be found Breault departed by freight. A warrant has been out for Breault's arrest since the time local officers were notified Tuesday morning that Breault was in custody at New London. Breault will be before the city court this Wednesday morning.

ANTY DRUDGE

Anty Drudge tells Mary how to Save Her Hands for Piano Playing. Husband—"Why don't you play my favorite songs on the piano any more, Mary? I miss them." Mary—"My hands are so sore and stiff, I can't. I no sooner get them cured from one wash day until they are cracked up and sore again the next Monday." Anty Drudge—"Why do you crack your skin and make your hands tender by using scalding water and rubbing and scrubbing the old way? Get Fels-Naptha soap and save your hands."

Fels-Naptha soap saves time, saves fuel, saves the hands, saves the temper, saves the clothes.

It's the greatest economizer of energy, because it actually does the work for you. All the drudgery of the washboard becomes a thing of the past.

You simply soap the clothes with Fels-Naptha, roll and place them for half an hour in cool or luke-warm water.

Fels-Naptha soap loosens all the dirt, and only light rubbing and rinsing are necessary. It means too, the cleanest, whitest wash.

For every kind of household cleaning, Fels-Naptha is the one best soap for you to use. Try it once, and be convinced. Follow directions on red and green wrapper.
