Collision Between Auto and Soil Cart Results in Suit—Arguments Closed Friday—Decision Reserved—Railroad Asked for Damages Alleged to be Due to Locomotive Sparks—Pennsylvania Silk Man May Enlarge Local Branch.

There was a session of seven hours' duration of the Third district court, Friday, Judge Oliver H. Williams, in hearing the cases of Charles S. Taylor and Roy G. Ames against George Davidson, both cases being tried jointly, with Rathbun B. Dixon for plaintiffs, and Albert E. Crafts for defendant. The cases are the outcome of a collision in Spruce street on the night of June 27, when an automobile owned by defendant and at that time operated by his son Harry, collided with a night soil cart owned by Ames and upon which both plaintiffs were riding. The plaintiffs seek to recover damages of $500 each from the defendant as owner of the machine, he being responsible for the proper operation, although he was not in the automobile at the time of collision.

Charles F. Taylor testified that at the time of the mishap the soil cart was on the right hand side of the road, close to the curb. It was about 10:45 o'clock and the night was fairly clear and the street lights were burning. He saw the auto as it turned into Spruce street from Granite, the headlights were burning but no headlights. The auto struck the cart heading on, on the right side, right back of the forward wheel. He said the automobile was going at the rate of 25 miles an hour at the time. The witness was thrown to the sidewalk with considerable force and was severely bruised and shaken. He said that just after the accident Harry Davidson declared the first seen of the team was when it was struck. There were two other men in the automobile with Harry Davidson and as a whole they were in fairly good condition, but he could smell intoxicating liquor from Harry. The pole and corner of the cart were broken, the horses freed, harness torn apart and the cart put out of business. When the cart was in the office of Dr. Samuel C. Webster for treatment and was unable to do any work for two weeks after the accident and worked only parts of the two following weeks, owing to his injuries.

John H. Swain, principal of the Westery high school, who was sitting on his piazza on the night of the accident, testified that he saw the auto just before the collision speeding at the rate of about thirty miles an hour. He saw the automobile leave the right hand side of the road near the turn in the street and go in a diagonal direction and collide with the soil wagon, which was on the extreme right of the highway.

A suit for damages, similar to that of Locke against Palmer, and which was decided for plaintiff early in the week, the case of Edwin A. Kenyon and others against the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad Co., reaching on trial before Judge Elmer Rathbun and a jury in the superior court for Washington county. It is an action to recover damages for a forest fire alleged to have been caused by defendant. It is claimed that early in the afternoon of March 29 last, a fire was started by a passenger engine near Carolina station within the railroad right-of-way, and that it spread to some thirty odd acres, and that it took wind the fire burned over a large area of land, and that it reached the farm of the plaintiff, and burned over a tract of fifty-one acres of which forty-seven acres were sprout woodland of about eight years' growth. The plaintiff is represented by James C. Collins and Abner R. Williams appeared for the railroad company.

Absorption Process Makes Faces Young

(From The Home Maker)

Success has at last come to scientists who for years have sought some effective method of removing the outer facial skin in cases of unsightly blemishes, which would be both painless and entirely non-injurious. The new process is so simple, it means so ordinary, so inexpensive, the wonder is that no one has discovered the same long ago.

It has been, amply demonstrated that common mercurized wax to be had at any drug-store, completely removes, by gentle absorption, all the yellow, rosella, skin underneath. The mercurized wax is applied at night—like cold cream, but not rubbed in—and washed off in the morning.

The absorption also cleanses clogged pores, increasing the skin's breath-taking capacity and capillary circulation, preserving the tone, color and natural beauty of the new skin.

BALTIC

The Election of Mr. Stevens Will Count for Economy.

Mr. Editor: I received the 50th annual town report of the town of Sprague today, out of the usual routine of getting them, and have been reading and comparing it carefully with others of the preceding years that I have kept. Having resided here for some thirty odd years, I naturally take an interest in anything that pertains to the town. It pleased me to read that something had been finally accomplished in the way of progressing without increasing the debt of the town. Being a careful reader and good observer, I think I can say without reserve or fear that in the last ten or eleven years, with the exception of a couple of years, the present candidate, E. J. Jodoin, for the office of first selectman on the democratic ticket, has had control of a monopoly of that office. It needs no going into details to tell you how this man handled the town and drove the good old horse, "Sprague." It is sufficient to say that under his driving the town last year, according to the present report, had a debt of $78,082.50.

On the ticket with Mr. Jodoin, John C. Donnan is a candidate for the office of second selectman. These two men formed the board of the year 1909 and 1910, and according to the report, increased the debt by $3,495.56, and left unpaid bills to the amount of $2,563.32, making a total of $5,968.88.

Where, in all that is fair and square, did they sink this money. Surely not where any one has seen it.

Monday's election will be purely local, and the question of a man's party or nationality should not be an issue. What the town wants is an honest man who has the combined assets of running the town on economical lines regardless of party or friends. Mr. Jodoin has been ambitious, selfish, reckless and erratic, and those qualities are not compatible with a sound policy or a safe conduct of affairs.

Mr. Stevens took the town in very desperate straits, and although having only one year at it, has shown wonderful results. I hope that there are enough of fair minded, level headed voters in the town to re-elect him, and see if the results will not be perfectly satisfactory.

BABY'S TERRIBLE SUFFERING

"When my baby boy was six months old, his body was completely covered with large sores that seemed to itch and burn, and cause terrible suffering. The eruption began in pimples which would open and run, making large sores. His hair came out and finger nails fell off, and the sores were over the entire body, causing little or no sleep for baby or myself. Great scabs would come off when I removed his shirt.

"We tried a great many remedies, but nothing would help him, till a friend induced me to try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment but a short time before I could see that he was improving, and in six weeks' time he was entirely cured. He had suffered about six weeks before we tried the Cuticura Remedies will do all that is claimed for them, and a great deal more." (Signed) Mrs. Noble Tolman, Dodson, Mont., Jan. 28, 1911.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 32-page booklet on the skin, will be sent, post-free, on application to "Cuticura," K.I., Boston.
