BREED THEATER

Three Powerful Western Pictures Appear on Today's Big Program.

Everyone in town likes Mary. Mary who? Why, little Mary Pickford, the charming Ingenua, who is the bit in the Biograph Mexican success at the Broad Street Plaza Interceptor.
The scenery in this picture is without a parallel and includes some beautiful mountain scenes, which with their tragic surroundings make this drama triumph a big success. The Trail Thru the Hills, one of the finest Lillian Gish pictures seen at the Broad Street Plaza Interceptor, is a masterpiece of scenic art. It is a big ranch on the Southern Pacific coast and includes in its story the thrilling incident which shows a man separated from his band of followers and pursued by marauding Indians, who in a hand to hand fight have thrown him over a precipice, believing him to be dead, and how he is rescued by seeking the loosened larva from the saddle of his pony hanging over the cliff. By calling the horse by name he comes near enough to the edge of the cliff to enable the injured pioneer to seize the rope and the horse draws him up to the surface and carries him home. This wonderful piece of work by this very magnificent horse wins the house to a tumult of applause which is kept up till the close of the very exciting climax. The Sherbrooke Daughters in another western picture full of handsome scenery, which the comedy is one of those irresistible peppery pictures which have taken the town by storm.

POLL'S BROADWAY THEATER

Eddy's Grip, and other new ones. The senior will appear in new songs. The trading stamp idea has already proven popular. Double Gold trading stamps with every paid admission.

MRS. SCOTT'S SUFFERING OVER

Doctors Advised An Operation. How She Escaped Told By Herself.

Buckner, Mo.—"For more than a year I suffered agonies from female troubles and the doctors at last decided there was no help for me unless I went to the hospital for an operation. I was awfully against that operation and as a last resort wrote to you for special advice and I told you just what I suffered with bearing down pains, backache, shooting pains in my left side, and at times I could not touch my foot to the floor without screaming.
I was short of breath, had smothered spells, felt dull and druggish all the time.
I could not do any work and oh how I dreaded to have an operation.
"I received a letter full of kind advice, which I followed, and if I had only written her a year ago I would have been saved so much suffering, for today I am a well woman. I am now keeping house again and do every bit of my own work.
Every one in this part of the country knows it was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vague-table Compound that has restored me to health, and everywhere I go I recommend it to suffering women."— LIZZIE SCOTT, Buckner, Mo.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
