FINE SHOW AT THE AUDITORIUM TODAY.

Everyone nowadays is looking for the most they can get for their money and this is the reason why the steady flow of patrons to the Auditorium. The show offered at this popular house is a complete picture show, a complete picture show and a complete vaudeville programme.
For the first time in a week, the vaudeville offers the following acts: Les Valadons, aerial bicycle wonders, offer some interesting and hair-raising feats on the silver wire. Les Valadons perform feats on a swinging wire on a bicycle. The bicycle riders would care to attempt, even on the solid earth. One trick that is worthy of special mention is that of riding a single wheel on the wire, with the rim detached, riding only on the spokes.
Blanche Albrach, a talented young lady, presents a lightning change act that is a marvel of quickness and originality. Miss Albrach's songs are all especially selected, and her costume the best money can buy.
The people who do that funny "robo-tastic" walk, is the way that Baxter and his companions, in their profession, and when you see this all-around dance you will see where they get their reputation. The critics in all the theatrical papers have pronounced in praise of this act, and the patrons of the Auditorium will receive large measure of satisfaction from this act.
The Auditorium is the only house in this city that can show the famous "Flyer". This is the only show ever known to be the only real Western film made by a Western firm. The "Flyer" is a story of a man who was a member of the West, and it is safe to say there is nothing better in this line. Attention, Farmers!
DOLLARS BONUS

For Fattest and Biggest Turkey Raised $10.00
Next Best $5.00
Third $5.00

The Bulletin proposes to capture the three fattest and largest turkeys raised in the county for the Thanksgiving market in Windham and New London Counties.

This advertisement will be read by 50,000 people, and there are many among that number who are contemplating purchasing a FARM, because a farm is something that cannot fall nor disappear, for it brings to its owner both contentment and profit, and as I have in my employ under yearly contract a Photographer, Civil Engineer, Lawyer and Analytical Chemist, you get the benefit of costly experiments and the best legal advice, giving the purchaser a chemical analysis of the soil and an absolutely perfect title. I make a specialty of New England Farms and Country Estates, and if after viewing properties on my list you purchase a place, remember I pay all your expenses from the time you leave home until you return for any distance not over 100 miles.
Exceptional bargains in Washington and New London Counties. Of the 400 on my list I quote a few:
This is all I ask for a cozy home consisting of a cottage house, seven rooms, good cellar, barn, crib and good wood, farm well watered, barn, crib, spring, water, place situated in good neighborhood, 1/2 mile to church, school and trolley, only 4 miles to Westerly, R. I. R. F. D.
76 acre farm, 300 cords of standing wood, some fruit, level land, small stream, well watered, barn, crib, falling water at house and in pastures, well situated, only 4 miles to Westerly, R. I. R. F. D.
In Hopkinton, R. I., I have a farm consisting of 18 acres, containing 100 apple, pear and peach trees, 2000 strawberry plants, asparagus bed, abundance of wood, farm well watered, barn, crib, wagon shed and nearly new nine room house, surrounded by beautiful trees. This is one of the best bargains ever offered. It is yours for $1,250.

STONINGTON. Saloons to Close After Today—Many Guests at Coon Supper—Body of Charles H. Pendleton Brought from Brooklyn for Burial.

The board of Warden and burgesses met last week and the usual number of bills were introduced. The matter of the removal of the floopole at the corner of Pearl and Water streets was brought up, and it was decided to take it down this afternoon. The board also permitted Mechanics' band the use of Borough hall one night for an entertainment which it intends to give provided the band pay the electric light bill, etc. Streets and street work were matters that were discussed.

Score a Tie. Stonington High school football team held the Oxford eleven down to a tie, 9 to 9, in an excellent game Friday afternoon, and the same teams will meet again this afternoon. The High School Athletic association expects to have both a boys and girls' basketball teams in trim this winter, as there seems to be much interest manifested by both boys and girls, and it is hoped that the girls' team will be organized by the girls of Westerly before long.

Saloons to Close. All the saloons in the town of Stonington will close their doors tonight (Monday), their year's license having expired. The license was declared null and void as a result of a hearing before Judge Reed in New London recently.

Burial of Charles H. Pendleton. The body of Charles H. Pendleton, who died in Brooklyn Tuesday, was brought to Stonington for burial. The funeral services were held at the home of his widow, Mrs. M. P. Pendleton, on Friday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. C. J. Mason, rector of Calvary Episcopal church. The bearers were Messrs. Pendleton, Charles, Pendleton, Herman Atwood, Lucian Pendleton and Dr. W. H. Thompson.

AT POLK'S THEATER. Today is welcome day for Miss Victoria Montgomery upon her return to the position of leading woman of the Polk Players, and at both the afternoon and night performances handsome postcard souvenirs of Miss Montgomery will be presented to the ladies attending. The play, "A Woman's Way," is strictly high class comedy for laughing purposes only, with not a dull or gloomy spot in it. It will also show some of the handsomest scenery, some of the brightest stage pictures and some of the prettiest scenery ever here this season. From the way it has gone at other theatres it seems safe to predict that it will be one of the big hits of the season and that Miss Montgomery is in the leading role in every particular. In fact, by giving the week's leading lady a success in every particular. In fact, by giving the week's leading lady a success in every particular.
