

CURRENT TOPICS IN WESTERLY

Local Overseers at Rocky Point Meeting—Democratic Caucus—Bennett-Campbell Wedding—Military Interests—Getting Ready For Trolley Extension to Weekpaug—Gold Prize For Timothy J. Connor.

The state rifle ranges at Rumford and Westerly will be opened June 1 and remain open until September 1. Major Arthur S. Nash has been appointed range officer for the Westerly range, which will be the practice place for the fifth company and the officers resident in Westerly.

Andrew Farrell called the democratic caucus to order Saturday evening in the town hall and was elected chairman. The caucus was for the purpose of making nominations for town officers to be held for at the June election and resulted as follows:

It is proposed to send a team to the meet of the New England Military Rifle association at Wakefield, Mass., during the latter part of August. This team will be chosen strictly by competition from among those qualified as experts prior to August 3. In the event of the failure of enough to qualify as experts, the highest sharpshooters will be allowed to compete. The board of officers will prescribe the rules and make the selections. The team will consist of twelve individuals and three alternates and officers detailed as captain, coach, spotter, quartermaster and medical officer. Pay, transportation and assistance will be allowed as usual.

The several commands constituting the Rhode Island National guard are busily engaged drilling under final instructions previous to the annual tour of duty at the forts at the entrance to Narragansett bay or at the state camp ground at Quonset Point. The fifth company, Westerly, is making earnest endeavor to make as good a showing as any other company of the coast artillery corps.

The officers of the coast artillery corps will go to Fort Greble for a whole week preceding that of the respective commands, and will thus have the benefit of special officers training before joining their several organizations for actual work. The officers of the cavalry commands will go to the cavalry maneuvers in Vermont for a week and the instructions there received will be of advantage when they go into camp at Quonset.

The tours of duty will begin earlier this year than usual, the hospital corps and light battery going to Quonset on June 23 for an encampment of eight days. On July 3 the officers of the coast artillery districts will go to Newport for a week of instruction at Fort Greble. In years past it has been the custom for the sixteen companies constituting the two artillery districts to do their tour of duty at the same time, the companies being distributed among the several forts in Narragansett bay. This year there will be a change and each district will do their tour of duty separately. The troops of the Second district will leave Providence on the morning of Sunday, June 14, and will return the following Sunday morning. The same steamer that brings the returning soldiers will on the same day transport the companies of the first district, including the Westerly command, to the same destination. The encampment of the cavalry will be at Quonset Point some time in August.

Over four hundred mill overseers from all points of New England and the Middle states held the semi-annual of Wooten and Worsted Overseers at Rocky Point, Saturday, and nominations for officers were made to be held for at the annual meeting. Two Rhode Island men were honored by being nominated for the presidency of the association, James E. Pickford of Carolina and Richard J. Hill of Woonsocket. The other nominations made are Joseph E. Dolan, Harrisville, first vice president; Edward Taft, Bridgeton, second vice president; Walter Pickford, Clinton, Mass., and COLLIER'S WEEKLY. In its issue of September 2, 1911, published an article entitled "Here Are Foods That Are Pure" by Margaret Warner. There was printed in this article "A List From Watch Housewives May Choose Without Doubt or Hesitation." This list was the result of several years' analytical work by the pupils of the State Normal School at Westfield, Massachusetts, under the direction of Professor Lewis B. Allen. KING'S PUREMALT is mentioned among the food products of absolute pure quality. KING'S PUREMALT, with the addition of hypophosphites of iron and lime, is a medicinal tonic recommended for many years as a most dependable, strengthening, body-building liquid food. Only the choicest materials are used in its manufacture. It is without an equal and is recommended generally by physicians. KING'S PUREMALT is sold in strict conformity with the Pure Food and Drug Act of June 30, 1906. WHAT BETTER REASON THAN THAT YOU SHOULD USE KING'S PUREMALT. Karl Lehmann Addresses Endeavorers at Residence of Deacon L. A. Hyde—Forty Hours' Devotion Opens at Sacred Heart Church.

The pleasant home of Deacon Lewis A. Hyde on Washington street was thronged Saturday evening to a gathering of those interested in young people's work. The parlors were attractively decorated with apple blossoms, and the refreshments were served by the members of the Methodist and Congregational churches of Norwich were present and were addressed informally by Karl Lehmann, field secretary of young people's work in Connecticut.

Mr. Lehmann, who was introduced by G. F. Hyde, spoke briefly, before conducting an open discussion of the problem to be met. He delighted to see the splendid work being done among young people in Connecticut, he said. At a meeting of the Winsted C. E. union, held at Barkhampton, Mass., and presided over by a young people came from miles around, one society of 24 giving up a banquet and coming seven miles, others drove 21 miles to reach the winter and beautiful spot, where trailing arbutus grows as the daisies do here. A perfect union of interests is found, the baptists taking the name of B. Y. P. U. C. E., the Methodists, Epworth League C. E., etc.

In Manchester Friday evening fifty juniors were present. The feature of the meeting was the writing of letters—different colors for officers, committees and members. Every society in the union was represented in the large gathering, Wapping won the banner of attendance, 24 of its 28 members being present.

An open discussion followed, many suggestions were made to be adapted and applied to the individual churches. Different points were brought out by those present. Get hold of a few earnest workers; use them for a nucleus. The amusement motive is vigorous in the towns. There is a real desire for intellectual development. Juniors often contain the best material. Stand by the things that are definitely religious. Mass and programs of the meeting attractive and varied. Mr. Spear's Servants of the King is a good book to use in meetings.

Have leaderless meetings, have other meetings conducted by different committees, a pastor's sermon meeting, the latter containing the best things noted in the pastor's sermon during the few previous weeks. Have the midweek service in charge of the different church organizations. The young people are more loyal to the church because of their society. Theirs is the only organization that tries to get others to attend church services.

The question of using the Sabbath for secular pursuits was discussed pro and con. What we need Sunday for is our own spiritual growth. The best kind of character must be built, a strong religious influence must be used towards the end.

During the social hour those present met Mr. Lehmann. Fruitade and waters were served by Miss Hyde.

Forty hours' devotion. Opens at Sacred Heart Church following High Mass on Sunday.

The forty hours' devotion at Sacred Heart church began Sunday at 5 o'clock when high mass was celebrated by Rev. J. J. Walsh of Hartford. He also preached on the Blessed Sacrament.

The procession with sixty children in line was formed two by two in Parish hall and then marched to the middle aisle of the church. The girls were daintily dressed in white with white veils and wore pink carnations. Each boy had a white carnation. The children preceded the priest bearing the Blessed Sacrament. The six flower-strewers were Catherine Wagner, Mary Haddock, Mary Bentley, Mary Mara, Mary Burns and Mary Healy. During the procession the children sang Jesus, Saviour of My Soul, and Mother, Dear, O Pray for Me.

The music by the choir was of unusual excellence. The church was beautifully decorated. There were carnations and palms in the sanctuary and above the altar was an effective arrangement of oak leaves. About the altar were roses, carnations, magnolias, carnations and palms. There will be mass at 5 o'clock and high mass at 8 o'clock this (Monday) morning.

WANTED FOUR POUNDS. Drink Water to Gain Weight.

A Chicago man who wanted to join the police force drove over water just before the examination, to bring him up to the standard weight. He was four pounds too light before. This is a poor way to gain weight—George Muller, Jr. of New York City, knows a much better way. He says, "I was pale and thin for a number of years owing to poor blood. Tried several different remedies but did not benefit until I came to Vinol. It is certainly the best tonic I ever bought. My appetite has returned, my weight is increasing rapidly, and I feel at least 100 percent better than I have for a long time." If you are thin and poor Vinol will increase your weight and give you new strength. Vinol is our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, and is unequalled as a blood renewer and body builder, for all who are weak or run down. We guarantee to please you—if it does not, we give back your money. Broadway Pharmacy, G. G. Ingier, Norwich, Conn.
