LONG DRAWN-OUT BATTLE.

President Regan's Deputy Gives His Opinion of Strike. T. J. Regan, personal representative of John Golden, president of the United Textile Workers of America, in this city during the strike at the Windham Silk company's plant, said Tuesday that the strike of the weavers of the Windham Silk company looks now as though it was going to be a long drawn-out battle and we are going to prepare for it. Mr. Regan stated that tomorrow (Wednesday) evening there would be a meeting at 7:30 o'clock of all unions in the city, each organization being represented by a delegate. At the meeting the strike of the weavers will be discussed and some definite action taken toward formulating plans for a long fight with the Windham Silk company. On Thursday Mr. Regan will leave the city temporarily to make further arrangements which will mean that he will obtain the money with which to pay the strikers' benefits. He will go into Massachusetts and tell the laboring people about conditions here and enlist their financial support for the weavers in this city in their battle for their cause. This will be continued until the fight is won by the weavers.

Milady's Toilet Table

By MRS. D'VILLE

"A neglected complexion leaves a woman older than she is. The easiest way to preserve or restore a fresh complexion is to lightly massage the face, neck and arms with a special cream made by dissolving in a small quantity of water a half-ounce of Eucalypti, and a half-ounce of each of the following: Benzoin, Sandalwood, and Freckles, and keep the skin cool and moist. Dry shampooing removes dust, dirt and dandruff and leaves the scalp clean, cool and refreshed. Mix four ounces of powdered rosin with an original package of Eucalypti, sprinkle a little on the head, brush through the hair, and your shampoo is done—your hair light, beautifully brushed and ready for a simple wash. A simple wash has been found to remove superfluous hair from the face or forehead. Make a paste by mixing powdered rosin and water and apply to the hair surface. Leave it on for one or two minutes, then rub it out with the skin. "Stick" hair can be made to grow in thick, black and silky if Eucalypti is applied to the roots with a brush and brushed and brushed. The system can be made to grow in well formed curves by brushing with pyroxin."
