AFTER LONG SUFFERING

These Two Women's Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Read Their Own Statements.

Cheneyville, La.—"Some time ago when in poor health, suffering from feminine ills, I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. I soon felt better and gained in strength and flesh. A gradual improvement continued as I took the Compound, and from 120 pounds I now weigh 155, and feel that my life has been prolonged.

"I deeply regret that I did not know of your medicine long before I did. Friends often speak of the wonderful change in my health, and I tell them that your medicine did it."—Mrs. J. W. STANLEY, Cheneyville, La.

Distressing Case of Mrs. M. Gary, Chicago, Ill.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for backache and it has certainly made a new woman of me. After my first baby was born I was left a perfect wreck. I was so weak I could hardly do my household duties and suffered with an awful backache. But since I have used your Compound the pains in my back have left me and I am strong again.

"My mother used it also through Change of Life and speaks very highly of it. You can use this letter any way you wish. I think it is only fair for one who has suffered as much as I, to let others know of your great remedy."—Mrs. M. GARY, 2938 N. Ridgeway Ave., Chicago, Ill.

SAYS TAFT IS NOT A PROGRESSIVE

Ex-President Roosevelt Says President Has Shown Himself to be a Reactionary by His Support of Courts Which Declare People Have No Power to do Social Justice—Colonel Delivered Fifteen Speeches Yesterday.

Louisville, Ky., April 3.—President Taft's statement that he is a progressive was disputed by Colonel Roosevelt in a speech here tonight. The former president said that Mr. Taft in some of his acts had shown himself a reactionary. In support of this contention, Colonel Roosevelt went over the record of the present administration in certain particulars and criticized it sharply.

Fifteen Speeches During Day.
 The colonel's speech came at the end of the first day of his week's campaigning through West Virginia, Kentucky, Illinois and Pennsylvania. He broke his record for speeches for the present campaign, delivering fifteen today. All but two were given at railway stations from his car. Everywhere he found large crowds and a cordial reception. The speech tonight was delivered in an auditorium.

Colonel Defines a "Progressive."
 "In his recent speech at Philadelphia," Colonel Roosevelt said, "President Taft stated that he was a progressive, and this raises the question as to what a progressive is." The colonel gave his definition of a progressive, on the basis of which he understood an analysis of the attitude of the administration toward a number of questions. He took up the railroad rate bill, enforcement of the pure-food law, the conservation question and other subjects which have engaged the administration.

Shows Himself a "Reactionary."
 Four years ago, Colonel Roosevelt said, Mr. Taft was supported by the progressive and opposed by "representatives of special privilege." Speaking of the courts, the colonel declared that when the president supports "those courts which declare the people have no power to do social justice, he shows himself a reactionary."

Due in Cincinnati Today.
 Leaving Louisville late tonight, Colonel Roosevelt is due at Cincinnati at 12:30 a. m. tomorrow. He will remain there only a few minutes. The colonel's secretary was at work today upon the itinerary toward a completion of the trip; the extension of the journey into Illinois and Pennsylvania having been decided upon so hastily that it was impossible to map out the detailed programme in advance.

NEW HAVEN'S FUTURE FINANCING AFFECTED
 By Prohibition of Its Sale of Ontario and Western Stock.

New Haven, Conn., April 3.—The failure of the New York, New Haven and Western control, now remain in the treasury of the New Haven corporation, subject to the earning of dividends, instead of having the amount of the present dividends practically guaranteed by the New York Central in the form of interest on the purchase debenture bonds.

The New Haven road owns 82 shares of the preferred stock and 291,500 shares of the common stock of the Ontario and Western, while the Central owns only 10 shares of the preferred stock. The Central asked for authority to purchase all of the stock owned by the New Haven road, agreeing to pay $2,108,527 by issuing its 50 year debenture bonds for that amount, bearing 5.52,522 interest, payable annually.

The New Haven road owns a bare majority of the total stock issued, namely, $2,108,527, as against a minority interest of $2,853,983, the difference being only $745,456.

LOSES SUIT AGAINST THE DANBURY HATTERS
 O'Connor Claimed That Union Kept Him Out of Employment.

Danbury, Conn., April 3.—A jury in the superior court this afternoon returned a verdict for the defendant in the case of Dominick O'Connor vs. Patrick H. Connelley and the Danbury Hatters' union. Mr. Connelley, who is now state labor commissioner, was formerly secretary of the hatmakers' association. Mr. O'Connor, the plaintiff, was formerly a member of the union, but was suspended for non-payment of assessments after the men returned to work at the conclusion of the suit. He-up here in 1910, and lost his position in a local factory for that reason.

He sued for $5,000 damages, alleging that the loss of his position was due to an illegal conspiracy. The case, which involved the legality of the agreement entered into by the union, concerns in Danbury and Bethel, and the United Hatters of North America, as the basis upon which work was resumed in 1909 and 1910, whereby only union operatives were to be employed, presented numerous points of special interest to union labor.

WOMAN IS ACQUITTED BY LOUISIANA JURY.
 Mrs. Zee Runge McRee's Defense of "Unwritten Law" Accepted.

Oplousmas, La., April 3.—Mrs. Zee Runge McRee, who has been on trial, accused of manslaughter in connection with the killing of Allan Garland, a Tulane university student, was acquitted here today. The jury had been out all night. Mrs. McRee pleaded that she shot "to protect her honor." At a previous trial, when she was charged with murder, the jury failed to agree.

Garland's family has been well known in Louisiana for several generations. Mrs. McRee is the wife of a Southwestern railroad official. Young Garland was killed in the McRee home last fall.

While Mrs. McRee's lawyer pleaded the "unwritten law" for her, the prosecution attempted to refute this defense by calling witnesses who told of alleged intimate relations that had obtained between the pair for a long time.

BRITISH MINERS WILL RETURN TO THE MINES.
 Majority for Continuance of Strike Too Small to Be Effective.

London, April 3.—"It will be peace with honor, and the men will return to work," said Thomas Ashton, secretary of the miners' federation tonight. But pending a scrutiny of the ballots tomorrow he was not able to give the figures. Other delegates who arrived in London this evening to attend the meeting of the federation tomorrow are agreed that there will be too small a majority against resumption of work to justify a prolongation of the conflict.

Work in the coal fields is rapidly extending. Large numbers have resumed in Staffordshire and it is said that 20,000 men in this district will be back in the pits tomorrow.

Compass for Aerial Navigation.
 Washington, April 3.—The government has applied for a patent on what, it is believed, will be a practical compass to permit the safe and accurate navigation of an airplane either in fog or at sea. The instrument is the invention of Capt. Washington I. Chambers in Chicago for the aviation work of the navy.

Scotch Potatoes at Chicago.
 Chicago, April 3.—Potatoes from Scotland will be served on Chicago tables within a week. Nine carloads are on the way here and will be delivered in Chicago at $1.45 a bushel, wholesale, as against $1.25 to $1.45 for potatoes grown in Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

The Worry of Housework

Is, for the woman, as trying as the cares of business are for her husband or brother. To enjoy your daily tasks and avoid the results of constant planning and household effort, take

KING'S PUREMALT

It is an agreeable, palatable nerve food, made of carefully malted cereals and selected hops—a predigested nerve nourisher and good digestion-promoter. It rests, invigorates, cheers and feeds the whole system.

Collier's Weekly in its issue of September 2, 1911, published an article entitled, "Here Are Foods That Are Pure," by Margaret Wagner. There was printed in this article "A List From Which Housewives May Choose Without Doubt or Hesitancy." This list was the result of several years' analytical work by the pupils of the State Normal School at Westfield, Massachusetts, under the direction of Professor Lewis B. Allyn. KING'S PUREMALT is mentioned among the food products of absolute pure quality. The endorsement of this preparation and the publication of the article by Collier's Weekly was unsolicited by the manufacturer.

KING'S PUREMALT, with the addition of hypophosphites of iron and lime, is a medicinal tonic recognized for many years as a most dependable, strength-giving, body-building liquid food. Only the choicest materials are used in its manufacture. It is without an equal and is recommended generally by physicians. KING'S PUREMALT is sold at all drug stores and in strict conformity with the Pure Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906. Send for prices to your druggist or to us.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

That Single Track Mind.
 Mr. Editor: Now, isn't it about time that this republican Kilkenny cat business took a rest for a few days, and you allow us a little space to show up some of the good (?) things about Mr. Woodrow Wilson, the man who says "he has got a single track mind," and God knows most of us believe he is telling the truth when he says so. It is certainly very gratifying to the democrats to have the great republican papers print page after page of what the man of Oyster Bay says about the big fellow he forced upon the republican party; but there are a few little matters of an interest to the public at large that those great republican journals fail to show up as they should do, and one is the many acrobatic feats (politically speaking) of the man with "a single track mind."

By the way, who ever heard of a man who devoted the best part of his life while president of a great college to assailing secret orders that he knows nothing about, to have anything but a single track mind, and a mighty narrow gauge track, at that? "Woodrow Wilson, a prospective Barkis, as far as the democratic nomination is concerned, a self confessed "single track mind" fellow, has in his brief career performed some wonderful stunts, and should be given some of the attention you are bestowing upon poor Teddy. First, he tried his best in his "single track" way to defeat William J. Bryan, than whom no better man was ever a candidate of the democratic party. Bryan has forgiven him because he believes the confession of a single track mind. Next he calls off Harper's Weekly, jumps on Mar's Henry, and now he is heard of in the sunny south telling the sons of rebel soldiers that Champ Clark voted for the Sherwood pension bill. Champ comes out and says: "Yes, and every other pension bill." The old soldiers of the north would have very little chance of receiving any kind of just treatment with single track minded men, like Wilson, Smith and that ilk in control of affairs. Only two weeks ago Smith was out hobnobbing with the "single track mind" fellow, and the next day opposed granting a pension to a resident of this town who is sick, helpless, needy and, according to his physicians, liable to pass to the honorable majority at any moment. So much for Smith.

Is there any reason to believe that the single track minded man who sits up feeling against Speaker Clark, one of God's purest noblemen, by accusing him (in the enemy's camp) of voting for generous pension laws, would be any better to the men who made the Union what it is than Smith? Come on, J. W. Miller, jump on Wilson. You are all to the mustard. You and your Teddy stories are read and have to my personal knowledge been pasted in scrapbooks, to be read and re-read long after the overture when you appear as one of the most illustrious harpists.

Come on, Bulletin man, get after the man who says "I unfortunately have a single track mind." God knows we don't want to run him off that track as long as it circles around Princeton.

TIRED OF BEING BOSSSED.
BOYS KILL THEIR FATHER.
 California Youths Then Accuse an Unknown Enemy.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 2.—Frank and Roy Vance, brothers, aged 15 and 13, respectively, are in the county jail here today charged with the murder of their father, George Vance, a rancher near Compton.

The boys admitted their guilt. Frank said he and his brother had plotted the slaying of their father and that both concealed themselves at the roadside. As the older Vance approached, Frank told the officers he fired the fatal shot from a revolver.

The boys took $5.55 in money from his pockets, loaded the body on a mud sled and, hauling it home, told their mother some enemy had killed him.

Both admitted their father had been kind to them and that they had no reason to kill him except that he had compelled them to go to school and "they were tired of being bossed."

KILL THE DANDRUFF GERMS

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the dandruff germs.

There is only one hair preparation on the market to-day that is guaranteed, absolutely guaranteed, to kill the pernicious and dandruff germs, or money back, and that preparation is

Parisian Sage

But Parisian Sage is more than a dandruff cure. It makes the hair grow thick and luxuriant. It stops falling hair, and almost immediately stops itching scalp.

It is the favorite hair dressing of the beautiful women of America, because it makes the hair soft, silky and luxuriant, and is not sticky or greasy. Parisian Sage is not a dye. It contains nothing injurious to the hair, but is a scientific combination of ingredients that are hair nourishers.

DANDRUFF GERMS

"I had a terrible itching of the scalp, and my hair fell out naturally when I was 7 years old. Parisian Sage cured the scalp irritation, and gave a lustrous and new life to my hair, and caused it to grow in. I am so pleased with Parisian Sage that I hereby recommend its use."—Mrs. Helen M. Beadle, Three Rivers, Mich.

Since its introduction into America, Parisian Sage has had an immense sale, and here are the reasons: It is safe and harmless; it cures dandruff in two weeks; by killing the dandruff germ; it stops falling hair; it promptly stops itching of the scalp; it makes the hair soft, glossy and luxuriant; it gives life and beauty to the hair; it is not sticky or greasy; it is the daintiest perfumed hair tonic made. Look for the girl with the Auburn hair on every package.

You take no risk in buying Parisian Sage because it is guaranteed by the makers, the Giroux Co., Buffalo, N. Y., to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back.

For sale by The Lee & Osgood Co. and dealers everywhere. Price 50 cents.
