

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

Windham County

EASTFORD

Supervisor Pratt Holds Teachers' Meeting—Visitors in Local Homes.

Rev. J. B. King of the Congregational church administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper Sunday morning.

This Year's Teachers. Schools in town commenced Tuesday with Miss Z. Carpenter teacher in the primary village school. Miss Blanche Perry in district No. 2; Miss Florence H. Warten in district No. 3; Miss Mary D. Strokes, William D. Cogswell and Benjamin Cogswell in district No. 4; Miss Christine Curtis is at the Ace Factory district. Miss Jose

Shields at North Ashford. Miss Fred Goodhall of Pomfret is in the East district. Charles E. Pratt of Putnam, supervisor of the schools in this place, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon had a teachers' meeting with all the teachers present except Miss Lawton.

Miss Eleanor Keith, Merrill Keith, Miss Gladys Badger, Charles J. Lewis, Wendell B. Bosworth are at Woodstock academy. Miss Mary D. Strokes and Ernest Beall are at the high school in West Thompson.

On Auto Trips. George Bosworth of Southbridge, Mass., and Miss Bertha L. Wallis of Southbridge spent Sunday here, guests of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Bowen. They made the trip in Mr. Bosworth's automobile.

William S. Warren and his mother, Mrs. Mary L. Warren, visited E. O. Sumner in Willimantic last Sunday. They made the trip in their automobile.

Miss Sarah J. Sumner returned with them for a stay of a week here. Mrs. D. P. Carpenter and daughter, Miss Alice J., spent several days last week, visiting the former's niece in Worcester.

Charles S. Johnson of New Britain spent the week end and over Labor day with his mother, Mrs. Maranda Johnson.

Mrs. Andrew Trowbridge and Mrs. Alfred West of the Trowbridge hill, have entertained Rev. Albert Johnson and wife and two children of Westfield, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chandler and daughter of East Hampton, who made the trip in their automobile.

Mrs. Abraham Nunn entertained Mrs. Amanda Chapman for four weeks. She has now returned to her home in Spaulding, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Perry and family have had as their guest, Willard Hoffman of New Jersey.

Miss Jeanette Trowbridge and Miss Grace Seward returned to New York on the second.

Miss Mollie Trowbridge has returned from a visit in Boston.

Secretary Thomas at Home. Secretary Edwin S. Thomas of New Haven passed a number of days with his family here last week. They entertained their cousins, Miss Gertrude L. Ferris and Miss Edith Ferris of New York.

Harley Thompson of Bagville has been for a few days with William Spink and family.

MOOSUP

Methodist Pastor and Wife on Month's Visit to Nova Scotia—The Week's Events.

Mr. and Mrs. Waller Fair were over Sunday and Labor day guests of the former's sister, Miss Ella Fair.

John A. Prior, who has been spending the summer in Stoughton, returned home to continue his course in the high school.

Wendell Horns of Pawtucket has been the guest of Floyd Main.

Miss Fannie Chapman of New Bedford, Mass., was a guest of relatives here Sunday and Labor day.

Lionel Dupuis started Monday for Canada where he will pursue a commercial course in college.

Rev. Mr. Loomis of the Baptist church will speak Sunday morning on The Problem of Our Home Land. In the evening the subject is The World's Power House.

Miss Clara Place of Bushkill, Pa., is the new assistant in the grammar school.

Thomas Morrissey of Lowell spent Sunday and Labor day with friends.

Miss Yvonne Lafreniere, clerk in the postoffice, returned Tuesday from an enjoyable vacation spent in Fall River and Providence.

On Nova Scotia Outing. Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Roberts started Tuesday morning for Ingouville, N. S., to visit Mr. Roberts' parents. They expect to be gone about a month. Next Sunday morning the pulpit will be supplied by Rev. Mr. Adams, assistant professor at Drew seminary. The evening service at 7 o'clock will be in charge of the league.

WARRENVILLE

Mrs. W. H. Platt has been spending several days with her cousin, Mrs. Emma Bradley of Putnam, at Nantasket beach.

Mr. and Mrs. William McGrath of Worcester spent a few days recently at the Marble homestead in this village.

David Carroll of Burnside spent Labor day with friends in this vicinity.

Miss Jessie Kurhan and sister, who have been spending several weeks with Mrs. L. A. Baker, returned Monday to her home in New York.

A. P. Durkee has been entertaining Mr. Maxim of Worcester.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bassett and E. F. Bassett attended the grange picnic at Fishers Island.

Frank Tyler and family of Providence called on friends in this village Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Mathewson, W. L. Durkee and Walter Brown attended the state fair Thursday.

Mrs. A. L. Green and Miss Burnham of Phoenixville were recent callers in town.

WILSONVILLE

Miss Annie and Philip Monk were with friends in Hyde Park, Boston, over the holiday.

Miss Mary Wallace spent Labor day in Worcester.

Mrs. Ada Jerolamon returned to Worcester Saturday.

Those who attended the Oxford fair last Thursday and Friday were Mrs. Eda Child, Mrs. Arthur Staley and Miss Fanny Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Adams.

School commenced Tuesday with Miss Leah Bennett of Webster teacher at Reuben Town, who suffered a slight shock last week, is improving slowly.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

Chauncey Sweet of Southbridge was in town over Labor day.

There was a demonstration of the use of dynamite on the farm of L. R. Southworth Labor day.

H. T. Wells is spending a few days at the beach.

Miss Gladys Sheldon has commenced her duties as school teacher at the Bugbee neighborhood.

At the last meeting of Senexet grange a very interesting floral programme was given, consisting of poems, readings, and floral contests.

DAYVILLE

Local Guests at Worcester Wedding—Personal Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hope, with two children, of Westley spent Labor day with Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hope.

The Ladies' Aid society meets Wednesday next with Mrs. Samuel Gillette.

Miss Bernice Cogswell is spending the week in Worcester and attended the marriage of her niece, Miss Ida Cogswell Bailey, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Morse and daughter of Long Island spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. Aranal Heneault with three children were guests of Blackstone, Mass., friends for the week end.

Guests at Wedding. Those attending the Cogswell-Allyn wedding in Worcester on Thursday were Mrs. C. A. Russell, Mrs. W. F. Bidwell, Mrs. Mary D. Strokes, William D. Cogswell and Benjamin Cogswell.

Mrs. Street had with her for the week end Mrs. Louise Gross and two sons of Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. Brierly had for Labor day guests Mr. and Mrs. Nagle and two children of Westley.

Funeral of Miss Young. The funeral of Miss Sarah Young was held Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Bristol officiating. The bearers were Fred Miller, Samuel Gillette, James Walker and Frank Field.

Everett Miller and son of Hartford were guests of Chauncey Miller for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Page of Passaconaway spent Sunday with Mrs. Frank James.

Mrs. Robert Cragin of Webster spent Monday with Mrs. William Roddy.

Miss Elizabeth Campbell is visiting in Woonsocket.

Miss Lena Tripp has returned to her school in Sutton, Mass.

WINDHAM

Weather Interferes With Success of Larrabee Family Reunion—Runaway Accident.

Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Alpaugh of Providence and Allan Lincoln of New Haven have been with their sister, Mrs. Frank E. Webb, this week. Mrs. Brown will remain for the present.

Larrabee Family Reunion. The annual reunion of the Larrabee family took place on Labor day with Mr. and Mrs. James G. Lathrop. Owing to the unpleasant weather dinner was served in the house. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bell of Windsor Locks, Frank Lathrop and family of Willimantic, Roland Uley of Pittsford, Noyes Allyn of Gales Ferry.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lathrop and children were at Watch Hill Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Gray Morris and Miss Dorothy Morris of Jamestown, N. Y., are guests of Mrs. W. S. Kelsey.

Miss Clara Johnson has returned from two weeks' visit at Pawson park, Bradford.

Miss Ellen Hawkins is assisting in the care of Mrs. Waldo Bingham, who is quite feeble.

Arm Injured. Miss Blanche Lewis carries her left arm in a sling as the result of a runaway accident. It is not thought any bones are broken, but the ligaments are badly strained.

Alfred and Lester Eaton, who have been spending the summer in Vermont, are to enter a boarding school near Yellow Falls.

Mrs. Everett Bell of Windsor Locks is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. G. Lathrop.

ONECO

Family Gathering at Burdick Home—Burial of Mrs. Prudence Gordon.

Leander Remington, Fred Bushey, Alex. Russell, Fred Marriott and Orrin E. Kenyon attended the aviation meet at Narragansett park Monday.

Simon Brevin spent last Sunday in New Jersey.

Mrs. Thomas Brown and daughter Agnes are spending several days in Jewett City.

Mrs. Russell Thurrott and son Russell returned to Taunton, Mass., Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Parker of Westley, R. I., spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William U. Kenyon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Burdick entertained last Sunday George Burdick and Florence Helen of Slocum, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Maine and daughter of Lynn, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burdick, also Frank Burdick and Miss Amy Tarbox of Plainfield, and Miss Gertrude Burdick of Central Village.

School commenced Tuesday. Mrs. H. Herbert Kirk has returned from a visit to New Jersey.

Body Brought from Rhode Island. The body of Prudence Gordon was brought here for burial last Tuesday from Rhode Island by her grandson, J. Bailey.

Walter Kennedy and mother returned Friday by auto after visiting Mrs. Kennedy's sister, Mrs. Ellen Walte.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tanner of Westley and Nancy E. Hill and son George called on Harriet E. Kenyon last Saturday.

WOODSTOCK

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hardy Going Aboard—Academy Stockholders to Elect Two New Trustees.

H. E. Kingsbury and Walter Linde-man spent Labor day in New London.

Woodstock academy opened for the fall term Tuesday morning.

Several from here attended the New England fair at Worcester this week.

Going Abroad. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hardy leave town today (Saturday) preparatory for a trip to Europe and Egypt.

To Elect Two New Trustees. The annual meeting of the stockholders of Woodstock academy takes place today (Saturday). Two new trustees are to be elected.

The tea room and arts and crafts room was open Monday.

Harold Spalding, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Haskell of Wakefield, Neb., are with Mrs. William Mathewson for a time.

Mrs. Albert Lithgo is the guest of her mother, Mrs. R. B. Richardson.

WESTMINSTER

Visitor from Illinois at the Home of Her Ancestors—Church Notes.

The pulpit was supplied last Sunday morning by Rev. Mr. Morgan of Willimantic, formerly of Hampton. Mr. Croft of Hanover will preach next Sunday.

Mr. Allen and son, Sherwood Allen, of Middletown, also Miss Sara of Berlin, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Sage.

Mrs. Lulu Cook of Pawtucket spent the week end with her son and daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Linnell.

Mrs. Burgess and Mrs. Bennett are visitors at Mrs. Charles Barstow's this week.

Mrs. Olive McDonald of Norwich is spending a few days with her sister, Miss Alice Baker.

Misses Wills Linnell and Minnie Frost, who have spent a number of weeks with Miss Linnell's parents here, returned to New York this week to resume their duties as teachers.

Visited Home of Ancestors. Miss Anna Smith of Plainfield, with her cousin from Illinois, passed through here in Miss Smith's auto Tuesday of last week and made calls at places in this vicinity which were of interest to them, especially the home of their ancestors.

Charles Dewing moved the past week to a place near Hanover.

Miss Lulu Robbins will teach here again this year. The fall term opens Monday, Sept. 9th.

Miss Etta Moffitt is at her grandmother's, Mrs. Anna Robbins.

Mrs. Henry Worthington has returned from a visit of several weeks with her son in Springfield.

Mrs. William Greenman is visiting her sister in Springfield.

CLARK'S CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly and son Raymond returned to New Haven Sunday.

Misses Teresa and Gertrude Kelly left for New York Wednesday; a few days has returned to Worcester.

Mrs. John Sullivan is visiting in Springfield.

Willis Wade entertained his cousin, Mr. Brown, and family of Springfield over Sunday.

Miss Leonora Jennings entered the state normal school at Willimantic Wednesday.

Arthur Navins entered the high school Sunday.

Mrs. E. C. Jewett and Miss Fann have returned to Norwich after visiting at Modena.

Mrs. Martha Navin is entertaining her niece from Willimantic.

HAMPTON

Miss Gertrude Brenn, who has been visiting at A. E. Pearly's, has returned to Scotland.

Miss Edith Perkins, who has been staying at Miss Sharp's for a few days, has returned to Worcester.

Misses Edith and Florence Peary have returned home after spending two weeks with their grandparents.

The Ladies' Aid society met in the chapel Wednesday afternoon.

Frank Phillips is spending a few days at the shore.

Many of the summer people have returned to their various homes.

The selectmen have been repairing several of the bridges.

Tolland County GURLEYVILLE

Special Sermon for Old Folks' Day—Guests Entertained Recently.

Mrs. Norman Stoughton and daughter, Miss Norma Stoughton, of East Hartford, are the guests of Mrs. Sarah Hanks.

Teacher from Storrs. The fall term of school commenced Tuesday with Miss Frances Bliss from Storrs as teacher. Miss Bliss spent part of her vacation with friends in Syracuse, N. Y.

Mrs. A. C. Freeman has been the guest of friends in Storrs and attended the celebration at Coventry Friday.

Miss Lila Simonds of Willimantic spent Sunday with her parents.

Sermon for Old Folks' Day. Sunday morning Rev. E. H. Tunnicliffe preached an excellent sermon, prepared especially for the aged people, for Old Folks' day. The weather being so uncertain, there were only the usual number present.

B. F. Farrar has been in Springfield for a few days.

W. D. Walker of Ware, Mass., was an over Sunday guest at F. C. Dunham's.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Crooker entertained at their home on Wormwood Hill last Wednesday evening.

Miss C. N. Turner is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Raynor at Windsor for a week.

Henry Dunham of Mansfield Center spent Labor day with his mother, Mrs. Martha Dunham.

ELLINGTON

Mrs. John J. Reed and sons, Donald and John, who have been spending August with Miss Stenson, returned Thursday to their home in Providence.

Miss Ross Liebman will leave for New York today (Saturday) to resume her duties for another year.

Schools opened Tuesday with several new teachers.

Mrs. Nelson Warner of East Hartford visited Mrs. Elsie Charter over Sunday.

Raymond Pinney has returned from a week's outing spent at Boston and Providence.

Mrs. Stenson attended the wedding of Samuel Latham and Rose Berkwitz in Hartford last Sunday night.

Raymond Steele of Tolland has finished his duties as clerk for Frank M. Charter.

EAST WILLINGTON

Will Downs is in Stafford Springs hospital, sick with typhoid fever.

BOLTON

Both Parties Hold Caucuses—Booth Place Sold—Opening of Schools.

The republicans held their caucus last week Friday evening, made nominations for the town offices and elected delegates to the conventions as follows: Congressional, Eugene Cavagnari; George Taylor, senatorial; Dr. M. M. Maine, S. M. Woodward; probate, R. A. Shaw, F. W. Buckland, C. W. Taylor, G. B. Fish; assessor, G. F. Tollberg; selectmen, A. E. Managoga, Woodward; George Platt, William R. Samuel Woodward; tax collector, J. A. Loomis; school committee, William R. French; treasurer of town deposit fund, C. N. Loomis; constables, S. Woodward, George Platt, William R. French; board of relief, Dr. M. M. Maine, John Johnson; auditor, W. E. Rice; grand jurors, Dr. T. H. Mann, J. A. Loomis, M. A. Benson.

Democratic Caucus. The democratic caucus elected delegates Saturday evening as follows: State, F. J. Olds, J. White Sumner; congressional, James D. Bailey, Fred E. Coleman; senatorial, Theodore Batchelor, Fred D. Finley, Frank H. Strong, Charles Lee; probate, Charles N. Loomis, William Williams, Charles M. Pinney, Harry Milburn.

Buys Seventy Acres. F. E. Richmond of East Hartford has purchased a tract of seventy acres of land known as the Booth place of the estate of Frank Brown of Andover. The buildings on the place have been destroyed by fire for some time. Mr. Richmond plans to build in the future.

Mrs. Robert Loomis of Westfield is with her mother-in-law, who is convalescing after a serious illness.

Mrs. Mary Anthony, Mrs. Carlos Ruggies and two sons returned to Springfield the first of the week, having spent the summer in town. Carlos Ruggies has not returned from his business trip to the Pacific coast yet.

Mrs. S. M. Alvord has returned from Ocean Grove, N. J., where she has been spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. R. S. Ward.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Levey are Mrs. Herbert Hawell of Harrisburg, Pa., Mrs. E. E. Brown of Andover, W. H. Dodge, W. R. Baker, Beulah, Mrs. Mary A. Brownell has returned after several weeks' stay at the shore.

Miss Esther King returned to New Haven Wednesday after a few weeks' visit at Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Burr's.

Miss Daisy Loomis of Washington, D. C., is the guest of Mrs. Levine.

Schools opened Tuesday with Theodore Batchelor as teacher in the Center district, Miss M. G. Herskell in the North and Miss Amy Collins of Wapping in the South.

STORRS

College Activities Resumed—Members of Faculty Busy at State Fair.

Mr. Christy of South Coventry occupied the local pulpit Sunday morning.

Several members of the faculty have been at the Hartford fair this week to superintend the college exhibit and act as judges.

Mrs. Wheeler and children returned from Northfield Saturday. Mrs. Wheeler returned because of the illness and serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Knapp.

Prof. E. O. Smith and family have returned from Provincetown, Mass.

Mrs. Rose and daughter left Thursday for their home in Bridgeport.

Prof. and Mrs. G. H. Lamson and son are visiting with Mr. Lamson's parents in East Hampton.

The district school opened Tuesday with Miss Millie Blake teacher.

Prof. L. A. Clinton and family returned from West Haven last week.

H. W. Beal of the office of the experiment station inspected the college experiment station Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Charles Thom spent the latter part of the week at the New York state fair judging chess.

Occupied Grove Beach Cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pitts and daughter Grace occupied a cottage at Grove Beach during the last two weeks of August. On Thursday afternoon and evening they had as guest Miss Josephine Nettleton, teacher of mathematics at the Connecticut Agricultural college from 1888 to 1892.

SPRING HILL

Delegates Elected at Republican Caucuses—Rev. Lucian Drury to Preach.

At the republican caucus held in the town hall last week Friday afternoon Prof. A. G. Gully was elected chairman and W. A. Weld clerk. Delegates to the different conventions were chosen as follows: State, L. J. Storrs, E. L. Smith, F. O. Vinton, W. F. Storrs; congressional, A. G. Gully, B. M. Sears, F. W. Millard, F. L. Backus; senatorial, F. C. Gunther, C. A. Wheeler, H. C. Crane, W. A. Weld. Delegates were empowered to furnish substitutes on approval.

Mrs. D. C. Fishery, who has been visiting in Massachusetts for the past two weeks, returned home Tuesday.

Sanford Palmer, a Civil war soldier, is at the home of his son, A. D. Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Weld were in Willimantic last Wednesday.

Mrs. Jane Smith of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting at the home of L. J. Storrs.

Rev. Lucian Drury of North Storrs will preach at the Baptist church tomorrow.

Or ex-Nature Faker Roosevelt. Since Teddy persists in referring to his rival as "Dr." Wilson, Woodruff might retaliate by referring to T. R. as former Assistant Secretary Roosevelt.—Washington Post.

Second thoughts may be best, but they are not always on time.

For your Health's Sake do not take Substitutes or Imitations Get the Well-Known Round Package HORLICK'S MALTED MILK Made in the largest, best equipped and sanitary Malted Milk plant in the world We do not make "milk products"—Skim Milk, Condensed Milk, etc. But the Original-Genuine HORLICK'S MALTED MILK Made from pure, full-cream milk and the extract of select malted grain, reduced to powder form, soluble in water. The Food-drink for All Ages. ASK FOR "HORLICK'S" Used all over the Globe. The most economical and nourishing light lunch. at Home or Soda Fountain

WILLINGTON

Summer Guests Leaving—William Downs Ill With Typhoid Fever.

Rev. C. K. Flanders, Baptist state evangelist, conducted services on Sunday for the federated churches. His fine sermon was much enjoyed.

The Rickett family party have left Hillside for their homes. Miss Baker of New York, a friend of Miss Coleman, is now a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gardner and daughter, Miss Linda, who have been visiting Mrs. M. Emily Gardner, have returned to New Haven.

Miss Edna G. Pierce of Providence spent Sunday and Labor day at A. D. Dimock's and J. A. Houchens's.

Joel Enos, who has spent the summer at the Church farm, has returned to New Haven, where he is in the Yale university library.

Taken to Hospital. William Downs of East Willington, a boarder at the Bugbee home, West Willington, has typhoid fever. He was taken to the Johnson hospital at Stafford Springs and is doing well.

Mrs. Sleight is at home from New York for a few days.

Rev. Mr. Yukal has a large and interesting congregation, including many children and young people, at the Congregational church. Miss Annie Westrell plays the organ and her brother the violin.

Mr. Westral returns this week to the Boston School of Technology.

Rev. Mr. Darrow is making steady improvement.

Lester L. Potter of Hartford, son of a former pastor, will preach Sunday at the church.

COLUMBIA

Local Team Defeats South Windham—Holiday Week Guests.

Arthur W. Little of Holyoke, Mass., spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Esther E. Little.