OBITUARY.

Mrs. Sarah Miller Corey.

The Providence Evening Tribune of Saturday said: Mrs. Sarah Miller Corey, for many years state secretary of the King's Daughters and Sons of Rhode Island, and honorary state secretary since her retirement from the office five years ago, died last night at her home on Allen road in the city of Providence.

The deceased had been in failing health for the last five years, but her death came suddenly and her announcement will be a shock to a wide circle of friends. Heart trouble was the immediate cause.

The deceased was a native of eastern Connecticut, and lived there until shortly after her marriage to George H. Corey at Baltic, Conn. When the latter came to Attleboro to take the position of the Sprague mill at Attleboro in 1851, she came to this state with him and spent the greater part of the last thirty years as a resident of the Pawtucket valley, where she became interested in nearly every philanthropic and uplift movement undertaken by the women of that section.

She was one of the early presidents of the Coventry Women's club, at that time one of the few women's clubs in the state and under her leadership it made much of the progress which gave it the position it has since gained and which has made it one of the most numerous and active organizations in the state.

She was a woman of unusual ability and tact, and her friends were as numerous as her acquaintances.

She is survived by her husband, who until two years ago was superintendent of the Kings Mills at Attleboro, and her son, Mr. and Mrs. William Ray and Jackson, and one brother, Herbert T. Miller, a well-known musician of Norwich, Conn.

Joseph Ray.

The death of Joseph Ray occurred Sunday morning at 8 o'clock at the Johnson farm at Fitch's Corner, in Montville. He had been in poor health for several weeks, and death resulted from old age, he being 92.

Mr. Ray was born in Trading Cove, in the town of Montville, Dec. 12, 1819, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ray. Longevity was a characteristic of the family, as his father, William Ray, lived to be 106 months over 100, and two brothers were over 80 when they died, one death being the result of an accident.

His early life developed followed the sea and at the breaking out of the war was beyond the age limit for enlistment. For over fifty years he was employed in the Johnson family. He was a faithful employee, a sincere friend and a man of sound integrity. He was the last of his immediate family to be given every care during his illness, and his death will be mourned with regret by his many friends.

Mrs. William F. Hill.

The death of Mrs. William F. Hill, which occurred early Saturday morning, resulted from an illness during the past year by which she was a great sufferer, though enduring it all with great patience and forbearance.

She was born in Norwich, Conn., being one of three children of Capt. William S. and Mrs. J. Rawson Elliott. She has always resided here. She was married to William F. Hill, on Oct. 20, 1840, and his death occurred Jan. 2, 1898, and on June 2, 1900, she was married to William F. Hill, by whom she is survived.

Her ancestry dates back to the Mayflower, and she was a member of the Faith Trumbull chapter, W. D. of Grace circle of the King's Daughters, and was an attendant at Broadway Congregational church. Besides her husband she leaves a son, William F. Hill, and three stepchildren, Miss Mary C. Hill of Canaan, Conn., Elmer Hill of Bridgeport and Andrew C. Hill of this city, who also leaves a brother, George E. Elliott of this city.

Mrs. Hill was a woman of beautiful traits of character which were thoroughly known and appreciated by her many friends. She was one who took delight in lending assistance and comfort, and helping others less fortunate than herself. She was a faithful and devoted friend and neighbor. She possessed a quiet and patient disposition, but she had a strong and courageous individuality, and her death brings deep sorrow to a wide circle.

Men of Norwich Learn What is Being Done in Men and Religion Forward Movement by the Various Committees

—Several Speakers Secured.

Fifty men of Norwich, pastors and laymen, at a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock heard informing reports from department chairmen of the Men and Religion Forward Movement. The reports were given by the executive committee.

Introducing the subject of the meeting, Chairman H. W. Peckham said that the Men and Religion Forward Movement in Norwich was to be an advance along the lines of the Men and Religion Forward Movement, which included everything that pertains to spiritual or moral welfare. It was to have a wide and broad reach, uniting under the banner of God and the brotherhood of man.

Boys' Work.

Chairman J. B. Stanton of the boys' work committee was the first to report. He said that the committee had been working for boys, Mr. Stanton said, the key word was prevention, and the training of workers would also be one of the main things to be done. They would have a course of training lessons for leaders for boys, and in this connection the committee would be E. J. Coulter of New York, clerk of the children's court and the organizer of the Big Brother movement. The committee would be E. J. Coulter of New York, clerk of the children's court and the organizer of the Big Brother movement.

Work in Eight Towns.

Chairman I. C. Elmer for the auxiliary towns committee reported that it was the object of their committee to extend the Men and Religion Forward Movement in the eight towns north and west of Norwich. Those towns belonged to the New London district. He reported that the committee had decided to organize for the movement as a result of a meeting held there Friday night, and there were to be meetings in Vermont and Connecticut.

This closed the reports and the meeting adjourned after the benediction. Rev. F. O. Cunningham.

At Park church on Sunday afternoon, there was a meeting of the Men's League in connection with the work of the Men and Religion Forward movement.

Tonight at the Y. M. C. A. occurs an important meeting in the first campaign of the Men and Religion Forward movement. It will be at a supper at 7 o'clock, and as the speaker of the evening, Rev. Charles E. Woodbury, will be here from Bristol, Conn. Mr. Woodbury has been a member of the Men and Religion Forward movement since its inception in 1907.

Chairman J. B. Stanton of the boys' work committee was the first to report. He said that the committee had been working for boys, Mr. Stanton said, the key word was prevention, and the training of workers would also be one of the main things to be done. They would have a course of training lessons for leaders for boys, and in this connection the committee would be E. J. Coulter of New York, clerk of the children's court and the organizer of the Big Brother movement. The committee would be E. J. Coulter of New York, clerk of the children's court and the organizer of the Big Brother movement.

Work in Eight Towns.

Chairman I. C. Elmer for the auxiliary towns committee reported that it was the object of their committee to extend the Men and Religion Forward Movement in the eight towns north and west of Norwich. Those towns belonged to the New London district. He reported that the committee had decided to organize for the movement as a result of a meeting held there Friday night, and there were to be meetings in Vermont and Connecticut.

This closed the reports and the meeting adjourned after the benediction. Rev. F. O. Cunningham.

At Park church on Sunday afternoon, there was a meeting of the Men's League in connection with the work of the Men and Religion Forward movement.

Tonight at the Y. M. C. A. occurs an important meeting in the first campaign of the Men and Religion Forward movement. It will be at a supper at 7 o'clock, and as the speaker of the evening, Rev. Charles E. Woodbury, will be here from Bristol, Conn. Mr. Woodbury has been a member of the Men and Religion Forward movement since its inception in 1907.
