TOWN SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Resignation of F. P. Shea as High School Teacher Accepted.

At a special meeting of the town school committee Thursday evening, Secretary L. B. Lincoln read telegram from F. P. Shea, a teacher at the Windham high school, asking that his resignation be accepted. After considerable discussion it was voted that the resignation be accepted.

A resolution introduced by Committee man Thomas J. Kelley that hereafter any teacher signing a contract with the town shall not be released from that contract unless incapacitated, or signifying his intention to give up teaching as a vocation, was adopted.

A resolution was adopted that Committee man C. A. Chase be empowered to secure the services of a teacher to succeed Mr. Shea, subject to the approval of the school committee. The transportation committee was authorized to make arrangements with Samuel Chappell for the transportation of children for the ensuing year.

State Officers Confer.

The state officers of the Master Horsehoofers association held a meeting Thursday at the Hotel Hooker. Several business matters were brought up and discussed that were of interest to the members. Those who were present at the meeting included Mr. H. King, president, Norwich; Fred Schell, first vice president, Rockville; George W. Ide, second vice president, Chaplin; C. B. Adams, secretary and treasurer, Danielson; W. H. Shannon, state organizer, Hartford.

Columbia Votes Against Model School.

Columbia held a special town meeting Wednesday afternoon to see what action the voters of the town desired to take relative to the building of an addition to the Chestnut Hill schoolhouse.

Last year a model school for observation purposes was conducted at Hop River, but it is said that it was far from being a success, and this year it was proposed to make the Chestnut Hill school in the town of Columbia, a model school for purposes of observation. Instead, but in order to accomplish this end the state school authorities decided that it would be necessary to build a small addition to the present schoolhouse, and therefore a special town meeting was called expressly to examine the plan and vote to construct the addition.

Opposition to the proposition quickly arose, as the voters present felt that the plan was not a desirable one that had been tried and proved of no material value last year at Hop River, and the same might also be the result if attempted in Columbia. It was also brought out that there was not a sufficient amount of land upon which to erect the proposed addition, and therefore it was voted by a majority that the town should not make any appropriation for the addition desired by the state school authorities for a mere experiment and thus killing the entire proposition.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

Anson Hyde, died Thursday morning at 1 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Miss Estelle J. Hyde, Columbia. She was born in Chatham Jan. 16, 1822, the daughter of John S. and Ruby (Hollis) Markham. Mrs. Hyde had been a resident of Columbia for the past 65 years. She was a member of the Lebanon Baptist church. Five years ago she sustained a bad fall and at the time fractured her hip, but recovered sufficiently to do light work about the house. On the 16th of last January she celebrated her 90th birthday at the home of her daughter. She was taken ill last Friday and for several weeks her condition was considered serious, but she gradually improved during the spring, but during the past few weeks she had failed rapidly. There survive two daughters, Miss Estelle J. Hyde of Columbia and Mrs. Allison E. Ladd of this city.

FUNERAL.

Catherine Reardon.
The funeral of Catherine Reardon was held Thursday morning from the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Fancher, 42 Jackson place, with requiem high mass following at St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock. Rev. Philip J. Mooney, curate of the church, officiated. The bearers were Jeremiah Donahue, Thomas Kelley, William Shortell and Matthew Geary. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Local Notes.

Dr. William K. Pätz, who sustained a broken instep on the day of the Burnham carriage shop fire, is able to attend to his duties, but is obliged to hobble about with the aid of a pair of crutches. His foot is daily improving, however.

Warning Against Counterfeit Half Dollars.

Fifty-cent pieces that are bad are in circulation in Willimantic. The Windham National bank has had quite a number of them come in. They are said to be very good counterfeit coins and it is quite hard to detect them from the real coins without the aid of the acid test. They contain enough silver to make them look like the genuine coin of a genuine coin. The coins that have come to the bank's attention all bear the date of 1909.

DANIELSON

Surveying for State Road—Funeral of Margaret Kelley—Additional Power in Demand for Manufacturing Purposes—End of League Season.

Miss Elizabeth Pilling of Hartford is spending a few days with Danielson relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. George H. Cail and Arthur C. Cail, the latter of Boston, leave today for an automobile tour on Cape Cod.
Roy Koach is expected to arrive here today after a motorcycle trip from Buffalo, where Mrs. is employed. He will visit friends in town.

Frederick Adams, formerly a resident of this place, is visiting with relatives in Danielson.
John B. Benoit of Taftville called on Danielson friends Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Charter and children of Boston are visiting in Danielson.
Austin Brooks of Dayville has returned from Providence, where he has been playing baseball during the summer. He will return to Yale next month.
Eli Dagenais of Georgetown, R. I., was a visitor in Danielson Thursday.

Granted Leave of Absence.
Miss Emma Pilling, who has been teaching in the schools of Hartford for several years, has been granted a year's leave of absence.

Misses Katherine and Margaret Hayward, Miss Margaret McChesney and Mrs. Charles T. Thayer motored to Providence and Rocky Point Thursday.

benefit what that was given in Wood's hall Thursday evening attracted a large number.

Lumber Dealers' Meeting.
Eastern Connecticut members of the Lumber Dealers' association will go to Hartford next Tuesday to attend a meeting of the organization at the Hotel Garder.

Survey for State Road.
State Division Engineer F. Walden Wright was engaged Thursday in making a survey of the Stearns hill route for a state road to the Rhode Island line.

New Pole Line.
Employees of the Southern New England Telephone company are engaged in building a pole line and stringing a 50-pair cable from Danielson to Dayville, the new line to provide for the increased business from that section of the territory.

Hospitals vs. Wauregan.
The Norwich state hospital baseball team will come up to Wauregan tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon to try their prowess against the champions of the Eastern Connecticut league, and a classy game is looked for. A number have planned to go from Danielson to see the game.

Tarvia for State Road.
Nineteen hundred barrels of tarvia are to be shipped from Boston to Hopkinsville, via the R. I. and the Rhode Island company's line, for use on the new state road that is being built to the Connecticut line at Little Rock. Some of the tarvia has already been shipped to Danielson to be forwarded to the point where it is to be used. The new stretch of state road is proceeding on the ground that has been put in in Rhode Island, and there is no doubt that it will become the favorite route for autoists traveling between Danielson and Providence.

Funeral.
Margaret Kelley.
Funeral services for Margaret Kelley, who died suddenly in Providence Tuesday, were held at St. James' church at 3:30 Thursday morning. Rev. John Roux of Fitchburg, Mass., who was an assistant at St. James' church while the deceased was housekeeper there, officiated. A large number of relatives were in attendance. Burial was in St. James' cemetery.

More Power Needed for Operating.
It was stated here Thursday that two manufacturing concerns in Killingly stand ready to sign contracts for 1000 horse power for use in operating plants, if it can be secured from the local electric lighting company. To meet this demand the lighting company has been asked to increase its producing capacity. The use of electricity for power in driving machinery is coming more and more into favor with local manufacturers. There has been a suggestion in the city of a failure of the lighting company to meet the demand for more power an appeal will be made to the next legislature to have the electric light company develop electric power in Killingly.

Elks' Big Day.
Thursday was a big day for Elksdom in this part of the county. The numerous Danielson members of Putnam Big Outing of Elks at Phillips' Grove—Alvarez Muire Fractures Right Leg in Ball Game—Rev. John Van den Noort Bids Farewell to Parishioners.

It has been five years since Putnam Big Outing of Elks has held a field day and clambake, but Thursday the organization proved that it could come back and some back strong, too. This fact was demonstrated in the entire satisfaction of the 250 members and their friends who gathered at Phillips' Grove on the north shore of Alexander's lake. In all the details of the arrangements for the outing, which was held on Tuesday, the weather was overlooked, the day being one of the finest and most delightful of the summer.

"Hello, Bill, good old scout!" might be regarded as the password to the session of good fellowship that prevailed throughout the day, and the Elks from Putnam, Norwich, Willimantic, Danbury, Webster, not to overlook Georgetown, and even Texas, had one of the best times of their lives.

Only one untoward incident marred the pleasure of the outing and that was a fracture of the right leg at a point about midway between the knee and the hip when a man went to slide home while engaged in a game of ball. The severe injury to Muire, who was removed to the Day-Kimball hospital in this city, after receiving first aid at the time of his death, was a happy thing. The accident happened shortly after noon. Muire evidently caught his leg on the same plate, the strain snapping one of the bones in his leg.

Thirty-five automobiles were parked about the grove during the afternoon—some of the indications that the outing was in an organization that is not particularly disturbed by the cost of high living. A fine gathering of good fellows came in these machines. They were all nicely glad to see one another and entered into the spirit of the gathering with great gusto. Among the visitors from distant parts of the county, Mayor D. H. Dunn and Charles Gates of Willimantic were noticed, as were persons of political prominence from various other sections in this end of the state, and in the city of Hartford, from where he was a member of the legislative dinner at Savin Rock a few days since. But politics was only a side issue.

Appetites for fun and stables were brought along by the seven o'clock luncheon and they had to be satisfied. Luncheon were served soon after noon. The big bake was not put on until 3 o'clock. "Believe me," said one applicant, "this is the only cooking dinner" which was echoing the sentiment of the entire assemblage. There was everything that one could reasonably expect to get away with a first class shore dinner, lots of it, and prepared in a way to tempt a dyspeptic to eat himself into a nightmare.

A man from Texas who had never seen a clam before, probably broke all the state records for feasting. He had stood by and watched the preparation of the bake—the piling of barrel after barrel of cleanly washed clams over red-hot stones, the addition of bushels of sweet and just plain potatoes, dozens of ears of corn, about half a cord of lobsters, and all the other good things that need such cooking and go with such a dinner, saw them covered with wet cloths and half a cart load of hay. Turning to a friend he said: "Well, I never saw anything like that in my life, but it looks like the real thing; just watch me when I eat." The healthy appetite that he exercised was only the equal of those of many others when the eating began.

Owing to Muire's accident the games were set out, except that the ball game was finished, the married men winning 7 to 1.
Rev. Father Van den Noort Leaves for Holland.

Rev. John Van den Noort, beloved pastor of St. Mary's church, probably broke all the state records for feasting. He had stood by and watched the preparation of the bake—the piling of barrel after barrel of cleanly washed clams over red-hot stones, the addition of bushels of sweet and just plain potatoes, dozens of ears of corn, about half a cord of lobsters, and all the other good things that need such cooking and go with such a dinner, saw them covered with wet cloths and half a cart load of hay. Turning to a friend he said: "Well, I never saw anything like that in my life, but it looks like the real thing; just watch me when I eat." The healthy appetite that he exercised was only the equal of those of many others when the eating began.

Remembered for His Charities.
Rev. John Van den Noort, who is leaving Putnam after many years as pastor of St. Mary's church, was all one time, about 35 years ago, an assistant priest at St. James' church in Danielson. He is lovingly remembered here as a man who was charitable to the poor in marked degree, as one who often and always followed closely in the footsteps of the Master.

Supt. Ames to Return Soon.
Albert S. Ames, supervisor of schools in Killingly and Brooklyn, is to arrive here in a few days. He will be made a member of the board of trustees for the third year. The schools in town are to reopen the Tuesday after Labor day.

League Season Closed.
Not So Satisfactory—Six Team League Probable Next Season.
The officials of the Eastern Connecticut League have held their final meeting for the season and closed accounts. It is understood that the season has not been very satisfactory from a financial standpoint; also that next year an effort will be made to have a six team league, getting the organization back to its old basis of doing business. Wauregan, Taftville and Norwich have been selected for the league, with three other towns to be selected. It is very doubtful that Sterling will be included in the circuit for the next season, as the trolley line, difficult to get to and the team representing it did not make a very satisfactory showing during the Short Calendar Session Next Week.

Judge Edwin B. Gager will be here next Friday to preside at a short calendar session of the superior court for Windham county. At this session the jury for the September term of court will be drawn. It is probable that arrangements will also be made at that time for the putting of prisoners held on criminal charges to plea on Tuesday of the following week. There will not be a great amount of criminal business to dispose of at the September term of court.
