

MASSACHUSETTS RE-ELECTS FOSS

Frothingham Defeated For Governor by a Greatly Reduced Plurality

LEGISLATURE STILL REPUBLICAN

Pothier Re-elected in Rhode Island by Increased Plurality—Kentucky Goes Democratic—Big Socialist Sweep at Schenectady—Bridgeport Elects Republican Mayor—Republicans Claim Maryland—Other Elections.

Elections held yesterday in many states and cities throughout the country resulted in the election of democratic governors in Massachusetts, Kentucky and Mississippi, a republican governor in Rhode Island, a republican assembly in New York will challenge the countenance of Governor Dix's policies; a legislature in New Jersey probably will be headed by Governor Woodrow Wilson, and the results of the state elections in Maryland and New Mexico still in doubt.

In Massachusetts Governor Foss, democrat, was elected by a reduced plurality of 7,734 over Louis A. Frothingham, republican. The contest was unexpectedly close, and early returns indicated Governor Foss' defeat. The candidate for lieutenant governor was elected by 7,000 majority, and other state candidates are probably elected.

In Rhode Island Governor Pothier, republican, is re-elected. Louis A. Waterman, democrat, by a greatly increased plurality. The state senate is solidly republican and the assembly largely republican.

New York state furnishes one of the chief surprises of the election, reversing the present democratic majority of 24 in the state assembly and electing a republican majority of 59 upwards.

In New York city Tammany's control was shaken but not overcome, that organization's candidates in Manhattan and the Bronx being elected, while those in Brooklyn and Queens county were defeated by fusion candidates.

New Jersey furnished a like surprise by the reversal of control of the legislature. The returns at midnight indicated republican majorities in the senate and the assembly.

In Kentucky James B. McCreary, democrat, was elected governor by a majority estimated at 39,000 to 40,000. A democratic legislature also was elected, which insures the choice of Congressman Ollie James as United States senator.

Mississippi elected a democratic governor and state officers by a decisive majority.

Returns up to midnight on the state election of Philip Lee Goldsborough, republican candidate for governor by 5,000 majority over Arthur E. Governor, democrat, while counter claims of democratic success were also made in Maryland.

The Ohio municipal elections resulted in the election of democratic winners in Cincinnati, Cleveland and probably Columbus.

In New Mexico the democratic state committee claims the election of MacDonald for governor by 4,500 in the first election which the new state has had. The election of MacDonald is not conceded and the result is in doubt. The election of a republican legislature was indicated, which will mean the election of two republican United States senators.

Marked socialist strength has developed at various points, notably in several of the municipalities of Ohio, where eight cities elected socialist mayors, also in Schenectady, N. Y., where a socialist delegate to the state assembly was elected, and in Mississippi, where the socialist candidate for lieutenant governor polled a considerable vote.

FOSS PULLS THROUGH.

Present Governor Re-elected—Luca for Lieutenant-Governor.

Boston, Nov. 7.—On the face of complete returns, democrats won the state election today, the republicans won the party column by continuing Governor Eugene N. Foss in office for a second term. The returns gave Foss, democrat, 312,828. Foss' plurality, 7,734. Last year Foss won by 35,000.

The republicans had elected Robert Luca for lieutenant governor and probably the remainder of the party ticket.

A Very Narrow Margin.

The margin of victory today was one of the narrowest in years and for many hours after the close of the polls the result hung in the balance. Republicans refused to concede the defeat of Lieutenant Governor Louis A. Frothingham as late as midnight, and at that time it was intimated that a wide recount might be necessary.

Legislature Remains Republican.

It was expected that because of an off year the vote would fall off considerably, but the reverse was maintained. The makeup of the remainder of the state ticket was still in doubt at midnight, although both branches of the legislature were apparently republican.

Foss Calls It "Boodle Campaign."

Governor Foss issued the following statement: "The people have won this second great victory over machine rule in spite of the most scandalous boodle campaign ever waged in this state. I shall secure a law forbidding the employment of paid workers at the polls and compelling the pre-election statement of all expenses.

For Honest Revision of Tariff.

"I am grateful to have my party and to the thousands loyal independent voters who have worked hard and earnestly for this victory. Massachusetts has spoken unmistakably for an honest revision of the tariff and for a business administration of the commonwealth. The national significance of this election is inestimable; the rest of the country will follow the lead of Massachusetts."
