

THE SOCIAL CORNER

YOU CANNOT PUT A GREAT HOPE INTO A SMALL SOUL

EVERY WOMAN'S OPPORTUNITY.

The Bulletin wants good home letters, good business letters; good help-ful letters of any kind the mind may suggest. They should be in hand by Wednesday of each week. Write on but one side of the paper.

Address, SOCIAL CORNER EDITOR, Bulletin Office, Norwich, Conn.

THREE PRIZES MONTHLY: $2.50 to first; $1.50 to second; $1.00 to third. Award made last Saturday in each month.

SOCIAL CORNER POEM.

Rose of New England. Rose of New England may thy name be written in a million flowers. May all thy hills and valleys fair bloom rich and fragrant, fairy bow-ers.

ANSWERS AND INQUIRIES.

AUNT—Three cards received and mailed as you directed. MAINE LOVER—Letter and four cards mailed as you wished. SAMANTHA—Card forwarded to person for whom it was designed.

SEASONABLE WINE RECIPES. Dear Sisters: J. E. T. asks for a recipe for Rhubarb Wine. I am sending that with others, thinking the other sisters will be interested.

Rhubarb Wine—To each gallon of juice, add 1 gallon of soft water in which 7 pounds of brown sugar has been dissolved; fill a keg or barrel with this preparation, leaving the bung open and keep it filled with sweetened water as it works over until clear; then bung down, or bottle as you desire.

Tomato Wine—Express the juice from clean, ripe tomatoes (I mash the fruit with a potato masher and strain through a cloth, putting a weight to get all the juice), and to each gallon of it, without any water, put four lbs. brown sugar; put in the sugar immediately, before it begins to ferment.

Blackberry Wine—Wash the berries and pour one quart of boiling water to each gallon; let the mixture stand 24 hours, stirring occasionally; then strain and measure into a keg, adding two pounds of sugar, and good dry whiskey, one pint, or best alcohol 1-2 pt. to each gallon.

Grape Juice—To three quarts of clear grapes add one pint of water; bring to a boil in porcelain kettle without pressing. Return the juice to kettle and add one coffee cup of hot sugar for each quart of the juice. Bring to a boil and bottle while hot.

HINTS FROM POLLY PEPPERMINT. Dear Corner Friends: Polly Peppermint has surely been away, as X Y Z has told you; but as to its being on a vacation I would hardly call it that, by choice. However, I am at home once again.

PUT SERVICE INTO LIFE—GET BLESSINGS OUT. Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: Reading sometime ago your short article I impressed me so much that I decided later on to give in to the sisters, as near as I could remember it.

Salad Dressing—(It is easy to make, economical, and always comes out "good.") Beat one egg slightly, add two heaping teaspoons of sugar and 1-2 of mustard. Stir well with 3-4 cup of this cream or 1 cup rich milk that over boiling water. Stir until well heated and dissolved.

Next time I go on a vacation I'll have one, too, perhaps. Way can't we have a truly Corner plend? The imaginary ones are good, but the real article will be better. POLLY PEPPERMINT.

THE MERITS OF KEROSENE.

Dear Social Corner Sisters: Furnishing light is but one of its duties. Always handy for removing rust from steel, for polishing over stoves and pipes before putting them away, to clean rollers of wringers, to remove paint from hands, to soften dried brushes and leather, to fill tin covers under refrigerator casters to keep them free from ants, to clean oil cloth and zinc, to polish furniture, windows and mirrors, to remove grease from fabrics and helps wonderfully when washing shop clothes.

HOW TO MAKE CORN CHOWDER. Dear Editor and Sisters: I have not written for quite a while, but cannot keep still any longer, as I want to tell Rural Delivery I will have to him when he goes by, but not when on the train, as I cannot quite see

HOW TO BREW VERMONT ROOT BEER. Dear Social Corner Friends: As I was moving beside the river yesterday I ran across large beds of wild peppermint, other mints and lobelia intermingled with night shade (of wonderful fame), and then I wondered if the other members of the Corner appreciated flowers, both wild and cultivated, as I do.

VERMONT ROOT BEER—One handful of spruce leaves, one quart wintergreen leaves, one good bunch of sweet fern-leaves, one tencup of dandelion root, half pound black birch bark. Put roots in kettle with four quarts of water and boil all day.

TESTED RECIPE FOR GRAPE JUICE. Editor Social Corner: Here we are. Fresh arrival, right from the white birches!

Dear Editor and Sisters of the Social Corner: I have been a long long time since I have claimed a place in "Our Corner." May I enter and have a little chat with you this beautiful summer day?

does. Friends come to friendly folks. Much of yourselves do you give to help those who haven't a very good time in life? It doesn't take much—just a flower put into the hand, which is doubled up with passion against the world, or a tender touch to brush away the tears which stain the cheek in time of sorrow—simply a bit of comfort and encouragement at the right time. These are enough to make everybody who meets say of you: "What a good man or woman they are! There couldn't be a better one in the world."

PAPA'S BOY HAS HAVING DONE.

Dear Social Corner Sisters and Editor: My having is done and so I can again get time to write. Blue Bells of Scotland: Thanks for card. I will return it some time. I now know your address.

MRS. WOODBURY'S PREJUDICES

"Come on," teased my chum. "Let's go to Willard Beach." "Willard Beach?" I snapped, giving the lamprock another vigorous shove.

"Nonsense," I said, and I pounded the pillow vigorously to emphasize my words. "If you had any common sense at all you'd be satisfied to stay where you are, and try to keep cool without racing all over town in the effort."

AMERICANS NEGLECT CHEESE.

Americans eat less cheese than any other nationality. Cheese with bread is the proverbial food of the British workman all over England. You take cheese as a matter of course, just as much as you do butter.
