Stops Lameness

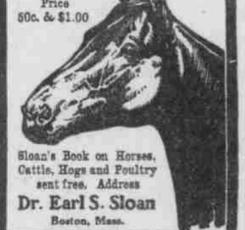

Sloan's Liniment is a reliable remedy for any kind of horse lameness. Will kill the growth of spavin, curb or splint, absorb enlargements, and is excellent for swellings, fistula and thrush.

Here's Proof. "I used Sloan's Liniment on a mule for 'high lameness' and cured her. I am never without a bottle of your liniment; have bought more of it than any other remedy for pain."

"Sloan's Liniment is the best made. I have removed very large shoe bolts off a horse with it. I have killed a quarter crack on a mare that was actually bad. I have also healed raw, sore necks on three horses. I have healed grease heel on a mare that could hardly walk."

DAVID A. WELLS

the famous free trader, once told a friend, "If I had left my money in the Savings Bank I would be worth a great deal more."

Evidently he made some investments that did not turn out profitably. Thousands upon thousands have had the same experience. Mr. Wells probably had an acquaintance with as many men of affairs in his day as any citizen of the country, so if he would have been "worth a great deal more," isn't it a good plan for you to leave your money in the savings bank.

This bank solicits deposits and guarantees the depositors a safe, sane and conservative management, according to the law.

Savings banks can only invest in such securities as stipulated by law.

WEDDING. Taylor—Dougan. Friday's New York Times said: The marriage of Mrs. Kate Hathaway Dougan to Dr. D. Everett Taylor, both formerly of Connecticut, but now of this city, took place at noon yesterday in the Church of the Transfiguration.

The Rev. Dr. Houghton, rector of the church, officiated. The bride's father, Amos Hathaway, of Hartford, Conn., gave her in marriage. She was unattended, and was dressed in white and wore a corsage bouquet of gardenias. Herbert L. Haskell acted as best man. Following the ceremony, a reception was served, and later the couple left for their honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside at the Wyoming apartments, 17th avenue and 55th street.

Demonstration at State College. There will be a free demonstration of farming with dynamite at the Connecticut Agricultural College at Storrs today (Saturday). Experts from the Dupont Powder company will be there and will show how to plow, dig ditches, excavate holes for planting trees, blow out stumps and do a number of other stunts with dynamite. These demonstrations are being given all over New England by the company and they are attracting not a little attention. If the weather is favorable it is expected that there will be a large number present to witness the experiments.

To Join Vaudeville Company. John Lavallee, who has been employed at a local pool and billiard room, left Friday morning for New York to join Sig Turney's vaudeville artists' troupe. The Turneys are also Willimantic people.

Fall Down Flight of Stairs. Margaret O'Brien, while at work in T. H. Wood's silk mill at South Coventry Friday morning, slipped backwards at the foot of a flight of stairs and fell the full length of the flight. She was in an unconscious condition when Dr. W. L. Higgins arrived. She was soon revived and an examination disclosed that she had sustained no broken bones, but was badly shaken up and bruised.

Library Fumigated. The Willimantic public library was fumigated Friday. It has been closed for the past three weeks or so because of the prevalence of smallpox. It is expected that the library will be open Monday and from then on regular hours will be maintained.

OBITUARY. Anthony Maczyan. Anthony, the 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Maczyan, died on Thursday evening at the home of his parents, 70 Chapman street, following a week's illness with pneumonia. Those survive besides the parents, 11 brothers and sisters.

Condition Unchanged. Hiram Stacey, a constable clerk near Ayer's gap Thursday evening, was reported to be about the same at St. Joseph's hospital Friday. He came through the effects of an anesthetic administered at the time his arm was amputated in good shape.

Goos to New Haven Firm. Miss Louise Williams, who has been stenographer at the office of the Willimantic Gas and Electric Light company for several years, has resigned and leaves today (Saturday) for New Haven, where she has been engaged as stenographer and confidential clerk for the Hessel & Hoppen company and will assume her new duties Monday morning. Miss Williams, who is very competent, has many friends in this city who are pleased that she has secured such an excellent position to which she is to leave Willimantic.

As yet it has not been decided who will succeed Miss Williams in the office of the Willimantic Gas and Electric Light company.

Spiritualist Meetings. Mrs. Elizabeth Harlow Geetz of Springfield will speak for the First Spiritualist society at the Women's club hall Sunday morning and evening. Mrs. Geetz has spoken in Willimantic several times and is recognized as one of the most powerful lecturers on the Spiritual platform. C. Howard Miller will sing two solos at each service, with Miss Mabelle Taft as accompanist.

JEWETT CITY Anne Brewster Fanning Chapter Not Properly Credited—First Quarterly Conference.

In the report of Anne Brewster Fanning chapter, D. A. R. for the year 1911 there was a mistake as printed in The Bulletin of April 19th. It should have read "The chapter assisted in making wreaths and also in preparing and serving a dinner for the soldiers and their guests on that day." The amount given toward the Guida fund was $25.

G. R. Havens, proprietor of a Jewett City store, is confined to his home in Norwich by a slight disability.

Quarterly Conference. The first quarterly conference of the year was held at the Methodist church Thursday evening. Rev. J. E. Newland of Norwich presiding. Rev. Samuel Thatcher reported for the church and Miss Bessie McCluggage for the Sunday school. A. C. Burdick, church steward and Sunday school superintendent, reported for both departments. All reports proved the universal prosperity of the church.

Sunday Services. Archdeacon J. Eldred Brown of Norwich will conduct an Episcopal service in the Slater library hall at 3.30 Sunday afternoon.

Rev. E. W. Potter's subject Sunday morning at the Baptist church will be Three Inquirers and What Kept Them from Being Disciples. Evening, The Great Lesson of a Great Disaster.

The interesting story, Tor Street Boy of Jerusalem, will be repeated Sunday night in the Congregational church. Donald C. Bliss reads the story very effectively. Besides quartettes the choir will be singing special selections as follows: Not a Sparrow Falleth, solos by Mrs. F. S. Leonard, duets by Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. Hiscoc, and trio by Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. Hiscoc and Mr. Burleson; Hosanna, with solo by A. F. Shaw and E. F. Brown; Love That Passeth Knowledge, with ladies' voices and obligato by Mrs. Leonard; He Did Not Die in Vain, duet by Miss Jean C. and E. F. Burleson.

Norwich C. E. Union Holds April Meeting with Jewett City Baptist Church on Friday—State Field Secretary Karl Lehmann Conducted Open Parliament.

The Norwich Christian Endeavor union held its April meeting with the Baptist society in Jewett City Friday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon one hundred were present, and in the evening a much larger number.

The praise and devotional service was led by Rev. E. W. Potter, the president of the union, Mrs. Earle E. Gilbert presiding at the organ. Rev. Frank Fuller of Lisbon offered the prayer.

Delegates Welcomed. Mr. Potter made a brief address of welcome. He spoke of Rev. Charles H. Peck, who was the one who proposed the subjects for the papers, and has now gone away from the city. He referred to the campaign for efficiency, telling what it is, the campaign being along twenty-eight specific lines.

He spoke of the Christian Endeavor World and what help it is in the work and also of the test letters.

A Snappy Address. Then followed four ten-minute papers and talks. Stanley Gay of Norwich Town spoke on Wide Awake Endeavorers in Church Life. He brought paragraphs from the convention at Atlantic City. Christian people have been aptly divided into three classes—shirkers, jerkers and workers. The right leaders, who can plan, adjust and inspire the church, and make it a rallying point for those who are in the most needs today. They should promote fellowship of the churches. Every Endeavorer ought to fill church offices as far as possible and aspire to be themselves these officers. They should increase the congregation of the church, help in ushering and singing, and co-operate with the workers. They should take an interest in the business affairs of the church, especially the financial side. They can bring happiness to the sick and feeble by sending food and flowers and by visiting them. Do a good turn each day for someone! They can help in the floral decorations of the church. But they need leaders of strength, intelligence and tact.

Timely Paper. Mrs. G. H. Prior of Jewett City Baptist church read a paper on Wide Awake Endeavorers in Sunday School Work. She said a lesson can be learned from the way in which an adverb is denoted, where, when, why and how. "Where should an Endeavorer be?" In the Sunday school of the church to which he belongs. Sometimes one may do much to help a feeble school until it is started in another church or mission. Why? Because the Bible is the Endeavorer's guide book, and is more studied in the Sunday school. Wide awake Endeavorers should be prepared to take classes and so help the indifferent. Boys will look up to idolize a consecrated young man, and the girls to a good woman.

In Form of Acrostic. Miss Alice A. Bishop of Bozrah spoke on Wide Awake Endeavorers and put it in the form of an acrostic: Interested in good citizenship—Diligent—Enthusiastic—Active—Workers for Missions—Awake—Kind—Efficient, Earnest—Not easily disheartened—Devoted—Able to cheer—Vigilant—Original—Ready to serve others—Evangelistic—Right minded—Social. The whole forming the word, Wide Awake Christian Endeavorers.

Personal Evangelism. Rev. F. O. Cunningham of Norwich spoke on Endeavorers in Personal Evangelism. He said: Life and death were the two most striking words in the world. This week in the fate of the Titanic the world has seen what these words mean as never before in this generation.

Religion is a message of life and death. Personal evangelism is a transcendent privilege. From all the world goes up such a call S. O. S. (save our souls) as the wireless message. It is not the duty of ministers alone. It is personal work on the part of everybody.

Misses Evelyn and Emma Gardner sang in the Cross of Christ. I Glory, a duet.

State Field Secretary Heard. President Potter then introduced State Field Secretary Karl Lehmann, who conducted an open parliament. A list of questions was used, which he answered.

Local Hospitality. A collation was served in the vestry by the Baptist society, under the direction of the social committee, Miss Mabel McRobbie, Miss Ida Foster, Miss Ruth Gray, George M. Clarke and Alvin Douglas. Mrs. C. F. Gardner had charge of the dining room; at the tables were Mrs. G. H. Prior, Miss Edith Butts, Mrs. George Sparks, Mrs. Elmer Tarbox, Mrs. B. L. Gardner and Mrs. C. F. Gardner.

They were assisted by Misses Elizabeth Clarke, Mrs. W. H. Johnston, Alice Brown, Alice Gilbert, Emma Gardner and May Blake.

Reception Committee. The reception committee was the officers of the society: President C. F. Gardner, Vice President Charles Armstrong, Secretary Alice McRobbie and Treasurer Alice Brown.

Evening Session. The evening session was opened by a praise and devotional service by the president, Rev. W. Potter; Rev. Samuel Thatcher of the Methodist church leading in prayer. The choir of fifteen (trained voices sang an anthem, The Lord Reigneth.

Secretary Lehmann answered several questions from the leaflets, and after the collection Miss Alice McRobbie sang Star of Hope, with violin obligato by Miss Ina Brown.

Resolutions Adopted. The committee on resolutions, George Hyde, Miss Alice Blanton and Miss Isabel Stephenson presented resolutions which were adopted that the union send to our representative at Washington embodying the hope that the representatives of the Young People's societies of eight towns of eastern Connecticut at Jewett City assembled express the hope that such will do all in his power to secure the passage of the Shepherd-Kenyon bill now before congress to prohibit the importation of intoxicating liquors into prohibition territory.

It was also resolved to send to the governor of New Mexico approval of his course in prohibiting the Johnson-Klynn fight.

The resolutions committee thanked Mr. Lehmann for his helpful and inspiring presence and extended to the Baptist Young People's society of Jewett City hearty thanks for the royal welcome extended the union and for the sumptuous and satisfying repast.

Secretary Lehmann's Able Address. The address of the evening was by Secretary Lehmann, who brought the greetings of the Endeavorers at Jamaica, where he has been at work. He described his work there in an entertaining manner. There never was a time when C. E. was growing faster, he said. One thing that will make C. E. better is personal work. He talked on C. E.'s three big words, First, Consecration. The call for complete consecration on the part of the young people is the most pressing. The strongest force in the church is the consecrated group of young people. Enthusiasm is the second word. Without enthusiasm no great thing is done. Do not curb it but direct it, and Christian Endeavor is doing it. The only way to make the society go is to talk it up and enthrone over it. Service is the third word. What you are and what you do speak so loud! Do not testify if your life doesn't back it up! The people who work the hardest in C. E. are the ones who enjoy it the most. Put in service and reap back joy and happiness. We need more young men and women who are consecrated.

Mr. Lehmann ably conducted the closing services.

The programme committee was Rev. E. W. Potter, Rev. Charles Peck, Mrs. E. Gardner, Edw. A. Geer and Mrs. E. H. Hiscoc.
