SEEDS OF CONFUSION AND TYRANNY

President Taft Says They Are Sown by Such Proposals as the Recall of Decisions

ANSWER TO ROOSEVELT'S SPEECH AT COLUMBUS

Would Subject Guaranties of Life, Liberty and Property to the Fictful Impulse of a Temporary Majority of an Electorate—Would Destroy Probability of Consistency and Prepare the Way for Exercise of the Greatest Tyranny.

Toledo, March 8.—President Taft made answer here tonight to the propaganda for the recall of judges and for the more direct proposal for the recall of judicial decisions. His topic was "The Judiciary and Progress."

Practically every person in the audience carried an American flag, and when the president reached his peroration against the recall of judges, the crowd applauded and cheered with enthusiasm. Mr. Taft's declaration that the recall of judges was an out-moded, reactionary method of progressive, revolutionary and unstable, met with almost instant approval.

Speaking aside from his prepared speech, President Taft expressed his disappointment over the senate's amendment of the recall of judges, and his confidence in the constitution as it stands.

Believes People Favor Them. "The whole subject probably will be to go on for some time, but I am not discouraged. I am simply disappointed, I believe the people were in favor of trying these treaties as they were."

Crowds Turned Away. President Taft's appearance at the Coliseum was attended by prolonged cheering and waving of myriads of small flags.

Recall of Judicial Decisions. "I have examined this proposed method of reversing judicial decisions on constitutional questions with care," President Taft said.

Woman's Suffrage Coming. "Government by unanimous vote of the electorate," he said, "is impossible, because the majority of the electorate must rule."

Non-Voting Majority Must Be Protected. "It was long ago recognized that direct action of a temporary majority of the existing electorate must be limited by fundamental laws."

Majority May Be Party to Controversy. "The judiciary, he said, was not representative of the majority of the executive and the legislature were, whether judges be appointed or elected, because they must enforce the law as they found it in every case before the judges that temporary majority is a real party to the controversy to be decided."

Misunderstanding of Our Form of Government. "It is a complete misunderstanding of our form of government," the president said, "if any kind of government that results from the majority of the people is assumed to be bound to follow the will of a majority of an electorate in respect of the issue for their decision."

ROOSEVELT LAUDED. As Greatest Friend of Common People Since Lincoln. Manchester, N. H., March 8.—Theodore Roosevelt was lauded as a "man who has done more for the common people than any man since Abraham Lincoln."

Another Challenge. Roosevelt Manager Directs Two Questions to Director McKinley. Washington, March 8.—Senator Dixon issued another "challenge" from the Roosevelt manager, headquarters in Chicago.

Such Charges Unfounded for Most Part. Such charges, if reduced to specific instances, the president thought, could be shown to be unfounded for the most part, but for the purposes of his discussion he might admit that courts had erred in that regard.

"The Discovery of the South Pole, besides being a geographical achievement, is a scientific one, and a consideration of its probable operation in particular cases and its possible infringement of a general principle on the other hand are very different things."

One Simple, the Other Complex. "The one is simple, the latter complex; and the latter when submitted to a popular vote, as already pointed out, is much more likely to be turned into an issue of approval or disapproval of the act on its merits for the special purpose of its enactment than upon its violation of the constitutional convention or a legislature, and the final adoption is, and ought to be, surrounded with such checks and delays as to secure deliberation."

Prepared Way for Greatest Tyranny. "Can it be that the power of a temporary majority of the electorate by a single popular vote to do away with rights secured to individuals which have been inviolable for seven hundred years, in the days of the Magna Charter, approves itself to those who love liberty and who hold dear its sacred guaranties?"

Georgians War On Pension Bill

CONDUCT ALL-DAY FILIBUSTER IN THE HOUSE. ARREST OF ABSENTEES WIFE BREAKING DOWN

Over 80 Members Rounded Up by the Sergeant-at-Arms Last Night and Compelled to Record Their Votes.

She Expresses Opinion Robber Did the Shooting—Lawyer Claims Mrs. Grace Drugged and Shot Her Husband.

Washington, March 8.—Dinner parties were raided, hotel bookings were made and many theater parties were broken up tonight as the result of a day long filibuster against the private pension bill in the house.

Over 80 Members Arrested. The sergeant-at-arms and his assistants were the officers and more than eighty absent members were held under arrest before the house to record their votes among them were Representatives McKinley, of Illinois, manager of President Taft's campaign. The bill was completed and will be passed by the house tomorrow.

Georgians Conducted Filibuster. Representatives Roddenbery and Tribble, democrats of Georgia, conducted the filibuster. They contended that many items in the omnibus measure were unjust and demanded that they would oppose their passage "even if it took all night." Leaders of the majority, including Mr. Underwood, appealed to them in vain to abandon their opposition.

At first Representative Roddenbery fought any summary passage of the bill. For several hours, he inveighed against it until he was on the verge of collapse. Then Mr. Tribble came to the rescue.

Obstructive Tactics. Every parliamentary method of delay and obstruction was employed, until the reading of the bill was completed. Mr. Roddenbery then endeavored to have it referred to the committee without a vote and the measure was advanced to the floor for passage when the Georgia member submitted that a quorum was not present.

Chair Counts a Quorum. "The main roller" was brought out at the juncture and Representative Dixon, of Indiana, democrat, who occupied the chair, did not hesitate. Waving his gavel swiftly over the few members present, he said: "The chair sees 115 members present. There is a quorum."

"Marching Through Georgia." Mr. Roddenbery protested vainly. When the bill passed into the open house of passage, Mr. Roddenbery renewed his tactics, finally compelling the issue of orders to the sergeant-at-arms to bring in the absentees. Presently, he declared that the Georgia obstructionists aimed laughter with "Marching Through Georgia."

Wife Breaking Down. Attorney H. Arnold, who has been retained by the Grace family, charged today that Mrs. Grace shot her husband after carefully making all preparations to prove an alibi. "Mrs. Grace drugged her husband and then shot him," declared the attorney. He also said that Mrs. Grace was in straitened circumstances, having spent a large part of the fortune she received from the shooting of her husband, W. H. Ole of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Grace Suggests a Robber. Mrs. Grace issued a statement today in which she said: "I believe he was shot by a robber. I will break down and admit that. While I have tried to be brave I fear I would rather stay right here in this room than any other place until my name is cleared. I am not anxious to be freed on bail."

Operator's Mistake. COST FIVE LIVES. Canadian Pacific Passenger Train Collides with Freight.

Ottawa, Ont., March 8.—Five persons were killed and eleven injured, two seriously, today, when a Canadian Pacific passenger train wrecked in a collision with a freight train between Ottawa and Hull, Ont. The killed were:

John C. Anderson, Ottawa, conductor of the passenger train; Peter Moyle, Quebec, P. Q., a retired farmer; E. J. Taber, Hull, a contractor; Wilcox McAllister, Sarnia, P. C., a farmer; Miss Agnes Putnam, 35 years old, Ottawa.

Canadian Pacific officials attributed the accident to a mistake by a telegraph operator at Hull. It is charged he allowed the passenger train to back from Pontiac towards Ottawa, while the freight train was approaching Hull on the same track. The telegraph operator, who is 21 years old, disappeared after the accident. The officials say that the operator was given a message over the telephone to allow the passenger train.

ONLY TWO KILLED IN THE WABASH WRECK. Number of Injured is Eighty, But None is Fatally.

Des Moines, Ill., March 8.—Two dead and eighty injured, only a few, if any, of them fatally, it is thought tonight are the result of the wreck near West Liberty, Ill., of the Wabash Continental Limited. The bodies of Mrs. Irene Good of St. Louis and Mrs. Louis Grant of Adrian, Mich., were brought to this city tonight from West Liberty and will be forwarded to their homes.

Forty-three injured passengers remained in the local hospitals tonight, 11 having been discharged. The Wabash Continental Limited, the bodies of Mrs. Irene Good of St. Louis and Mrs. Louis Grant of Adrian, Mich., were brought to this city tonight from West Liberty and will be forwarded to their homes.
