ROOSEVELT REVIEWS WAR ON ROOT

Calls Upon All His Supporters to Stand By Him in Fight of Plain People Against Bosses

USED TO DEFEAT PROGRESSIVE PRINCIPLES

Ex-President Says Senator is Pushed Forward For That Purpose—Will Attend Convention if "Strong Arm" Tactics Are Attempted—Ohio State Convention Inclines Toward Taft—North Dakota to Elect Ten Delegates Today.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 3.—Upon the selection of temporary chairman of the republican national convention may hang the political fortunes of Ex-President Roosevelt. He decided tonight to oppose with all his strength the seating of Senator Root and issued a call to all his supporters to stand by him. Colonel Roosevelt's statement is so constructed as to make the issue a clear one between himself and his opponents. With it he binds up the entire question of his political faith, a vote for or against himself. It is, in essence, a question of principles, not persons.

Barnes a Representative of Bossism. Colonel Roosevelt declares that Mr. Root "has ranged himself against the men who stand for progressive principles within the republican party." But it is William Barnes, Jr. of New York, he says, who is to be the real champion of the boss system. Characterizing Mr. Barnes as "the representative of the worst forms of bossism in politics," he asserts that no progressive delegate can afford to vote for any man proposed by him. The great majority of the republican party, he says, will be heavily against Mr. Root, whose chance of election depends upon his hopes and plans for securing improper action by the national committee.

May Have to Attend Convention. The colonel expresses the opinion that enough Taft men on the committee will "decline to permit themselves to be made tools for accomplishment of his re-ignition by improper methods."

Colonel Roosevelt's declaration to make issues of his statements. Mr. Root was reached after a long conference with several of his advisers. After Colonel Roosevelt had completed his statements he said that the question of whether he is to go to the Chicago convention.

Text of Statement. Following is the statement. In the past Mr. Root has rendered distinguished service as secretary of state and secretary of war. But in this contest Mr. Root has ranged himself against the men who stand for progressive principles within the republican party. He has urged the men who stand for making the republican party in relation to the issues of the present day what it was in the days of Abraham Lincoln. He has urged the representative of the men and the policies of reaction. He is put forward by the bosses and the representatives of special interests.

Barnes' Message to Delegates. What has recently come to my knowledge makes it clear that it is a question of the absolute duty of every progressive republican to oppose the selection of Senator Root for temporary chairman of the convention in Chicago. It is reported that the Roosevelt forces will be elected to the committee. I am writing you to ask your support for Senator Root for temporary chairman. We believe this contest is the most serious one which has afflicted the republican party, and that the attempt to nominate Mr. Roosevelt as temporary chairman is an attempt to subvert our form of government.

Will You please wire me to New York city, collect, whether we can rely on your support for Senator Root for temporary chairman. (Signed) "WILLIAM BARNES, JR."

Telegrams like this have been sent to a great number of delegates, and it is apparent to a great majority of them. This telegram makes the issue perfectly clear. It is one of principles, not persons. Mr. Barnes demands that Mr. Root's selection as the sign of repudiation of the principles for which I stand and an endorsement of the doctrines enunciated at the Rochester convention, doctrines not merely reactionary, but of such a character that no party professing them could carry a single state in this Union.

Honors Thrust Upon Rostron

CAPTAIN OF THE CARPATHIA HAILED AS HERO.

AT MEMORIAL CONCERT Modestly Declares That Heroes Are Accidents of Fate—Guest of Mrs. Widener, a Titanic Survivor.

New York, June 3.—"All the ambition I have for my boys is simply for them to be able to do their duty as men. Heroes are accidents of fate. No man can be a hero of his own volition. No power greater than his makes of him a hero, but every man has the power to live up to the best of his manhood and faithfully perform his duty as he sees it."

At Titanic Musicians' Memorial. In the intervals of the Titanic musicians' memorial concert in a local theater, Capt. Arthur Henry Rostron of the Titanic, who was the only survivor of the ship, was the guest of Mrs. George D. Widener, who was herself rescued by the Carpathia, but whose husband went down with the Titanic.

Was Only an Instrument. "A hero—no; but my men were heroes—my crew, my passengers; my officers were heroes; and what I did was only through that splendid spirit that went like a flash from the heavens through the Carpathia when the word came that the Titanic was wrecked. It was only an instrument in the hands of the great forces of nature."

Given Ovation by Audience. When Captain Rostron entered the box to the left of the stage, accompanied by several officers of the Carpathia, he was greeted with a rapturous ovation. Men and women stood and applauded the captain.

Guest of Mrs. Widener. Captain Rostron went to Philadelphia yesterday and took luncheon in the home of Mrs. George D. Widener, who was herself rescued by the Carpathia, but whose husband went down with the Titanic.

While more than a thousand German sailors stood at attention on the deck of the battle cruiser, the president, President Taft boarded the vessel. At the gateway Admiral Von Reuber-Paschwitz and his staff waited to greet the chief executive. As the president stepped from the latter he extended his hand in greeting to the admiral, and exclaimed: "I am glad to have the opportunity of visiting the Moitke, one of the finest ships I've ever seen."

GOMEZ MAKES RADICAL PROPOSAL

Cuban President Seeks Power to Suspend Constitutional Guarantees in the Island

A SPECIAL MESSAGE TO THE CUBAN CONGRESS Declares That Extreme Measures Are Necessary to Put Down Insurrection in a Rapid Campaign—Promises to Use Such Power With Moderation—President's Action Taken on Recommendation of His Commander-in-Chief.

Havana, June 3.—President Gomez sent a message to congress this afternoon requesting the passage of a law empowering him to suspend the constitutional guarantees either through the republic or in such portions of the island as he may consider necessary. No action was taken by the house in consequence of the lack of a quorum to receive the message.

Urged by Commander-in-Chief. The president's action was taken in accordance with the urgent recommendations of General Montenegro, the commander-in-chief, now at Santiago. In the course of a long conference with the committee on laws and a call was issued for a special session tomorrow to discuss the momentous measure which it is believed marks the crucial moment in dealing with the insurrection.

Rigorous Policy of Reconcentration. The next step will probably be recourse to a rigorous policy of reconcentration throughout Oriente for the purpose of preventing recruits from the towns joining the insurgent columns and maintaining the control of the means of subsistence to the rebels and cutting off their sources of information regarding the movement of the regular troops.

President Gomez's Message. President Gomez in his message says: "A grave disturbance of public order which threatens the independence of the republic compels me to request congress in accordance with article 68 of the constitution to pass a law authorizing me to suspend the constitutional guarantees in any part of it. Opposed as I am to extreme measures, I have taken means to crush the insurrectionary movements without being compelled to ask congress to pass the law now requested. But the necessity of putting an end to the armed insurrection in a rapid campaign, thus avoiding the danger of foreign complications and saving the cause of order and civilization, forces me to request congress for permission to take recourse to methods which I will use with moderation."
