Prosecutions Will Continue

PRESIDENT DEFINES ATTITUDE TOWARD THE TRUSTS.

HIS FIRST DAY IN IOWA

Greeted by Large Crowds All Along the Line—Promised to Recommend Reductions in Several Tariff Schedules.

Waterloo, Iowa, Sept. 28.—President Taft today in a speech defining the relation of the government to business interests, announced that the trust prosecutions begun by the department of justice at Washington would continue, despite the recent order that business was being made to suffer.

Must Be Brought Within the Law. He served notice that the "big business" trusts are the country's burden. He brought within the law, just as the railroads have been, and declined to admit that there exists any discretion which would enable the attorney-general to stay the hands of the government.

Deprecates "Vindictive Hostility." At the same time the president made an earnest appeal for reasonable consideration of the railroads and the big industrial corporations in the light of their reformation was being brought about steadily and satisfactorily and his promise to be regained by "indictive hostility."

Certain Politicians Denounced. Mr. Taft bitterly denounced those politicians who seek to arouse the people to a blind and unreasoning hatred against one section of the country against another. Such utterances he declared to be the worst kind of demagoguery.

Against Sectional Prejudice. Mr. Taft repeatedly declared against sectional prejudice and unreasonable denunciation of corporations by persons seeking political advantage. Dwelt Upon Tariff. The president's first day in Iowa was one of the most interesting of his tour.

Content to Abide by Your Verdict. "I want you to know where I stand," said the president, "if you do not approve of my policy, you are at liberty to know what to do, and if you do approve, you know what to do. In my opinion, I am content to abide your verdict."

OVER 35,000 AWAIT STRIKE ORDER

Shopmen on the Harriman Lines Preparing to Struggle for Recognition

EXPECTED WITHIN A DAY OR TWO

Refusal of Railroad Officials to Recognize Federation of Shop Employees Their Only Grievance—Vice President Kruttschnitt Again Declines to Meet With Federation—Will not Turn Operation Over to Employees

Chicago, Sept. 28.—More than 35,000 shopmen in the employment of the Harriman lines are awaiting the word to strike, according to the vice president of the International Union of Railroaders, which has been organized by the officials have not yet decided upon the hour at which to begin a struggle, according to these same officials, which will, to a great extent, determine the future attitude of the railroads in dealing with strikers.

Recognition the Issue. The shopmen will strike, they say, not because of any dissatisfaction with wages nor conditions of labor, but to establish the federal system of organization of shop employees as a means of negotiating disputes between employers and employees. The railroad officials refuse to recognize the federation, because, they say, it would mean practically placing all operating affairs in the hands of the federation and would turn railroad management into chaos.

Climax Reached Yesterday. The dispute reached a climax today when Julius Kruttschnitt, vice president of the Harriman lines, reiterated the determination of the roads not to meet with the federation. J. W. Kline, president of the International Brotherhood of Railway Employees, announced that a strike would be called as soon as the day and hour could be agreed upon.

Awaiting Orders at Ogden. Ogden, Utah, Sept. 28.—The federation men in the Ogden shops are awaiting orders to walk out, which they expect to receive by noon tomorrow. Portland, Ore., Sept. 28.—The 900 employed at the Portland and Las Grande shops of the Harriman system are ready to respond to a strike order, which is expected within 48 hours.

Officially Prohibited. Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 28.—Southern Pacific officials have begun preparations to meet the expected strike. The dispute reached a climax today when Julius Kruttschnitt, vice president of the Harriman lines, reiterated the determination of the roads not to meet with the federation. J. W. Kline, president of the International Brotherhood of Railway Employees, announced that a strike would be called as soon as the day and hour could be agreed upon.
