

Murray's Boston Store WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

Annual Clearance Sale

With every counter filled with good meritable merchandise and each one marked at a third less the regular price. It is to your advantage to visit this store to do your Saturday shopping.

Here are a few articles we mentioned that may interest you.

SPECIAL IN DRESSES

These dresses are thoroughly well-made of good quality materials and presented from several of the leading manufacturers and coming from us should be sufficient recommendation as to their meritable quality.

- Merze, Henrietta, Crupe and Messaline. $25.00 quality at $12.50. $30.00 quality at $15.00. A special line of better grade dresses in Serge, Silk and Cotton, worth $22.50 and $25.00, now $17.50.

DRESS GOODS

Thousands of dollars' worth of new staple, desirable Dress Goods at a big reduction.

- Crepe Silks in Taffeta, Peau-de-Sole, Messaline, Gros Grain and Peau-de-Soye. $50 quality at 75c a yard. $1.00 quality at 85c a yard. $1.25 quality at $1.10 a yard.

LACES AND VEILINGS

All Laces and Veilings, embroidered and drawn work, worth 50c, 75c and $1.00, now at 35c.

Special prices on Hosiery, Insertions, Headings of Lace or Muslin. Neckwear and Hosiery reduced.

THE H. C. MURRAY COMPANY

Useful Gifts Adopt a Plan

A definite plan is the foundation of success in saving. It doesn't make much difference what the plan of saving is, so long as it's systematic. Some people never spend the dimes they get—they put them in a convenient home savings bank.

Some men shave themselves and drop into the bank the money they would have to pay the barber. Others walk to the office and save the carfare.

You can select any plan which suits you. Regularity in your saving is the essential thing.

One dollar opens an account and starts your savings earning interest. BEGIN NOW.

Special Bargains In Dolls, Toys, Books and Holiday Goods to close them out at once.

LESS THAN COST PRICES.

THE T. R. SADD CO. Willimantic, Conn.

Special Bargains In Dolls, Toys, Books and Holiday Goods to close them out at once.

LESS THAN COST PRICES.

THE T. R. SADD CO. Willimantic, Conn.

Special Bargains In Dolls, Toys, Books and Holiday Goods to close them out at once.

LESS THAN COST PRICES.

THE T. R. SADD CO. Willimantic, Conn.

Special Bargains In Dolls, Toys, Books and Holiday Goods to close them out at once.

LESS THAN COST PRICES.

THE T. R. SADD CO. Willimantic, Conn.

Special Bargains In Dolls, Toys, Books and Holiday Goods to close them out at once.

LESS THAN COST PRICES.

THE T. R. SADD CO. Willimantic, Conn.

Special Bargains In Dolls, Toys, Books and Holiday Goods to close them out at once.

LESS THAN COST PRICES.

THE T. R. SADD CO. Willimantic, Conn.

Willimantic, Danieson and Putnam

WILLIMANTIC

What is Going On Tonight. Basketball, W. H. S. vs. C. A. C., this evening. Social and Dance in A. R. S. Hall. Dance in Washburn Hall. Moving Pictures at the Bijou and Social Temple.

LEBANON SHEEP CASE

Decided in Favor of Owners of Animal—Town of Columbia Must Pay $19 and Costs.

Justice of the Peace Reuben P. Burges of Lebanon rendered judgment for the plaintiff to recover damages of $19 and costs amounting to $11.56 in the civil case of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Scoville of Lebanon vs. the town of Columbia, tried before him Thursday.

On June 17 last a sheep belonging to Mrs. Scoville was found missing from the flock when it was driven in from the pasture to be sheared. On September 7, the carcass of a sheep was found in the pasture of the town of Columbia where they notified but they found no evidence that the sheep had been killed by dogs, and therefore did not assess any damages. Suit was instituted by the plaintiff for the value of the sheep and loss of a lamb that was left in the pasture and for time spent in searching for the missing sheep.

Contract to Aherm Brothers. Aherm Brothers of this town have been awarded the contract to build the spur track at Mansfield Depot for the Connecticut Colony for Electric. The firm was one of seven bidders for the job.

Arnold Bankruptcy Hearing Today.

This (Saturday) morning another attempt will be made to take the case of Ernest M. Arnold, bankrupt, out of the hands of the court.

Warrenville Fire Loss $1,000. Thursday afternoon the destroyed home of Mrs. Thomas Whitehouse, situated about a mile and a half from Warrenville, was destroyed by fire. The value was approximately $1,000, covered by some insurance.

CITY COURT.

John Olesnyk, and John Tyburski. Fined $3 Each and Costs on One Count.

John Olesnyk, charged with assault, breach of the peace and intoxication, was in police court Friday morning. He was one of the two implicated in the brick row stabbing affray and drunken brawl Thursday evening.

Charged with the same crime, charged with the same crime, charged with the same crime.

From the testimony it could not be determined who was to blame and both men were found guilty on the charges of assault and breach of the peace, but guilty of intoxication, and the latter count Judge W. A. Arnold imposed a fine upon each of $3 and costs, amounting to $10 apiece, which they paid. They also paid the fees of the court and attorney.

The third man mixed up in the melee, Grewey, will be given a hearing this (Saturday) morning.

Present When Bids Were Opened. Robert E. Mitchell, David P. Aherm, John W. Brown, Merritt H. Jones of the firm of Jones & Pocar, with Edward Russ, representing Garvey Bros. of Stafford, was in Hartford on Friday afternoon to attend the opening of the bids in the office of the highway commissioner for the construction of a macadam road in Stafford.

LONG ISLAND BROTHERS

Purchase Adelbert E. Weldon's Farm in Scotland.

Adelbert E. Weldon, who owned one of the best farms, a real show place, in Scotland, has sold it to the brothers A. and Daniel P. Grattan, brothers of Southold, L. I.

The Grattans are to take possession immediately. Mr. Weldon intends to make his home in Windham Center, having already broken ground for a new residence just south of what is known as the Harvey place.

The papers in the transfer referred to were passed Friday. The terms of the sale are not known.

Accident to Robert M. Balch.

Thursday evening, Robert M., son of George O. Balch of Warrenville, left Willimantic with a two-horse team to haul a load of lumber to the home of David Rusk, about midway between this city and Warrenville. He stopped his team to rest below the home of David Rusk, about midway between this city and Warrenville.

As the horse became frightened and starting forward, the young man tried to make the step of the wagon and in the attempt slipped and fell. The wheels of the wagon passed over his left leg just above the knee, spraining it. He did not permit the horses to get away but clung to the reins and at last got aboard the wagon and drove to the home where medical attention was given him.

CHARGE OF ASSAULT

To Be Preferred Against Charles Olesnyk—Arrested on Friday.

Charles Olesnyk, aged 24, the third member of the cutting party that caused excitement in the vicinity of the brick row Thursday evening, who had been arrested on Friday morning, was placed under arrest on Friday morning, shortly after police officers had been notified.

Only One "BROMO QUININE" That is LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE. Look for the signature of Dr. W. O. RICE and the words "Over to Cure a Cold in One Day."

Charles Durham, Lovington, Ill. has succeeded in finding a positive cure for bed sores. My little boy wet the bed every night clear through the winter. I tried several kinds of kidney medicine and I was in the drug store looking for something different to help him when I heard of Foley Kidney Pills. After he had taken them two days he could see a change and when he had taken two bottles of a bottle he was cured. That is about six weeks ago and he has not wet in bed since. Lee & Osgood Co.

What He Wanted to Know. He—At last, Miss Millie, I can say something that I have been burning to ask you for some time. She—What is it? What is it? He—Has your cousin Erma enough money to marry on?—LIK.

CHOICE SELECTIONS for the Holidays at JAMES HARRIES.

A pocket comb, penknife and cigar clipper have been combined in a single implement by an ingenious inventor.

DANIELSON

Central House and Bernier Saloon Close Unexpectedly Friday Morning—Action Follows Continued Hearing in Town Court—Appraisers Appointed on William Ingalls' Estate.

The Central House and Amadeo Bernier, who has a saloon in the Dayus building on Furnace street, ceased doing business as concerns the sale of intoxicants, Friday, both places closed about 11 o'clock in the morning, the action creating much surprise, as it is the last superior court date or hearing before the town court, which the holders of the licenses were defendants in actions charging that they had sold liquor illegally. At the hearing business, as concerns the sale of liquor, they were not ordered to close by the court, but they did close later when it is understood, in an agreement between counsel representing the state and Messrs. Bernier and S. P. Humphrey, Jr., to which the latter consented, that the state, which has been foreclosed if they did not cease to do business while the appeals from their licenses were pending, would grant the holders of the licenses to the superior court a pending.

The town court was crowded Friday morning at 9 o'clock when the cases of the state vs. S. P. Humphrey, Jr., and that of the state vs. Amadeo Bernier, were called on for judgment. Bernier being charged with the illegal sale of liquor to William Guida during the present week, the cases having been continued from Tuesday last, when cutting Attorney Arthur G. Hill for the state and Attorney Oliver E. Getty, for Messrs. Bernier and Bernier submitted to Judge Harry E. Back a set of facts on which they had agreed, this to simplify the proceedings and expedite them.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

In addressing the court, Judge Hill said that the question to be decided was whether the appellants were selling liquor to the defendant, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

As to whether or not the defendants have sold liquor illegally depends upon the decision of the superior court, or to the superior court, when the case may eventually go on points of law. The proceedings of Friday were accordingly adjourned until the following day, when the superior court, having licenses granted them November 23 by the county commissioners, after the latter had vacated the appeal of the superior court, made by Gordon A. Johnston of Danielson, it having since been ruled by a superior court judge that the appeals are in force.

PUTNAM

Winty Weather Pleases Iceman—City's Expenses During December—Sewer Assessment Committee Named—Congregational Church Day Exercises.

Attorney J. F. Carpenter was a Friday visitor in Hartford.

Miss Flora Ellis has returned to New York after visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ellis.

Mrs. Dolly Tucker of North Brookfield is visiting Mrs. H. Brown.

Mrs. Della Brown of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting relatives in Putnam.

The officers of A. O. Warner post, G. A. R., have been installed.

Joseph Gagne has been entertaining James Wilkinson of Providence.

Frank Jarvis, who has been ill with pneumonia, is able to be out.

Mrs. Minnie Daniels, who has been a patient at the Day Kimball hospital for several weeks, is improving.

Eugene Dionne Improving.

Eugene Dionne, who was badly burned at the West Wash building Friday, continues to improve and will be able to be out in a few days, it is expected.

Attorney H. H. Geisler was in Hartford Friday on a business trip.

Mrs. W. S. Johnson is a patient at the Day Kimball hospital, where she is undergoing an operation for appendicitis.

Ten Above Zero.

A temperature of 10 above zero at 5 o'clock Friday night indicated that the mercury this (Saturday) morning would be at the lowest point this winter in Putnam.

Pomfret Ice Hockey Team's Schedule.

The ice hockey team of Pomfret school has arranged a schedule of games to be played at Pomfret with various preparatory school teams during January and February.

Rebekah Officers.

Mizzah Rebekah lodge has elected these officers for the ensuing year: Noble grand, Mary G. Wright; vice grand, Julia Loomis; secretary, Mabel Kent; treasurer, Jennie M. Wright.

No Putnam Man Involved.

There were no developments here Friday relative to a Putnam man being involved in the jewelry store on a somersault on the Worcester and road yards Wednesday night, and it is now believed that there will not be.

Official Board of Theft Detecting Society.

Following are the newly elected officers of the Putnam Theft Detecting Society: President, David E. Clark; vice president, Dr. Omar Larue; clerk and treasurer, Edwin C. Clark; secretary, J. Clinton Nichols; executive committee, Abjehene Covell, Asahel Getty, Frederick Cutler, Frank W. Perry, George W. Whittles, purveyor, Leverett C. Burrill, George Warren, Clarence E. Pierce, Arthur J. Shippee, F. S. Bruce, Charles Clemons, auditors, Horace A. Warren, Charles A. Wilcox, R. L. Bullard.

At the meeting of Elizabeth Porter Putnam chapter, D. A. R., on Monday afternoon next it is the privilege of each member to bring one guest.

DECEMBER EXPENDITURES.

What it Cost the City to Keep Government Going.

Following are the principal items of expense in the accounts of the city during December: Health officer, $100; fire department, $425.00; the city's light and power company, $550.00; street collector, $100; court officers, $129.84; Putnam Water company, $1,150; street cleaning, $145.00; George W. Perry