MAILED IN ALL BOY TWO ROUNDS

Baldwin Too Clever For Johnny Marto—Boston Boy Scored on All Around Boxing Ability. New York, March 7.—Matty Baldwin of Boston had decidedly the better of Johnny Marto of New York in a ten-round bout here tonight. Baldwin was too clever and too fast for Marto and outpointed the local man except in two rounds when Marto managed to even things up. The New Yorker suffered considerable punishment from Baldwin's body blows, and right and left hooks and swings to the head. Marto's best work was at ingating.

PONEMAH FIVE SWAMPED U. S. F. IN BASKETBALL. Captain Murphy's Team Defeated the Greenville Boys, 31 to 17.

The Ponemah company team, which forfeited a game in the Factory basketball league to the Greenville boys, made a game in the Ponemah record, took revenge on the finishing company boys by defeating them 31 to 17, on Thursday night at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

For the first period the Ponemah five traveled under wraps and it looked as if the U. S. F. had a chance, as the score was 12 to 12 at the end of the first half. But in the second the Ponemah boys came back with a spurt that left their opponents tied at 17, scoring 19 points in this period, while the Paulding team was getting 6. Captain Murphy was the individual star of the game, scoring practically half of the winner's points. The lineup and summary: Tutville—Benoit if, Murphy if, Potter if, Jacques if, Smith if, Elison if, Rydholm if, Crow if, Elworth if. Field goals—Benoit 2, Murphy 7, Potter 4, Jacques 1, Smith 1, for Totals 19. Fouls—Benoit 2, Elworth 1, Rydholm 1, Crow 1, Potter 1, Jacques 1, Smith 1, for Totals 10. Referees, Coyl and Ellmore.

Captain Johnson's team of Owls, No. 4, challenges Captain Johnson's Lathrop Hill team for a duckpin series, best four out of seven games.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. PRICES OILMB.

Great Activity Follows Period of Dullness and Irregularity. New York, March 7.—Early dullness and irregularity, followed by greater activity and a pronounced watering of prices which sent some of the active issues to the highest level of the present movement, summarizes today's operations on the stock exchange. So far as could be seen, none of the day's developments was directly responsible for the change. News from abroad respecting the British coal strike was virtually unchanged, and the depressed state of the London markets was doubtless the cause of the early heaviness here. In fact, at the outset there was disposition to view the general situation with more discouragement, one of the adverse factors being found in the announcement that the government at Washington purposes to institute fresh proceedings against the Standard Oil company because of the alleged attempt of that corporation to acquire some of the larger independent companies in the southwest. Other home events which may be cited were the report of the Railway Steel Springs company, which was altogether poor, showing earnings of less than one per cent, and the common stock, and another batch of railroad earnings, only a few of which were at all favorable.

As an offset to these conditions, it became evident in the dullness of yesterday's market that stocks were not pressing for sale, and that, technically, at least, the situation was rather more favorable to the constructive side than the other. Outside of the financial district there is indubitable evidence that business is on the mend, and especially in the west and southwest. This is demonstrated in part by more liberal offerings and acceptances of commercial paper. Of all the more important lines of industry, the steel business continues the most backward, and this condition, it is expected, will be confirmed in the "undisputed tonnage" figures for February which the United States Steel corporation is to issue on Saturday.

Such significance as today's movement may have possessed attached in no small measure to the continued strength of the copper shares. Amalgamated Copper crossing 70 for the first time in some months, and approaching its best price of the post-war year. The steady advance in this stock, coupled with its anomalous dividend position, which compares with United States Steel which yields more than twice as much, has been one of the mystifying features of the market. Foreign demand for the metal continues active, but home consumers are holding back in the hope of some recession from recent prices of copper. The bond market was firm and more active. Total sales, par value, aggregated $2,484,900.

United States government bonds were unchanged on call. Standard Oil Brings Record Price. New York, March 7.—Shares of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey reached a record breaking price on the market today, setting at $99 each, a rise of 35 to 40 points over the previous day, and an advance of almost $200 from the price it was quoted at when the supreme court of the United States ordered the company's dissolution. Trading today was over 500 shares.

Wants to Hear from Jack Monty. Sporting Editor: February 3 we gave a boxing exhibition in Montville between Jack Monty and Young Cullen of New Haven, and Culver got cold feet, but if Monty of Norwich thinks he is a fighter just drop us a line and we will put Young Williams up against the Norwich boy. The night of the match he asked me to get him a match with Williams, and I wrote to him and told him to us as if Monty has never answered our letter. We would like to hear from Young Jack Monty.

THE PASSING OF ABE. Long Regarded as One of the Greatest Boxers.

When Referee Charley Kytan raised Johnny Kilbane's hand at Los Angeles proclaiming him victor in the 20-round battle with Abe Attell, a little gasp passed from the great little fighting machine's boxing game has ever known. There was a time when Attell was considered a title contender which would decide a world change only through a knockout, but that day has passed long ago.

As a general rule, knockouts are the factor which decide a world champion to drop Ernie Nelson was forced to knock out Gans. Corbett exhausted the strength of Sullivan. Fitzsimmons knocked out Dempsey and Corbett. Fitzsimmons clamped the deciding blow on Fitzsimmons' chin. Burns and Jeffries, Wolgast battered Nelson until the fight was stopped.

Attell did not win the featherweight title by a knockout, but for several years he has been the recognized champion because he was able to defeat all the men of his own weight or otherwise near his weight. He became champion in 1904, when Terry McGovern became too heavy to fight at the featherweight level. He is generally asserted that Corbett was never a real featherweight champion, as his victory over Terry McGovern, the title holder, was gained at 126 pounds, four pounds above the featherweight limit.

As McGovern's defeat by Corbett practically ended his career, there was no disputing Attell's claim to the world's undisputed featherweight champion in 1904. His three draws against George Dixon, a title holder, went to Attell's claims, as did his victories in 1904 over Kid Herman, Abner Herron, Johnny Regan, Pat Ryan and Dick Young. There is no denying the wonderful fighting ability of little Abe, and it is extreme doubtful if any other man will produce his equal for many years to come. In his twelve years of boxing Attell has engaged in upward of 200 battles. His record shows 45 knockouts and six draws. The remainder being wins, draws and no-decision affairs. And by far the greatest number of no-decision bouts went to Attell's credit. Benny Yanger is one of the few to hold a decision over Attell, and that was obtained in 1902. Tom Kilbane of Cleveland (no relation to the title champion) got a decision over Abe last year in Cleveland, but that was due to Abe breaking his leg. Brooklyn's Tommy Carroll, Tony Bender and Johnny Corbett are credited with having beaten Attell. Bender did the trick in a private bout at local gymnasium in 1908, and Corbett delivered the sleep punch during a gymnasium wrangle and Attell's loss in a public contest, scored by Brooklyn Tommy Carroll and Dick Young. The latter was retrieved by Attell with a right hand over Sullivan. Attell has played the game like an expert. He has a right hand and fought on his merits.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS. Genuine Merit Required to Win the People's Confidence.

Have you ever stopped to consider why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promise of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as it is an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been cured by those who have cured by it. In an interview on the subject a prominent local druggist says, "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root preparation. I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend it, in almost every case it shows immediate results to the most of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

The success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that it fulfills every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder diseases, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism. A free trial bottle will be sent by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper. Regular size bottles sold at all druggists—50c and $1.00.

AMERICANS MUST HAVE BIG TEAM FOR OLYMPICS. Arrangement of Programme Will Make It Hard to Double Up.

Although the Olympic games will close about the entire month of July, the most important events of the track and field section will be confined to a period of ten days, the last being the 10th. There is now a certain amount of dissatisfaction on the part of the Americans because the Swedish Olympic committee has so grouped the various events that it will be extremely difficult for the American athletes to double up in events as they did in English games in 1908. The result will be the need of a much larger team of Americans than was previously thought of.

The Swedes have arranged two all-round championships which are attracting considerable attention in this country. One is called the pentathlon, and consists of five events. The other is the decathlon, in which there will be 10 events contained in the same country. One is called the pentathlon, and consists of five events. Pat Dougherty is said to be in Easy street, because he has been fortunate in investing the money he made in baseball. He struck oil in the Ocean district and has prospered in business in the home town of Quaker. Also back of his decision to quit baseball before he is a back number is the fact that his health is not good.
