

EXTRA SPECIALS

- SWEET, JUICY ORANGES, doz. 25c
CONCORD GRAPES, lb. 15c
FANCY GRAPE FRUIT, 3 for 25c
MALAGA GRAPES, lb. 10c
FANCY SPINACH, pk. 25c
HUBBARD SQUASH, lb. 3c
YELLOW TURNIPS, pk. 20c
RED CABBAGE, lb. 5c
CAULIFLOWER, each 10c
WHITE SQUASH, each 15c

SOMERS

MR. H. T. MILLER'S School for Dancing
28 OAK STREET.
Classes Saturday: Beginners, 2 p. m.
Advanced, 7:45 p. m.

Arcotics and Storm Alaskas
The warm waterproof and comfortable Overboots. All sizes, best makes, lowest prices.
FRANK A. BILL,
Telephone, 104 Main Street.

The Plant-Cadden Co., OPTICIANS.
The value of glasses is all in the "know how" without which they are simply metal or glass—Worth so much per pound.
Come in and let us satisfy you as to our real ability.
Shur-On Eyeglasses are Good
PLAUT-CADDEN BUILDING

THE BEST ON THE MARKET
SHELLED CORN
There is no better shelled corn on the market than ours. One trial will convince you of that fact. It's sound and sweet, no moisture or rot, and is clean as it is possible to have it. We want you to try some the next time you are in the market for shelled corn.

CHAS. SLOSBERG, 3 Cove St.
BE PROGRESSIVE
Use the Mails.
Typewritten Letters Bring Business.
GET

The Writerpress
METHOD.
Notices, Postals, Announcements, all kinds of Printing at reasonable rates.
MISS JEWETT,
Public Stenographer and Shorthand Teacher,
283 Main Street.

Stew Bouillon Cubes
Vigour Bouillon Cubes
Armour's Beef Extract
Marshall's Beef Extract
Just the thing for this weather.

People's Market
6 Franklin St.
JUSTIN HOLDEN, Prop.

Don't Buy
YOUR...
Christmas Cards,
Holiday Letters
Calendars

without first examining our assortment, as we surely have the finest line ever, and this is not only our opinion, but the verdict of those who have been the rounds.

A Most Complete Variety of Holiday Seals and Tags,
Holiday Gift Boxes, Etc.
No trouble to show you our goods.

CRANSTON & CO.
There is no advertising medium in Eastern Connecticut equal to The Bulletin for business results.

The Bulletin
Norwich, Friday, Dec. 8, 1911.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Town clerks are receiving supplies of the public acts of the last general assembly, for distribution.
Christmas gifts galore at the Woman's Exchange. A large variety, and new ones every day.—adv.
Christmas packages for foreign countries are being received at the post office, and the foreign money order business is increasing daily.

Norwich Town chapel sale, 7 to 10 p. m., Dec. 8. Fancy work, home made food and candy. Entertainment 8 p. m. Admission, 10 cents.—adv.

The White Ribbon Banner states that plans are materializing for medal contests in Shelton, East Hampton, Burnside, Waterbury and Willimantic.
Two valuable books recently received at the Otis library are P. T. Hill's 'On the Trail' and Lee and Gen. Nelson A. Miles' 'Serving the Republic.'

In several Connecticut towns there is snow enough to require coasting in northern Windham county there has been no snow of any account.

A Mystic correspondent notes that Rev. A. C. Jones has returned from State hospital, and is continuing improvement in her condition.
Thursday was the feast of St. Ambrose. Today there will be special masses in the Catholic churches on the feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Miss Camilla Smith of Waterford has accepted a position as teacher in Montville Center school, made vacant by the resignation of Miss Susan Shepard of New Haven.

An appeal has been made to Episcopalians of the state by the nominating committee on the distribution of the Book of Common Prayer which is in need of funds to carry on its work.

There has been 15 violent deaths in Connecticut during the first five days of December. Of this total 12 were accidental and three suicidal. Of the former five were on the railroad, an average of one a day.

Twenty young people of Montville participated in an old-fashioned kitchen dance at Alliance Point Tuesday evening given by Miss Ida Perkins. The trip across the Thames was made in Charles Boles' launch.

Work on the two new steamers being built at the state yard at Norwich for Avery C. Smith of Norwich is progressing rapidly and they will be ready for delivery in the early spring.

Wednesday evening Ledyard council, O. E. S. M., of New London had a visitation from a delegation from America council, of Montville, one of the speeches being by Councilor O. C. Walden of Montville.

One of two Norwich visitors in Hartford Thursday dropped in to Jewell hall, where the annual fair of the Connecticut Children's Aid society is in progress. Miss Nannie B. Ward of Norwich has charge of the children's table.

Alton T. Miner of New London has filed a libel in the United States court against the steamer A. M. Hathaway, now in New London. He claims $623.50 for attorney and provisions furnished between April and November of this year.

In the Roman Catholic church, marriages are not celebrated in Advent. The Gloria in Excelsis and the Te Deum are not sung on feast days, and the Ite, Missa Est at the close of mass is replaced by Benedicamus Domino.

School officers have filed with the state comptroller reports of enumerations of children of school age as follows: Stonington 2,131; Old Lyme, consolidated, 255; Woodstock 374; Ledyard 221; East Lyme 265; Old Saybrook, consolidated, 269.

The James E. Fuller place at No. 103 McKinley avenue has been sold by Nicholas Tarrant to William B. Disco, who will reside there. Fuller and family moving to Norwich Town. Mr. Fuller is ill at the present time at the Backus hospital.

George C. Strong of New London, who has been at a Worcester hospital recovering from an operation, is so far recovered as to be able to leave the institution, which will be gratifying news to his many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Strong will remain in Worcester.

Funeral services of the late Mrs. Elizabeth M. Wheeler, widow of Henry Tyler, were held at Mr. Tyler's home in Groton, Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. Burial was in Elm Grove cemetery in New York and the funeral proceeded to that place by way of the trolley line.

A number of Swedish residents of Connecticut were in the big party sailing from New York Wednesday on S. S. United States, of the Scandinavian-American line, for Sweden, to spend Christmas in their native land, where the holiday festivities continue for a week or more.

Walter I. Woodman, trustee of the National Boat and Engine Co., of West Mystic, has applied to Fremont J. C. Little, referee in bankruptcy in the district of the United States, for the district of Maine, for permission to sell the property of the bankrupt company, either at auction or private sale.

An interesting series of experiments have been carried out at the state agricultural college at Storrs, demonstrating that, of an ear of corn the highest percentage of germination is from the kernels at the upper half of the ear, the tips and butts being almost useless for planting purposes.

A Norwich merchant said Thursday that nothing helps trade so much as the prompt payment of small bills, just at this time, when ready money is needed for holiday stocks. The rich customer who waits for January dividends is not nearly so helpful as the middle class buyer who pays cash.

Not every concern has complied with the new state law, requiring proprietors of business establishments conducted under assumed names to file with the town clerk the names and addresses of the person conducting the business. The cost of registering is 25 cents, while the penalty for failing to comply with the law is a fine of not more than $500, or imprisonment for not more than one year.

OBITUARY.

Fred Clarke.
Providence, Dec. 7.—Fred Clarke, salesman and trainer, who was formerly well known on the Grand Central and New England tracks, died at his home at Pawtucket Neck tonight, after an illness of several months. His was due to paralysis.

Workmen's Compensation Bill.
Washington, Dec. 7.—The employers' liability commission has progressed so far with its work of preparing a workmen's compensation bill that it has now called a meeting for December 14 to consider the merits of the measure.

PERSONAL

L. M. Wing of Springfield, Mass., is making a brief visit with friends in this city.
Miss Grace Pike was a recent guest at L. W. Hammond's at Hampton Station.

Charles S. Carver of Williamsville has been visiting relatives in Norwich the past week.
Joseph S. Havens of Quaker Hill returns today (Friday) from a week's visit to friends in Boston.

Station Agent and Mrs. Walter Goodell of Unsworthville are entertaining the former's sister, Miss Laura Goodell of Dwight, Mass.
Louis Mason, who has been employed several months in Woodstock, Vt., has returned here to reside and is employed in this city.

William Whitmarsh and Miss Lottie Darrus of Trading Cove have returned from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darrows of Hartford.
A Groton correspondent states that Mrs. Matrella Kelly has returned to her home in Richmond after a three weeks' visit with Mrs. Frank Sleeper on Monument street.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Watson, who were Thanksgiving guests of their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Stephens of Norwich, Mass., have returned to their home in Chestnut Hill.
Mrs. Theodore Phillips has returned to her home in Providence after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. James M. Hanover. Mr. Phillips was for years a resident of Norwich Town.

The many friends of Mrs. Harriet E. Williams who underwent an operation two weeks ago at the Backus hospital will be pleased to learn that she has improved greatly and has left the hospital.
Mrs. Eunice B. Kinney of Scott Hill celebrated her 95th birthday on Sunday, November 26, at the Backus hospital for a woman of her age. Her niece, Miss M. Nellie Adams of Burlington, who has been visiting the past month with her, returned home this week.

W. Harrison Caruthers of Dayton, Ohio, is visiting his parents, Postmaster and Mrs. William Caruthers. For the past eight months Mr. Caruthers has been with an automobile company in Dayton, having previously been with the well known cash register manufacturers. He is much interested in the section of the middle west, both as a place of residence and for its business opportunities. Mr. Caruthers will be at his home here until after Christmas, he expects.

Mrs. Theodore Phillips has returned to her home in Providence after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. James M. Hanover. Mr. Phillips was for years a resident of Norwich Town.

The many friends of Mrs. Harriet E. Williams who underwent an operation two weeks ago at the Backus hospital will be pleased to learn that she has improved greatly and has left the hospital.

Mrs. Eunice B. Kinney of Scott Hill celebrated her 95th birthday on Sunday, November 26, at the Backus hospital for a woman of her age. Her niece, Miss M. Nellie Adams of Burlington, who has been visiting the past month with her, returned home this week.

W. Harrison Caruthers of Dayton, Ohio, is visiting his parents, Postmaster and Mrs. William Caruthers. For the past eight months Mr. Caruthers has been with an automobile company in Dayton, having previously been with the well known cash register manufacturers. He is much interested in the section of the middle west, both as a place of residence and for its business opportunities. Mr. Caruthers will be at his home here until after Christmas, he expects.

LETTERS DISTRIBUTED IN THE WRONG WAY.

Bit Broke When Rural Carrier Tooker Was on His Route.
Love letters, picture postals, newspapers and the other things that make up the usual mail were ruthlessly strewn along the road from Montville to Palmettown Thursday morning when the horse drawing the rural free carrier wagon ran away, threw the carrier, Fred Tooker, out into the road and demolished the mail wagon. Mr. Tooker was severely shaken and brought a badly cut hand and a bruised thigh.
The runaway occurred about 9 o'clock. Mr. Tooker drove up on the Palmettown road near the Palmer Memorial school, to talk to a friend. As he did the bit broke and the horse dashed up the road, scattering the mail. Mr. Tooker was tossed out and the horse continued on its wild dash up the road, leaving love letters and less romantic mail in its wake. In a field, near the residence of Bernard Johnson, the horse collided with one of J. D. Langroy's cows, and was severely damaged. When last heard of the mail horse was turning down the back road toward Quaker Hill.

The next horse that is put on the Montville mail route will be obliged first to pass civil service, particularly that part relating to runaways, for Montville mailmen want to take no chances on having their mail scattered on rustic bridges or into village brooks.

WILLIAM KOSKI ADMITS HE WAS THE BURGLAR
Sum of $44 Recovered When He Was Taken Where He Had Hidden It.
In the city court on Thursday morning, William Koski was presented, charged with burglary, but the case was continued until today. Koski was arrested for breaking into the store of the A. S. Spaulding Co. in Franklin street, Tuesday night, and was under suspicion at the time. He denied it entirely when first taken into custody on Wednesday morning but weakened on Thursday and admitted the break and told that if he was allowed to go back with an officer he would show where he had hidden the money. They took them over $44 in bills and silver. He had spent the remainder of it, claiming that what he took amounted to $57. Koski has been in the same business before, having gotten into the Robinson bakery in Franklin street two years ago and took therefrom over $18. He was arrested and bound over to the superior court, where he was given six months in jail, and was suspended and he was put in care of the probation officer and behaved so that he was not obliged to serve any time. He is 23 years old, is single, said does not like to work. He had been in the Spaulding store in the evening previous to the break, and was thoroughly acquainted with the place.

Sold Bad Grapes.
Two peddlers who were selling baskets of grapes from the upper half of the streets on Thursday, disposed of one basket to a young man who took the caution to open it before he got away. The result was that he found a mass of mouldy grapes. Upon asking to have the basket exchanged he had trouble with the seller, with the result that he took the matter to the police. Chief Murphy had the peddler brought to headquarters, and advised him to give the boy the best basket of grapes he had for that money or his money back. The boy wanted the grapes and he got them.

Thinks Gift or Resolutions Proper.
An appreciative woman writes The Bulletin that, being one of a large number who has been water from the Lester well in Warren street since the water famine of a year ago, she thinks inasmuch as there has been no change there, and it is getting near Christmas, that it would be proper to show her appreciation for the use of the well by some little gift or resolution and is willing to do her share.

Work by Franklin Chapter.
At the regular convention of Franklin chapter, No. 4, R. A. M., at Masonic temple, on Thursday evening, there were work in the M. M. degree. There was a good sized attendance.
At the next meeting of the chapter, which will be in January, a visitation from the grand officers is expected.

Plant's Lamb Wins Blue Ribbon.
At the international stock show at New London yesterday a yearling Shropshire lamb, owned by Morton F. Plant, was given the blue ribbon.

INCREASED COURTHOUSE INSURANCE

Under the New Plan the Total Amount is $240,000 Distributed Among 20 Agents—Increases Cost About $300.

An increase in the insurance on the courthouse here was made as the result of the petition of the local fire insurance agents for some of the business, which expired on Thursday, December 7. The matter had been before the executive committee several times, and it was referred to Alderman Beeley to confer with the town and county authorities regarding the change, and to put the matter through, if there was no objection. The town and county authorities made no objection to the plan which was proposed by the executive committee, and on Thursday the insurance was renewed. There was about $100,000 of the total of $140,000 carried which expired on Thursday, but that which did not expire was cancelled and new insurance written for the entire building, so that it will all expire now in three years.

The insurance is now $240,000 on the building and furnishings, and it was divided among the 20 insurance agents here, so that each has $12,000 of it, the forms furnished by the rate committee of the local board of fire underwriting, being used.

Under the old insurance of $140,000 there was the flat rate of 1.43 a thousand, but the new insurance is taken out under the 80 per cent. clause, which cost is 1 per cent. of the total, or $2,400, plus 10 cents for three years. At the end of the first year it is possible to cancel such a part of it as will bring a third of it due each year, instead of making it necessary to pay it all every three years.

By the new plan in case of a loss the city will receive more money from the insurance than under the old. The insurance is paid by the city, town and county, the policies being made out in that order. The cost of the insurance by this change is about $300 more, but it was considered that the increased amount warranted it. The insurance is divided as follows: Building $220,000, fixtures $20,000, which are considered the sound value of the property.

THIRD COMPANY HELD ITS SECOND SOCIAL

Large Patronage at the Armory Following Drill—School at New London Tonight.

Following the drill of the Third company at the armory on Thursday evening, the second of its series of socials was held, at which there were over 100 in attendance. Lang's orchestra furnished music and delightful time was enjoyed.

There were two recruits received into the company Thursday evening, and another one is on the way. The recruits were from the two local companies who go to New London to attend the school of instruction.

Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here on Thursday for the purpose of looking over the armory and getting an idea how the work is done in this state, that he can make recommendations for Rhode Island, and on Thursday, Lieut.-Colonel Gathel, U.S.A., who has been appointed inspector-in-chief of Rhode Island, with Major Arthur Nash of Westerly, were here