

SUPPRESSION OF NEWS AT PEKING

Chinese Press and Public Being Kept in Dark Regarding Revolution

A CENSORSHIP OF TELEGRAPH LINES

Hankow, Where Revolution is Now at its Height, Cut Off From Rest of the Empire—Correspondents Refused Permission to Accompany the Army—Great Secrecy With Reference to Movements of Troops.

Peking, Oct. 15.—The Chinese government has placed severe restrictions on the telegraph and telephone lines for the purpose of preventing communication between the rebels. The telegraph administration refuses to transmit messages either to or from the provinces of Hu Pei, Hunan, Kiangsi, Sze Chuan, Kwel-Chow and Yunnan.

Hankow Cut Off.
On this account Hankow, where the revolution is at its height, is cut off. It is not considered possible that the wires have been cut out of these six provinces. Until lately the revolutionaries, having free use of the wires, received and disseminated information concerning the progress of their plans in all quarters.

Secrecy About Movement of Troops.
The government refuses to reveal the number or the destination of the troops who are being sent southward. Beginning tomorrow only single first class train will be run daily between Peking and Tien-Tsing Fu, about 70 miles to the southeast of the capital. This is due to the heavy troop traffic and for the purpose of preventing any great number of rebels from coming into Peking. Passenger and freight traffic has been entirely suspended between Peking and Hankow.

Correspondents Barred.
So far the government has refused to permit correspondents to accompany the army. Both sides are reported to favor foreigners, and it is believed that the government will consider this refusal to admit imperialists meet with initial success.

Red Cross Society Formed.
The last despatch received from Hankow said that the revolutionaries had organized a red cross society and had invited the co-operation of the American Episcopal mission. This invitation was accepted provisionally.

TWO KILLED IN A CRASH AT BERLIN.
Cars Break Loose From Freight and Collide With Engine.

Berlin, Oct. 15.—At a conference today over the wreck at Berlin Junction last night, in which Frank Shook, an engineer, and Frank Dehn, of New Britain, lost their lives, and five passengers were injured, between Medical Examiner Griswold and Coroner Callahan it was decided that the accident was caused by the fact that the locomotive was given the removal of the bodies of the victims to their homes.

RECALL ELECTION NOT MOB ACTION.
Senator Bourne Replies to Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Ireland.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Senator Jonathan Bourne, Republican, in a statement today took issue with Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Ireland in their attack on the initiative and referendum and recall as practiced in Oregon.

ELLINGTON MAN KILLED BY TROLLEY.
Wagon in Which He Was Riding Run Down at Somers.

Somers, Conn., Oct. 15.—Alexander Ellington, was instantly killed today when he was riding in a trolley wagon which was struck by a trolley car at Somers.

MNAMARA JURORS HAVE AN AUTO RIDE.
A Silent Barber Their Only Visitor on Sunday.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 15.—Judge Walter Gordon, when James B. McNamara is being tried on indictments charging murder in the explosion of the Times building, occupied himself today with the study of the answers made by Talesman Z. T. Nelson when examined on the subject of labor warfare.

OBITUARY.
Henry P. Markham.

Cohasset, Conn., Oct. 15.—Henry P. Markham, a well known merchant of this place, died in a Middletown hospital today from pneumonia. Mr. Markham was a prominent democrat and represented his town in the general assembly. He was 65 years old and leaves a widow.

NEW BRITAIN.
Miss Emily J. Parker, a member of one of New Britain's oldest and leading families, is to become an Episcopal Sister. Five years ago she entered an Episcopal convent and has been a member of the same since that time. She is to take the veil. Miss Parker was formerly teacher in drawing in the state normal school.

Cabled Paragraphs

Genoa, Italy, Oct. 15.—Italy's third super-dreadnought, the Leonardo da Vinci, was successfully launched here yesterday.

Stockholm, Oct. 15.—It is probable that the Nobel prize will be awarded Maurice Maeterlinck, the Belgian author and playwright.

Rheims, France, Oct. 15.—Aviator Level, whose skull and spine were fractured when he fell with his machine here last Thursday, died yesterday.

Chiasso, Switzerland, Oct. 15.—Cholera conditions in Italy show no notable decrease in every section of the kingdom, according to an official bulletin issued by the Italian government.

Havana, Oct. 15.—A committee of leading Zayistas, composed of two senators and nine representatives, called on President Gomez and officially notified him that they possessed information of a conspiracy to assassinate Vice President F. Garcia, and Congressman Campos Marqueti. The last named is the most prominent colored Zayist.

Catania, Oct. 15.—An earthquake of brief duration occurred in Sicily today. The strongest shock was felt at Giarre, on the east base of Mount Etna, Macchie, Guardia, Roudineia, and Santa Venerina. At Guardia and Santa Venerina several houses collapsed and two persons were killed. At Macchia a church was demolished. Considerable damage was also done at Roudineia.

JUSTICE HARLAN'S FUNERAL TO BE HELD TOMORROW.
Interesting Anecdotes of Oldest Member of Supreme Bench.

Washington, Oct. 15.—The funeral of the late Justice John Marshall Harlan of the United States supreme court will be held here Tuesday afternoon from the New York Avenue Presbyterian church, with which the late jurist was long and prominently identified. The family so announced tonight. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Wallace Ruckliff, will officiate at the services, and the pallbearers will be the eight members of the United States supreme court. The interment, which will be private, will be in Rock Creek cemetery.

CONSTITUTIONAL PARTY.
Revolutionists So Style Themselves—Are Well Organized.

London, Oct. 15.—A Shanghai despatch to a London news agency says that Yuan Shi Kai, who has been recalled by the government and appointed viceroy of the provinces of Szechwan, has declined to accept the appointment unless it is accompanied by imperial guarantees of immediate constitutional measures, such as demanded by the leaders of the present agitation. The insurgents explain the attitude of the viceroy by the fact that he has styled himself the "constitutional party," contending that the existing constitution is being violated under the existing regime.

INSURGENTS WELL ORGANIZED.
The insurgents, the despatch says, are well organized and the leaders have their forces thoroughly in hand. All looting and lawlessness are mercifully repressed.

"You are such a good Presbyterian, Harlan," said Justice Peckham, "that I don't see why you are afraid to let me see your private correspondence." "I would not," responded Justice Harlan, "if I were sure that in the next world I would not turn up at dinner with my wife and the Justice Harlan chomped tobacco all his life. During the hearing by the supreme court of the tobacco trust case last year Justice Harlan told me that he had written a letter to the tobacco trust lawyers who were addressing the court that all the tobacco he bought these days was either spoiled or adulterated."

DOCTOR TIED WIFE TO TELEPHONE POLE.
Arrested and Subsequently Committed to Insane Asylum.

Patchogue, N. Y., Oct. 15.—Dr. William C. Willis of this place was committed to the insane asylum at Central Islip today. He was discovered early this morning on the outskirts of Bayport, near here, tying his sixteen-year-old wife to a telephone pole. She had apparently been dragged to the roadside from an automobile which stood nearby. The doctor was rescued and taken to a hotel where it was discovered that she was suffering from the effects of drugs and in a serious condition. Dr. Willis was arrested and later, after two physicians had examined into his mental condition, he was committed to the insane asylum.

GLIDDEN TOURISTS REACH GETTYSBURG.
Presented Souvenirs and Hear Lecture on Bloody Battle.

Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 15.—After having been delayed by heavy rains, people all along the way from Philadelphia to Gettysburg, the Glidden Tourists, who were expected to arrive here this afternoon, were met at the depot by a delegation of the first car checkers, and at 6 o'clock and the others followed in rapid succession.

MADERO CHOSEN AS MEXICO'S PRESIDENT.
Received the Unanimous Vote of the Electoral College.

Mexico City, Oct. 15.—Lacking only the ceremonies of the inauguration, Francisco I. Madero is president of the republic of Mexico. On new case also developed today.

FATAL FIGHT OVER A WOMAN.
Krupski, died in a local hospital today from lockjaw and his brother-in-law, Joseph Bumburski, is held without bail, charged with having caused his death. A week ago the two men engaged in a fight over the dear man's wife, who is the prisoner's wife, and Bumburski is alleged to have hit Krupski on the head with a dull knife or stone, inflicting a wound which caused his death today.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.
At Southampton: Oct. 15, Majestic, from New York.

Catholics Pay High Tribute

DO HONOR TO CARDINAL GIBBONS AT BALTIMORE.

ON THRONE OF THE VATICAN

Archbishop Farley Hopes to See Him Eventually Seated—Archbishop Ireland Expresses Gratitude to Taft.

Baltimore, Oct. 15.—In the cathedral here, where fifty years ago he was ordained a priest, and then successively consecrated a bishop and twenty years after his ordination, set the red biretta, a cardinal, James Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore, received homage today from all parts of this country and foreign lands.

A Pontifical High Mass.
The ecclesiastical celebration of the cardinal's jubilee began this morning with pontifical high mass, celebrated by the cardinal, with Rev. Dr. William A. Fletcher, rector of the cathedral, as deacon, and Rev. P. C. Gallivan, chancellor of the archdiocese, as sub-deacon. Archbishop John J. Glennon, president of the Baltimore diocese, which was an eloquent tribute to the head of the American church.

Music Chiefly Gregorian.
The music was chiefly Gregorian, though there were intervals of figured music, and orchestral instruments were employed in the choir, relieving to a certain extent the sombre color of the Gregorian chant.

Altar Ablaze With Candles.
The decorations were confined to the sanctuary. The main altar was ablaze with hundreds of candles and radiant with thousands of Bernadine lilies. Over the altar, with the dates of the jubilee, 1861, 1886 and 1911. Under them was the Latin motto, "Ab illo die in quo Dominus exiit de Aegypto in terra Aegypti." "Nine Archbishops in Procession." In the procession, which for impressiveness probably never has been surpassed in the history of the United States, America's twelve archbishops and about thirty bishops, included among the archbishops were Dionisio Falco, of Montreal, and Paul Bruchesi, of South Africa.

Three Civilians in Line.
There were three civilians in the line. They were W. E. Mankins of New York, who received the decoration of knighthood in the Order of St. Gregory at the hands of the pope. He wore a scarlet waistcoat, on which gleamed a number of jeweled decorations which he had received from the pope and Edward Du Mee of Philadelphia, both of whom wore the scarlet coats of apostolic chancellors and marched beside the apostolic delegate.

Hopes He May Live at Vatican.
In praising the cardinal for what he had accomplished in the United States, Archbishop John Ireland of St. Paul said that "if the cardinal were to remain in America, Archbishop John M. Farley of New York expressed the hope that eventually he would be seated upon the throne of the Vatican."

A Tribute to Taft.
In response to the toast to the president of the United States, Archbishop John Ireland of St. Paul said that "Taft is a knight in the Order of St. Gregory against Catholics, and that while he had given them no more than their due, they were grateful to him."

Evening Vespers.
Archbishop Falconio presided at the vespers in the cathedral tonight, and the sermon was delivered by Archbishop James Blenk of New Orleans.

TWO MORE VICTIMS OF TYPHOID EPIDEMIC.
Total Number of Deaths at Torrington Reaches Nineteen.

Torrington, Conn., Oct. 15.—The typhoid fever epidemic which has been in existence here since September 4th claimed two more victims today, making the total number of deaths nineteen. Those who died today were Helen Loomis, 4 years old, and Weston D. Miner, 33 years old. The little girl had been ill three weeks and the man for two. On new case also developed today.

Arkansas Town in Flames.
Port Smith, Ark., Oct. 15.—A telephone operator here tonight said that Bonanza, a town of two hundred inhabitants, fifteen miles east of this city, was afire. The telephone operator there telephoned to the local exchange that she was forced to flee because the fire was threatening the exchange. The cause of the fire was not ascertained. Communication with Bonanza was cut off at midnight.

Seven Killed In Collision

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT CRASH ON MISSOURI PACIFIC.

THE ORDERS MISUNDERSTOOD

Trains Met Near Omaha, Neb.—Twenty-two Injured, Four of Them Seriously—One Likely to Die.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 15.—Seven persons were killed and twenty-two injured, four of them seriously, in a collision between Missouri Pacific passenger train No. 116 northbound, and a fast freight at Port Crook, ten miles from here, this morning.

Misunderstanding of Orders.
The accident is believed to have resulted from a misunderstanding of orders by the freight crew. A relief train was sent to the scene of the accident at once, carrying railway surgeons. The slightly injured were sent on their way. The more seriously injured are at the army hospital at Port Crook.

List of the Dead.
Miss Frances Lillian Kanka, Washington, Kan.
W. W. Petring, merchant, Nebraska City.
O. W. Keeler, passenger brakeman, Atchison, Kan.
Mrs. Fred W. Rowtmann, Nebraska City.
Walter Rowtmann, eight years old, daughter of Mrs. Rowtmann.
A. W. Sprague, electrician, St. Joseph, Mo.
Unidentified colored woman.

The Seriously Injured.
The seriously injured include Fred W. Rowtmann, brakeman, Nebraska City, whose wife is among the killed, and John Scott, the passenger train engineer. They may die.

Train Employees Injured.
The seriously injured include two railway mail clerks and the passenger train fireman. Most of them are from cities in Kansas and Nebraska.

SUGAR INTERESTS TO WAR AGAIN.
Beet and Cane Men to Battle for Supremacy.

Colorado Springs, Col., Oct. 15.—That the statement by John Arbuckle, New York sugar rector, that he would resign, that he will go before congress next winter, to fight for free sugar, is the beginning of the first real battle between the beet sugar manufacturers and the cane sugar refiners, is the declaration of Clarence C. Hamilton, chairman of the executive committee of the United States Beet Sugar industry, in a statement made public here today.

DIES OF FRIGHT IN DENTIST'S CHAIR.
Young Woman Collapses When She Sees the Forceps.

Philadelphia, Oct. 15.—Miss Laura Townsend, 33 years old, of No. 1923 South Sixteenth street, died from fright yesterday afternoon in a dentist's chair at the office of Dr. Walter Paul. She had been troubled greatly with a molar and suffered severe pain. An examining dentist, Dr. Paul, decided to inject a small quantity of cocaine into the gum at the base of the tooth. After doing so the dentist picked up his forceps and approached the patient, who gazed at the gleaming instrument with open-eyed horror.

A BUSY SUNDAY FOR PRESIDENT TAFT.
Attends Church Service and Visits Numerous Places.

San Francisco, Oct. 15.—After two days of rest, President Taft left San Francisco tonight for Los Angeles.

Mack to Head New York Democracy.
Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 15.—The Express tomorrow will say: Norman E. Mack is scheduled to accept the nomination of the New York Democracy for the office of governor of New York. Mack is chairman of the democratic state committee. There will be a meeting of the committee on Wednesday at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Huppuch, and it is understood that Mr. Mack will then be elected.

Rev. H. A. J. Jump Resigns.
New Britain, Oct. 15.—At the morning services of the South Congregational church, the resignation of its pastor, Rev. Herbert A. Jump, was read by Rev. A. J. Lord of Meriden. The resignation takes effect in November, when Rev. Mr. Jump will remove to Oakland, Cal., to become pastor of the First Congregational church of that city.

Condensed Telegrams

Because of the Desert and the security of water, the campaign in Tripoli will be extremely hazardous.

Leaders in the ranks of the progressive element of the republican party will meet in conference in Chicago today.

By the Will of Cornelius N. Bliss, prator in New York, the entire real estate is left to the widow and children.

The American Tobacco Company, ordered by the federal supreme court to dissolve, will split into three separate and unaffiliated concerns.

A Campaign in the Interest of the present protective tariff law will be begun Tuesday by the Textile Manufacturers of Rhode Island.

The Chinese Rebel, Viceroy Tang, says the object of the revolt is to overthrow the Chinese government like that of the United States.

John R. Walsh, the former Chicago lawyer, was released from the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, on parole, shortly after noon Saturday.

To Study Means to Regulate the opium traffic, the international conference for the suppression of the trade will meet at The Hague on December 1.

Associate Justice John M. Harlan of the supreme court of the United States, died at his home in Washington Saturday of acute bronchitis. He was 78 years old.

Mrs. Andrew Paine was seriously injured and her home in Marlborough was peppered by rocks Saturday by the blasting of a ledge on the opposite side of the street.

An Indictment Charging Murder was returned by the grand jury against Joe Bill, an Italian fruit dealer of Hartford, Pa. He is charged with having killed his wife.

Dr. Lafayette I. Wolf, the first man to enter Port Sumner during the evacuation by the federal forces under Colonel Anderson, died at Atlanta, Ga., Saturday at the age of eighty.

Suits Claiming a total of $70,000 on a contract calling for the building of a cathedral were filed in the circuit court at Chicago Saturday against Clarence S. Funk by John Henning, who charged that Funk had alienated the affections of Henning's wife.

Martin V. Walls, aged 88, for many years a notable figure on the trotting tracks, died at his home in Columbus, O., Saturday. For 21 years Mr. Walls was one of the judges on the Grand Circuit.

A Nine Years Old Boy named Thomas F. Burke was struck and fatally injured by an automobile driven by Edward V. Flanagan, the son of a former Boston stock broker, at Newton, Mass., Saturday.

In its Dilemma the Chinese government has had to recall to power Yuan Shikai, former commander in chief of the army and man who was banished three years ago. He is regarded as the strongest man in China.

Representative Edward B. Vreeland of New York announced last night that the hearings of the national monetary commission, which he is vice chairman, will begin at the Hotel Plaza in New York at 11 o'clock this morning.

Ortie E. McManigal, alleged dynamiter, on whose confession the prosecution in the McManigal trials expects convictions, which he is vice chairman of the American Tobacco company, Saturday, his wife, Emma McManigal, charged extreme and repeated cruelty.

At the Morning Service of the Bristol Baptist church yesterday a deficit of $2,500 in the church's finances was wiped out, was such a proudest occasion in the history of the church since its organization.

After Drifting More Than Twenty miles in a disabled and unmanageable boat on Lake Champlain, W. C. Walker, of Burlington, Vt., were blown ashore in their craft on the New York shore of the lake.

Fire Capt. Timothy J. Brown of Washington was instantly killed, while Michael Dowd, a mortally injured in a fire which swept the warehouse of the American Tobacco company, Sixth street and Pennsylvania avenue, Saturday.

Judge Vandenberg in St. Louis set aside a divorce decree obtained by Charles A. Stevenson, actor-husband of Kate Claxton, the actress who starred in The Two Orphans, declaring that the divorce was null and void on account of a conspiracy and perjury.

Many Italians Are Destitute

TURKISH BOYCOTT BEGINNING TO BE FELT.

COLONY OF 10,000 SUFFERS

Turkish Infantry Attacks Italian Outposts at Tripoli—Turkish Soldiers Complain of Munshir Pasha.

Rome, via the frontier, Oct. 15.—News of the attack by the Turkish infantry upon the Italian outposts at Tripoli yesterday has been received with great interest here because it was the Italian soldiers first act of violence after fifteen years of peace.

Behaved Like Veterans.

Official advices say that the young soldiers behaved like veterans and that they were with difficulty prevented from pursuing the enemy. The officers, however, feared a trap in the darkness and would permit no pursuit.

Turkish Soldiers Disatisfied.

Wounded Turks, who are being cared for in the Italian hospital tents, say the conditions under which they are being treated are the cause of much dissatisfaction. The supplies are short and there are about 200 wounded soldiers in the Turkish encampment.

15,000 More Italian Soldiers.

It is expected that at least twenty transports will reach Tripoli late tonight. They will carry 15,000 Italian men, members of the general staff, 200 carabinieri to reinforce the gendarmerie, several aeroplanes, chaplains, automobile vans, constructed for work in the desert, and a large sum of money. A hospital ship is with the transports. It is capable of accommodating 250 patients and is intended to charge of Prince Colonna, ex-mayor of Rome.

Turkish Boycott Hurts.
Industrial centers are beginning to feel the Turkish boycott against Italian products. Grain merchants, cotton and silk exporters and manufacturers of war machines are particularly affected. The boycott also is causing the suspension of considerable work and labor troubles are feared.

Italians Made Destitute by Boycott.

Rome, Oct. 15.—A despatch from Smyrna to the Corriere d'Italia says that the colony of 10,000 Italians there is in a precarious position. All Italian railroad companies have been disarmed and the Italian port workers are being boycotted. Neapolitan fishing boats in the harbor have been seized and numerous families are destitute. A worse fate is feared for large numbers of Italian workmen in the interior of Anatolia.

FIVE ASPHYXIATED IN TORONTO HOTEL.
All of Victims Were Laborers and But One Was Undressed.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 15.—Five men were killed by gas asphyxiation in the Occidental hotel on Dundas street early today. They were all laborers and four of them had not even removed their clothing. When they were found this morning gas was escaping from a small boiler in a small boiler as well. The victims are: Samuel Reed, 32; George H. Knowles, 45; George Williams, 45; William Allen, 41; William Allen, 48. The first four were sleeping in one room, where the open gas jet was found, and Allen was in an adjacent room. He was undressed and had been seen about the hotel since.

LA FOLLETTE FOR THE PRESIDENCY.
Progressive League to Meet Today to Launch His Boom.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Friends of Senator La Follette became active again with the arrival in this city of delegates to attend the conference of the National Republican Progressive League tomorrow.

PORTUGUESE ROYALISTS INCREASE ACTIVITY.
Bands of Them Marching West Toward the Sea.

Lisbon, Oct. 15.—While official advices say that the royalist movement has been broken, news from other sources indicates that the royalists are displaying increasing activity. The main cause of this is the arrival of the Spanish royalist leader, who has been seen on both sides of the frontier. Royalist bands are now advancing westward, apparently with the object of striking the sea. The Spanish authorities have sent cavalry from Coruna to protect the frontier.

CLOTHING CAUGHT FROM A BONFIRE.
Mother of Several Small Children Fatally Burned.

Hartford, Oct. 15.—It was stated at St. Francis' hospital tonight that there was no chance for the recovery of Mrs. Nellie Heywood, who was burned late Saturday. Mrs. Heywood attempted to stir up a bonfire in her back yard with her feet and her clothing caught fire. Before the flames could be extinguished the clothing was burned from her body. She has a husband and several children.

A REAL DAUGHTER.
Mrs. Baldwin's Father Fought in Revolutionary War.

Sarah Ludlow chapter, D. A. R., of Ansonia, at its meeting at the home of Mrs. S. P. Sanford in Oxford, Thursday afternoon, was informed of the fact that it has residing within its jurisdiction a real daughter of the American Revolution. She is Mrs. George Baldwin, whose home is on the Great Hill road, where she has lived for many years. Mrs. Baldwin's father was Moses Sperry, a soldier in the war for American independence. She is eighty-seven years of age.

Price Report. The Pacific coast terminal of the Grand Trunk Pacific railroad, lies 600 miles north of Vancouver.