CENTRAL BUSINESS AND TRADING Large Gathering of Delegates at Montville—Election of Officers and Reports of Committees—Address by Rev. P. C. Wright on "The Decisive Hour."

The 94th annual session of the New London Baptist association, representing churches of New London county between the Thames and Connecticut rivers and as far north as Colchester, began Wednesday morning in Montville. After the devotional exercises, Rev. Henry F. Adams, chairman of the committee on nominations, reported the nominations of Rev. F. D. Luddington of Quaker Hill as moderator and Rev. J. G. Ward of Lefthamwell as clerk. The report was accepted.

The annual sermon was delivered by Rev. Mr. Adams, who took his text from Matt. 16: 26, and lasted for 45 minutes. There was an address by Rev. Mr. Ward on a Baptist Minister's Home, the collection amounting to $28, is to be devoted to such a home. Intermission for dinner, at which over 200 guests were counted, was followed by the report of the Women's Baptist Home Missionary society, at which there was an address by Mrs. H. G. Sanford, a corresponding secretary of the Women's Foreign Missionary society. Then followed the appointment of committees, which resulted as follows:

Resolutions—Rev. J. R. Very, Richard W. Adams, L. W. Frink, Nominating Committee—Rev. C. M. Reed, Rev. Brewer G. Boardman, Rev. Joseph A. Elder.

Committee on Report on the State of Religion in the Churches—Rev. Charles R. McNally, Rev. Joseph P. Brown and Rev. E. J. Adams. Committee on Young People's Work—Rev. F. O. Cunningham and Miss Isabelle Riley.

Committee on Officers—Deacon E. F. Richard, Deacon R. L. Terrington and Rev. J. P. Adams. Committee on 95th Anniversary—Rev. C. J. Harding, Rev. C. R. McNally and E. D. Calkins.

Committee on Finance—Rev. G. B. Chappell and Charles A. Ames, for three years; Rev. H. F. Adams, for one year to vacate.

A missionary sermon was delivered by Rev. P. Purvis and an address followed by Rev. W. E. White, New England secretary of the American Baptist Foreign Missionary society. The history of the Moody Church was read by Rev. Mr. Ward.

Under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. with the Montville society's chorus singing there was a praise service. F. L. Arnold reported on the condition of societies in this state. Rev. E. E. Jones of Danbury delivered an address on Your Pace.

Thursday's Session. For the Thursday meetings of the convention the church was well filled from the opening hour of the morning session which began at 9 o'clock with a devotional service led by Rev. C. M. Reed. At 9:15 the business meeting was held with Moderator Rev. F. D. Luddington in the chair, and reports of the treasurer and trustees were presented and accepted.

These were followed by report of committee on state of religion, Rev. C. R. McNally, on nominating officers, Rev. F. D. Luddington, of missionary committee, R. W. Mansfield, on committee on ministers, Bible school conference, Rev. P. C. Wright.

Rev. J. R. Very presented the report of the resolutions committee, amounting to a resolution protesting against the restrictions to religious freedom of teachers in public schools. The resolution protesting against the restrictions to religious freedom of teachers in public schools was adopted. The resolution protesting against the restrictions to religious freedom of teachers in public schools was adopted.

Foreign Missionary Society. After dinner had been served, the Women's Foreign Missionary society held its annual meeting at 1:30 o'clock, presided over by Miss Edith Wilcox of Japan.

The convention opened for its closing session at 2:30 with a devotional service conducted by Rev. E. E. Jones and several minor items of unfinished business were disposed of.

An inspiring address with a text from the Psalms was given by Rev. F. O. Cunningham upon the subject, "The Power of the Holy Spirit." His last address of the convention was given by Rev. W. F. Newton upon "Links in a Chain." The convention adjourned its closing session about four o'clock.

Hair Falling Out Parisian Sage Will Stop It in Two Weeks or Money Back

Ask The Lee & Osgood Co. about PARISIAN SAGE. They guarantee it to stop falling hair, itching scalp and put an end to dandruff in two weeks, or money back.

Readers of the Norwich Morning Bulletin need not hesitate to accept this offer for it is genuine.

Since PARISIAN SAGE has been sold in America it has become famous for its power to make hair grow luxuriantly and quickly.

Not only that, but it nourishes the hair roots and puts vigorous life and radiant lustre into dull, faded hair, and for that reason is a favorite with women of refinement.

It kills dandruff germs, the cause of all hair troubles. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle, 50 cents at The Lee & Osgood Co. and druggists everywhere.

Lillian Carpenter and Ernest Bullard were handkerchiefs. The consolation prizes were taken by Mr. and Mrs. S. Howard Bishop. These were a box of candy and a tiny umbrella which when opened revealed a pen and pencil.

The guests presented the host and hostess a beautiful table cloth with white satin ribbons and a floral morning. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, wedding cake, bride's cake, wafers and orangeade were served, after which the music room, a musical programme was enjoyed. Later all joined hands, singing Auld Lang Syne.

Mrs. Adams displayed the lace handkerchief which she carried on her wedding day, also the ornament which was on her wedding cake.
