POLL'S NEXT WEEK

"Hello, Bill," a Bright and Breezy Comedy.

When "A Stranger in a Strange Land" was presented at Poll's theater by the Poll Stock company, a short time ago, the general verdict pronounced that it was the funniest play ever presented in this city. It is a safe prediction that "Hello, Bill," to be offered by the Poll players next week, is a funnier farce comedy all around, and that it will surely strike the keynote of happiness to those who will be fortunate enough to see it. When presented in New York city for the first time thousands proclaimed it one of the biggest laughing hits of the season.

Laughs are so frequent that one can hardly keep composure when witnessing this play. The more you see and hear it only makes one eager for more.

The dialogue also is bright and breezy throughout the entire run of the play, while the action and the plot is of such a nature that the more you see and hear it only makes one eager for more.

"Hello, Bill," will surely amuse all, and in the hands of the Poll players it will receive a proper interpretation, each and every member of the company being cast to good advantage, and giving a good performance.

Another feature regarding "Hello, Bill," is the fact that it will introduce and feature Roger Barker, the new leading man, in a role without characterization, and will give local theatrical lovers an inkling just how his Barker is. Barker is a well known actor of reputation and experience; he should get the most out of his part.

Joseph McGinty will also appear next week for the first time. He was specially engaged to render illustrated songs, and has been featured in Poll's Stock company in Wilkesbarre, Pa., and previous to that with Richard Carle for several seasons. He is a singer with a splendid baritone voice, and a personality that readily appeals.

The two songs next week are "Make Me Love You Like I Love You," and "Sunshine." The moving pictures will also be featured between the acts.

BREED THEATER

Arrah-Na-Pogue, Three Real Christmas Day Feature.

A holiday treat is in store for the patrons of the Breed for Christmas day and the day following, such as is without a parallel in the history of the moving picture business in the city of Norwich.

It is the wonderful story of Irish Irish taken exactly on the spot during the first half of Christmas week, and according to all advance reports it should be a corker. Menzies, Bennett and Brown, the former the world's champion walker and the latter the champion runner of New England, will head the cast. The story is entirely new to everybody. They have two walking machines on the stage at every performance which register on a special clock attached to the machine of one mile. Mr. Bennett will meet all comers in these walking matches. When the match is over, the hill Christmas day also, and as a pair of blackface comedians they are hard to beat. The headline "Billie Jones has a very interesting as well as funny picture which shows up the good advantage many of the big league players. It has been secured for Monday and Tuesday only. On Christmas day it will be on at 2 p. m. and the show will run continuously until 4.45.

CHRISTMAS AT THE AUDITORIUM

An especially arranged high price vaudeville bill has been secured for the first half of Christmas week, and according to all advance reports it should be a corker. Menzies, Bennett and Brown, the former the world's champion walker and the latter the champion runner of New England, will head the cast. The story is entirely new to everybody. They have two walking machines on the stage at every performance which register on a special clock attached to the machine of one mile. Mr. Bennett will meet all comers in these walking matches. When the match is over, the hill Christmas day also, and as a pair of blackface comedians they are hard to beat. MAY IRMIN'S NEW SONGS

When May Irwin appears at the Lyceum theater, New London, next Thursday in her new comedy, "She Knows How to Sing," she will be introducing a new repertoire of songs, which were written especially for her. Her three most important songs numbers are called "The Rag Time Rocking Bird," "Straight Back to Dixie," and "The Brand New Girl." The author of the "Rag Time Rocking Bird" is the world's most famous composer, "Alexander's Rag Time Band." It is scarcely necessary to speak of May Irwin's singing ability in the rendering of song songs. Her subtle reading, her fine sense of humor, her utter lack of coyness, give her songs a charm and an attractive character that only May Irwin can impart.

The famous comedy star has the most able supporting cast this season that her managers have ever assembled for her. Her new vehicle, which she has written, "The Rag Time Rocking Bird," is a satirical farce written by Agnes Christina, a young woman graduate of Radcliffe college.
